The Champion Binder
he past season has given me good satisfaction, and am well pleased with it. We can cut grain that another make of machine would not handle. All the farmers we cut for are more than pleased with the work, and have promised us their entire cutting for another year. Can cheerfully recommend the New Champion Binder to my friends, acquaintances and fellow farmers who expect to buy binders in 1899.

Gentlemen:—I have one of your Champion Haymaker Mowers, bought of you last year, and am pleased to say that I tried the machine thoroughly in all particulars and do not find it wanting in any respect. It will cut anything anywhere and on any kind of ground. I took delight in cutting grass with my Haymaker that owners of other machines could not and would not cut with theirs.
The Champion Haymaker is all that any man can ask for in a mowing machine.

BRYAN NOMINATED

The Idol of Democracy Gets Specific Declaration for 16 to 1.

STREET CAR'S WILD JUMP.

25 Killed and 60 Wounded by a Runaway Car at Tacoma.

KANSAS CITY, July 5.—W. Oldham places Bryan in nomination for president.
Few moments later, amid wild excitement, he is chosen standard bearer of democracy.

SHANGHAI, July 5.—Emperor Kwang Su committed suicide by taking opium under compulsion of Prince Tuan, June 19. The Empress Dowager also took poison, but is still alive, though reported to be insane from the effects of the drug.
The above has been officially reported to the German Consular staff.

LONDON, July 5.—A statement is published in Berlin that the Chinese have already taken Tien Tsin, but a cable dispatch from Shanghai, dated July 4, 9:25 p. m. shows that according to the latest advice the city is still in the hands of the international troops, though the Chinese forces continue their attempt to isolate them, as they did at Pekin.
They were receiving constant accessions, many troops arriving from Manchuria.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., July 4.—Amid acres of tumultuous enthusiasm befitting such an event and such a day, the Democratic convention began its sessions today. After sitting until a late hour tonight, the expected climax of the day—the nomination of W. J. Bryan as the Democratic candidate for president—has failed of realization and all of the larger business of the convention awaits the completion of the platform. As a spectacular event, however, the convention fulfilled the hopes of the most fervid party man, for the vast assemblage of delegates and spectators has twice been swept with whirlwind demonstrations, first for the leader, who is about to be placed in nomination, and then for that other champion of democracy, David Bennett Hill. But in actual accomplishment, the day's work is confined to the organization, with speeches of the temporary chairman, Governor Thomas, of Colorado, and of the permanent chairman, Hon. James D. Richardson, the appointment of the various committees, and the detailed propositions for more serious work yet in store.

It was an inspiring scene that Chairman Jones looked out upon when, at noon, after beating a tattoo with his gavel he stilled the tumult and declared the convention open. About him were fully 25,000 people.

The first dramatic episode of the day occurred after Campan, of Michigan had secured the adoption of the resolution for the reading of the Declaration of Independence. As the reading was about to begin, two attendants pushed up to the platform a pedestal and bust, both draped in the Stars and Stripes. As the orator raised his voice for the first words of the immortal instrument, the draperies were thrown back, disclosing the splendid head of Bryan. The effect was electrical upon the vast assemblage.

The outburst of patriotism now turned in a new direction, and during a memorable pause in the proceedings, the name of "Hill" was sounded. It was quick caught up, first among the delegates and then from gallery to gallery among spectators until the whole multitude had joined in a noisy demand for the former senator from New York.

For fully ten minutes the enthusiastic demonstration proceeded. It was noticeable that the immediate following of Crocker, and the Tammany leader himself, held their seats and maintained a stolid composure throughout the remarkable tribute to their associate.

The routine business was quickly disposed of. With the committees appointed there was nothing to do but await a recess which the convention took at 2:50 until 4 o'clock. As the delegates filled out of the hall, they pressed around Senator Hill who, for a half hour, was the centre of an enthusiastic personal greeting from individual delegates. At 4 o'clock the committees were not ready to report and another adjournment was taken until 8:30 p. m.

It remained for the night session to bring the most remarkable demonstration of the entire day. At the close of the speech of Permanent Chairman Richardson, he paid a glowing tribute to W. J. Bryan and pandemonium broke loose, and the historic scene of Bryan's nomination at Chicago was repeated, even exceeded, in a frenzied demonstration lasting a half hour.
Outside of the formal proceedings of the day, interest was centered in the action of the platform committee. As the evening advanced it became known that a determined struggle was in progress involving not only the question of incorporating the specific 16 to 1 declaration, but to some extent involving the desires of the prospective nominee as to the terms of the platform. The outcome is awaited with absorbing interest as the chief development of tomorrow.

At a late hour the convention adjourned to 10:30 a. m. tomorrow.

The Old Ratio.

Kansas City, Mo., July 5.—The democratic resolutions committee decided for an explicit declaration for free silver coinage at 16 to 1. The vote stood 26 to 22, and was taken at 3:30 o'clock.

