

Personal Mention

Judge Ryan has returned from Long Beach. E. E. Charman is enjoying a few days at Long Beach. V. Harris spent several days at Wilhoit Springs last week. Mrs. J. Goldsmith, of Eugene, is the guest of Mrs. M. Bollack. B. Fallert, of Logan, was transacting business in Oregon City Saturday. Miss Herlean Follenbee spent the week visiting with Portland friends. Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Huntley went down to Seaside Saturday for a short stay. Hans Paulsen, of George, was looking after business in the county seat on Monday. C. Clark of Clackamas, was looking after business interests in the city on Monday. G. W. Swope was the guest of his brother, Attorney Swope, of Toledo, last Sunday. Mrs. Alkazane Strickland, of Clackamas Heights, is the guest of friends at Highland. Mrs. A. M. Sommer, of Seattle, and children, are visiting her sister-in-law, Mrs. W. L. Block. J. W. Thomas, a prominent farmer of Beaver Creek, was transacting business in town Saturday. James F. Mitts has been engaged to teach the town school, near New Era, during the ensuing year. J. F. Clark returned Tuesday from Zena, Oregon. He spent the past two weeks on his farm at that place. Miss Hattie Bray, teacher in primary department of the Barclay school, will arrive from Seattle next week. Miss Addie Clark, principal of Barclay school, returned Saturday from an extended trip through the Eastern States. Mrs. Dr. Seaman returned last Saturday from Salem, where she had been the guest of relatives and friends for several days. Miss Mary McIntyre returned Thursday of last week from a month's visit at Seaside, the guest of the family of Judge T. F. Ryan. Miss Nellie H. Findlay, teacher in the Dayton public schools, is visiting in the city. While here she will file on a homestead. Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Pope, and Miss Pope returned last Saturday from Newport, where they have spent a delightful summer outing. Mrs. Yorke A. Barrington and Mrs. Harry Carroll, of Seattle, are visiting in the city, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce C. Curry. Mr. and Mrs. George Jackson and family, accompanied by Miss Clarissa M. Fancher, drove out to Macksburg the first of the week. Mr. and Mrs. William Dixon returned Tuesday from a trip to Hood River. They made the voyage on the boat, going down last Saturday. Hon. A. S. Dresser is expected home in about a week. He has made an extended tour of the New England states and is at present at Bangor, Me. Professor L. R. Alderman, principal of Cook School, McMinnville, was in the city Tuesday. He was accompanied by Allen Barber, student of the University of Oregon. Miss Jessie Porter, who has been employed in the Enterprise office for the past three years, will leave Saturday for McMinnville, where she will enter the college at that place. Mrs. Capt. M. D. Phillips and little daughter left yesterday for Oregon City, where they will reside in future. Capt. Phillips has a good position in the mills at that city.—Albany Herald. Roy Case, an ex-member of Company I, Second Oregon, who for the past three months has been employed in the jewelry store of C. T. Pomeroy at Salem, is leaving the latter part of last week. He is on his way to Eastern Washington, where he will engage in the jewelry business for himself. Deputy Sheriff Painter, of Walla Walla county, arrived in this city yesterday morning and departed in the afternoon, taking with him A. L. Riggs, who is wanted at Walla Walla on a charge of assault on Pearl Durkey, aged 13 years. Riggs was arrested Tuesday at Macksburg. H. M. Templeton left Tuesday morning for North Adams, Mass., his old home. He was accompanied by his wife and youngest son, Guy, and they will prolong their visit about six weeks. Mr. Templeton is overseer in the finishing department of the Woolen Mills, but has been prevented from working for the past week on account of a badly lacerated thumb. Johnnie Graves, aged 5 years, had a miraculous escape from death one day last week. The little fellow climbed upon the platform of a dryhouse, and while leaning over the edge, slipped and fell a distance of 20 feet to the ground. He struck on his hands and face, and, strange to say, escaped with simply a sprained wrist. He is a son of Edward Graves, a prominent farmer of New Era.

