The way to build up Oregon City is to give Oregon City People your Patronage.

It's a dull town that can't be stirred up by good advertising.

The merchant who advertises only when business is good, is apt to find the time between seasons grow longer and longer.

IMPERIALISM may serve as a campaign scare crow, but before the harvest of votes is garnered next November, the people will recognize that it is but a thing of straw.

A soldier boy in Luzon writes that he has named his little dog after Bryan. "When I first found the dog," says he, "he was barking like h—l, and had chased sixteen monkeys up one tree."

ALL this talk about imperialism is "tommyrot." Half the people who are wailing about it, don't know the definition of the word when it comes to a show down.

RECENT EVENTS IN CHINA. The most important news of the week from China was the final success of the allied forces over the Chinese on July 14th at Tien-tsin.

HERE are some frozen facts that the sidewalk demo-pop politicians are continually trying to dislodge. It shows that prosperity is gradually spreading over the country, and they cannot argue around it, thought it, over it, or under it.

The following article is taken from the Albany Herald:

"Mr. Gillette, of San Francisco, of the S. P. R. R., is in Eugene this week, looking after the Mohawk branch of the S. P. R. R. He says it is nearly impossible to procure tracklayers, hence the delay in putting down the rails on the branch line.

The proclamation of amnesty to the Filipino rebels is as wise in policy as it is broad in its provisions. It has been evident to all intelligent observers for some time that as an actual war the rebellion in the islands is over.

leaders of an enterprise of this sort to bring the thing to a close. Fighting, indeed, of one kind or another may be kept up indefinitely, and probably will be, but the issue is closed.

most severely. It was estimated that twenty-five per cent of the Ninth United States Infantry Regiment were either killed or wounded, Colonel Liecum, the commanding officer being among the slain.

News of the Week Friday, July 20. The Shanghai correspondent to the Daily Express says: "Intense indignation is felt here at the honors in Hong Kong that have been accorded to Li Hung Chang, who is looked upon in Shanghai as the originator of the whole fendish anti-foreign plot."

Kentucky democrats nominated Beckham, the present governor, to succeed himself. Russia has given the Chinese Minister at St. Petersburg his passports. England and Germany may do likewise.

The president appointed W. W. Rockhill a special commissioner to investigate the situation in China.

Battle-ship Oregon reached Kure, Japan, where temporary repairs will be made. She will return to Taku.

Although campaign funds are not forthcoming with as great readiness as might be hoped, the republican committee is going ahead and preparing a strong aggressive campaign. It is intended to stump the entire country with strong orators, assigning Roosevelt to the West.

Saturday, July 21.

John G. Woolley, Prohibition candidate for the presidency of the United States, was formally notified of his nomination at a meeting held tonight in Central Music Hall, Chicago.

George Shimon, a Persian student who has been attending college in Illinois for several years and is passing the summer in Peoria, today received a cablegram from his home at Oroomiah, Persia, stating that his brother had been captured by Mohammedans and that there has been a general massacre of 3000 christians in Oroomiah.

states that the feeling of the Mohammedans against the native christians is growing, and that there have been several hand-to-hand battles with fatalities on both sides.

It is understood that the president and General Wood have agreed on September 15 as the time for holding the constitutional convention to be called for the purpose of formulating a constitution for an independent government for Cuba.

A special dispatch from Cape Town, dated today, says: "Lord Roberts has attacked Middleburg in force, and a big battle is in progress. President Kruger is with the burghers directing the defense."

A special from Marshall Mich., says: Snow fell here last evening for a few minutes during the course of a hard wind storm. The wind did much damage, blowing down orchards, barns and roofing houses and breaking glass.

News of the Week

Monday, July 23. "It is asserted in Berlin that the Emperor of China has sent a telegram to Emperor William, denouncing the assassination of Baron von Ketteler, by the rebels, and declaring that the murderers are being actively sought and will be punished."

It is officially reported that last week 200 insurgents were killed and 130 surrendered or were captured. One hundred rifles were taken. Twelve Americans were killed and 11 wounded. This includes the casualties of Colonel William E. Berkheimer's engagement.

"My Wife Became Anxious."

There is cause for anxiety when a cough hangs on for a year and can't be shaken off. The quickest way to relieve that anxiety is to begin at once the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

For one year I was troubled with a cough, writes Mr. H. E. Curtis, of Sumner, Bremer Co., Iowa. "As I continued to cough during the summer, my wife became anxious, and wrote to Dr. R. V. Pierce for medical advice."

Put a Kodak In Your Pocket

The man or woman, boy or girl who fails to take a Kodak on the summer vacation is missing a large part of that pleasure which is so largely a part of all outings—the pleasure of living and talking it over again during the winter.

The Brownie Camera

Costs $1.00; takes pictures 2 1/2 x 2 1/4; weighs 8 oz.; loads in daylight; costs 10c. to take 6 pictures. Any school boy or girl can operate it.

Folding Pocket Kodaks

Slips easily into the side coat pocket; are made in three sizes, take pictures up to 3 1/4 x 4; load in daylight; are always ready—no tedious focussing. To take a picture with a Folding Pocket

Kodak is just as simple and almost as quick as taking out your watch to tell the time of day. Prices $10 to $17.50.

The Flexo Kodak

Takes pictures 3 1/2 x 3 1/4 at a cost of 20c. for 6; weighs, loaded for 12 pictures, but 20 oz. A handsome instrument—$5.00.

All Kodaks load in daylight with a cartridge like this. No dark room—no plate holders—no heavy glass plates.

We want to show you our line of Kodaks and explain how simple they are. A beautiful art catalogue free for the asking.

15 per cent Discount on Kodaks for this Month.