WERE HURLED INTO ETERNITY

Sixty People Killed in a Tacoma Street Car Accident.

TACOMA, Wash., July 4.—Nearly 100 people, passengers on a car bound for this city, were plunged down the gulch at Twenty-sixth and C streets shortly after 8 o'clock this morning. Those who were standing on the platform dropped off only to be crushed and wounded by the heavy body of the coach, while others inside were killed and maimed before they knew what had happened.
The car jumped the track and was smashed to kindling wood in the bottom of the chasm over 100 feet below. The dead will number nearly three score, for there are many who will never recover and who are expected to die at any moment, and there are at least sixty of the passengers of the car now in the various hospitals and under the care of their own physicians.

It was a spectacle of carnage, such as is scarcely ever observed in war, for the car wheels and trucks and heavy timbers make more horrible wounds than bullet and shell, and the agonizing cries of the wounded and dying, as they lay on the side of the gulch and on the side of the platform and on the bottom, or were held down under the heavy timbers that once formed part of the wrecked car, could be heard for blocks away.

The car which carried its human freight into the deep ravine left Edison about 8 o'clock in charge of F. L. Boehn, motorman, and J. D. Calhoun, conductor. The car, which is one of the big, box-like affairs, was crowded to the doors and every inch of space on the platform was taken. Men hung on the railings and were glad to be able to get a ride to the city. The car ran moderately along until it had reached the apex of the hill just beyond Tacoma avenue.
From this point the stories differ. One is, that the motorman, after starting down the hill, turned on the current instead of shutting it off, and when the car had gained such momentum as to threaten to get away from him, he turned off the current, but it was then too late, for the car was then going at lightning speed. The passengers on the front platform, who saw the sharp curve on the bridge as it leaves Delin street, endeavored to jump. Several of them succeeded and reached the ground in safety, but others were not as fortunate, but were not as badly injured as they might have been had they remained in the car to the bottom of the chasm.

Kempff's Bad News.

WASHINGTON, July 2.—The Navy Department today received the following cablegram from Admiral Kempff, without date:

"Chee Foo—Secretary of the Navy, Washington: Runner from Pekin reports legations are besieged; provisions nearly exhausted; situation desperate.

German Minister going to Tsung li Yamun murdered by Chinese soldiers.
Americans, Italians, Dutch legations burned. Twenty thousand Chinese soldiers inside, 30,000 outside Pekin; 300 reported bound for Tien Tsin; still fighting at Tien Tsin. Communication with Tien Tsin by rail and river insecure.

The word "Duty" in Admiral Kempff's dispatch is taken to mean "Dutch," in reference to that legation.

The Navy Department tonight received the following from Admiral Kempff:

"Chee Foo—Secretary Navy: Casualties to date: Corporal James F. Lannigan, Privates J. K. Miller, W. H.
Morris, E. M. Provençal, John Hunter, W. H. Nichols, Boatswain Mate T.
Thomas, Gunner's Mate B. Benson, Apprentice H. A. Broman, Landsman H. S. Everson, seriously wounded.
Cadet Tausung, Boatswain's Mate Holoyoke, Coxswain Thomas and 34 others slightly wounded. Ships crews all nations re-embarking. Soldiers and marine remain ashore. Captain Mc-Calla on duty. KEMPPFF."

Kempff's Report on the Grounding of the Oregon.

WASHINGTON, July 2.—The following cablegram has been received at the Navy Department from Admiral Kempff:

"Chee Foo, July 1. Secretary of the Navy, Washington: Oregon has run aground. It is not in a dangerous position; about 38 degrees north latitude, 20 degrees 40 minutes east longitude.
Have sent to her assistance three naval vessels. It is reported that there is water in one compartment. The commander of the Oregon did not request assistance, a Japanese man-of-war having boarded the vessel. KEMPPFF."

DOCKING THE OREGON.

Battle-Ship May Be Sent to Japan for Repairs.

WASHINGTON, July 3.—Secretary Long this morning received the following cablegram from Lieutenant A. L. Key, Naval Attaché at the United States Legation at Tokio, Japan, in regard to the grounding of the Oregon:

"Tokio, July 2, 1900.—Secretary Navy, Washington, D. C.—Russian dock at Port Arthur is too small for the Oregon to enter. Japanese Navy Department tenders the use of either Kure or Kokoshima docks. Offers any assistance desired. Has ordered Akutishima from Chee Foo to the Oregon. Have cabled Wilde offer of docks. Key"

The naval officials are disappointed at the statement that the Oregon cannot be docked at Port Arthur, as that place is only about 60 miles from where she struck. Nagasaki is 60 miles distant, but can be reached by the Oregon without venturing far outside of the smooth waters of the Pe Chi Li bay. The Japanese vessel Akutishima, which