Local Events

Circuit court convenes in this city Saturday, September 15. The "Windsor" Kid Glove.—Every pair guaranteed at Golden Rule Bazaar. Latest styles in "Monarch" shirts and "Coon" brand collars can be found at Golden Rule Bazaar. Miss Lyle Lawrence has accepted a position in the Baker City public schools and left for that city last Monday. Solicitors wanted for choice standard subscription books on cash commission. Address A. C. Sandford, box 337, Portland, Oregon. Work was begun on the new sewer Wednesday afternoon. Wages paid are $1.75 for common labor and $2 for rock men per day. J. N. Stanton has contracted 4000 and 8. R. Taylor 10,000 pounds of hops to Paul H. G. Horst & Lachmund Co. for 12 cents per pound. The new teachers' register is proving superior to the old, and Superintendent J. C. Zinser has expressed his complete satisfaction with it. Last Friday afternoon Mrs. Alfred Luelling and Miss Luelling gave a delightful tea party to Mrs. Seaman, Mrs. Grace and Mrs. Gibson. Friday evening, September 28, Non-parallel Union, No. 37, Order of Washington, will give a select ball at the Amory. The invitations have just been issued. The committee on construction of sewers in Oregon City will hold a meeting in the city hall on Tuesday, Sept. 11, at 2 o'clock p. m., to which the public is cordially invited. Chattel mortgages on hop crops were filed Tuesday morning as follows: G. P. H. S. White to W. S. Horst & Co. for $150; F. F. Tozse to J. D. Hennessy, consideration, money for picking and incidental expenses. A lively runaway occurred Monday morning, being the delivery team of E. Freytag. In front of the Y. M. C. A. building it collided with a garbage wagon, tearing the wheels from it and scattering its contents to the four winds. Last Thursday afternoon at the family home on Seventh street, Mrs. G. W. Grace gave a very pleasant tea party. Those present were: Mesdames G. W. Church, A. K. Seaman, Jennie May, Alfred Luelling, Bertha M. Gibson, G. W. Grace, Miss Janice Luelling. Wednesday evening Lone Star lodge, I. O. O. F., of Clackamas, initiated about a half dozen new members. The order was organized last February and is making phenomenal increases in membership. It now has about 38 members. County Clerk Elmer Cooper is noble grand. A democratic club will be organized in this city next Saturday night. Colonel Robert A. Miller, chairman, and Major A. W. Cheney, secretary of the democratic county organization, are at the head of the movement. They are getting ready to report campaign orators in the near future. The Beaver Creek hall was destroyed by fire Sunday night. The hall was built last summer by the Beaver Creek Association and was used as a grange hall and for public gatherings. The fire is supposed to have caught from burning logs and trash in close proximity. The hall was valued at $800 and was insured. On account of the resignation of Miss Laura Beattie, the Eighth grade will be taught in the Eastham building by Principal W. P. Matthews, and the Seventh grade will be taught in the Barclay building by Miss Sade Chase. This leaves a vacancy in the sixth grade, which will be supplied by Miss Grace Tillard, of Heppner. School begins Monday, September 17. W. W. Austin, of Logan, was in the city on business Saturday. He is highly pleased with the road improvements already made and in progress this season. Work on the thoroughfare between Oregon City and Logan he says will be completed by the 1st of October, and when done will be one of the best roads in the county. It will be graded and graveled in the center, with an ungraveled driveway on either side for summer use. Last Monday S. H. Kennedy left Tillamook en route to Oregon City with 1000 pounds of cheese to sell. He sold out before reaching his destination and received 10 cents per pound for his product. Mr. Kennedy was formally a Clackamas county farmer and is well known in Oregon City. He states that four years ago he was compelled to barter his cheese for farm produce, there being no money in the country, but now, under a good republican administration, he receives spot cash everywhere. Last Saturday A. McCully contracted his hops to H. C. Whalberg, a Portland commission merchant, who is to advance 5 cents per pound for picking and incidental expenses and is to be repaid the money advanced and an additional 1 cent per pound as commission for selling the crop. William Brusch, of Macksburg, has contracted 10,000 pounds to Mr. Whalberg at 10 cents, and L. P. Howard, of Canby, has contracted to the same gentleman 6000 pounds at the same figure. A Harrington has contracted 5000 pounds to H. C. Whalberg at 9 cents per pound. As an evidence of the universal fraternal feelings existing between the Woodmen and Women of Woodcraft last Tuesday evening a large delegation of the Woodmen paid Sola Circle a fraternal visit immediately following the initiatory ceremony of twelve candidates. The circle being taken completely by surprise was compelled to adjourn to receive the guests when a right royal good time was engaged in. The tables were spread and ice cream, cake and fruit were enjoyed. Sola Circle is in a very prosperous condition, having doubled the membership in the last three months. Eleven hundred and sixty acres of land in township 3 south, range 3 east, in this county, has just been deeded to the state by Sheriff Cooke on mortgage foreclosure, wherein the state land board of school fund commissioners was plaintiff and W. T. Burney was defendant, to satisfy a claim of $1500. Two hundred acres in the G. Ross claim, in township 6 south, range 1 east, was likewise transferred to satisfy a claim of $3200 held by the state against George Phister, and 90 acres in township 2 south, range 4 east, to satisfy a $900 claim held by the state against J. Revenue. There are several thousand acres of land in Clackamas county thus held by the state. The committee appointed to assess the property in sewer district No. 2, have as yet reached no definite methods of procedure. Different methods have been discussed as follows: The frontage plan, that is, so much for each front foot of property, the area plan, assessing the entire number of feet contained in the lot, and also a method that includes both of the former plans; that is, assessing the 50 feet adjacent to the street on the frontage plan, and all back of it on area plan. There is still another plan to be considered; that of taking the total cost of the sewer, and dividing it by the number of lots in the district. Those who have long lateral connections will be given a certain per cent discount, and those whose connections would be less expensive will make up this deficit. Buchanan as Jekyl and Hyde. Charles Edward Buchanan has a unique method of producing a marriage license without the aid of attesting witnesses. He proved it three years ago when he secured license to wed Miss Emma J. Frobase. His full name is Charles Edward Buchanan. He obtained the license for Charles Buchanan and swore to them as Edward Buchanan. Since that time, marriage has proved a failure to him, and he now wants the court to say the license is illegal. What the court will determine in such a case remains to be seen. A Portland attorney was looking up the case Wednesday. Chinese as Husbandmen. The white man is no longer the sole element in husbandry in Clackamas county. The Chinese are taking to this pursuit and many of them have extensive gardens and hopyards within our borders. To say that they are successful is unnecessary. In hopyraising alone, there are no less than a dozen Mongolian engaged in this county. They are now preparing to harvest their hops and are borrowing money from loaners to carry on their work. Last Friday six Chinese gave chattel mortgages on their crops in favor of J. H. Woodward, a Portland attorney, in the following sums: Sing Bing, $500; Wong Hing Tong, $1000; Wong Duck, $1000; Jim Lee, $700; Wong Tong, $1100; Git Sing, $1,500. Probate Court. In the matter of the estate of Agnes M. Washburn, letters of administration were issued to George T. Howard, with J. T. Apperson, William Galloway and W. H. Smith as appraisers of the estate. The administrator showed to the court that a portion of the estate was incumbered by a mortgage of $1000 falling due September 6, 1900; that there are no funds in his hands with which to pay it; that he can borrow money at 7 per cent, the rate paid on the present loan being 8 per cent; and it appearing to the court that it is for the best interests of the estate, it was ordered that the administrator borrow $1000 on the premises and pay off the former mortgage. A writ of review has been granted by Judge Ryan in the suit brought before Justice J. C. Heines, of Oswego, wherein Robert Irving was plaintiff and Henry Westerman defendant. The case was brought to secure possession and ownership of real estate held adversely Westerman. Judge Ryan has granted C. M. Liddleman, executor of the estate of Matilda Holt, deceased, until September 15 in which to file an inventory of the property. Gilbert L. Hedges, Bruce C. Curry and James P. Lovett were appointed appraisers of the estate. The Oregon Homeseekers Immigration Exchange Suggests a plan for selling your farm. Write for it. F. HORTON, P. M. $100 Reward $100. The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer $100 for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address, F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O. No other preparation will do this. It instantly relieves and quickly cures all stomach troubles. Geo. A. Harding. Cured of Chronic Diarrhoea After 30 Years of Suffering. "I suffered for 30 years with diarrhoea and thought I was past being cured," says John S. Halloway, of French Camp, Miss. "I had spent so much time and money and suffered so much that I had given up all hopes of recovery. I was so feeble from the effects of the diarrhoea that I could do no kind of labor, could not even travel, but by accident I was permitted to find a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and after taking several bottles I am entirely cured of that trouble. I am so pleased with the result that I am anxious that it be in the reach of all who suffer as I have." For sale by G. A. Harding, druggist. SHAW'S PURE MALT.—Perfect as a beverage or medicine. It prevents chills and tones up the system. It exhilarates and does not poison. Sold by E. MATTHEWS, Oregon City, Ore.
