45 MINUTE SCHEDULE.

THE LOCAL NEWS.

DEDICATION AT BOLTON.—Preparations are being made for the formal dedication of the new school building at Bolton. It will occur some time next week, for which an interesting program is being arranged.

BOOTS MONEY.—During the week considerable counterfeit money was circulated in the city. Several business men found themselves possessed of bogus half dollars. Some counterfeit has evidently passed it off for good money in the city and then skipped out.

GRANTED A DIVORCE.—The divorce court has granted Mrs. Bertha Gordon a legal separation from her husband, Peter Gordon. She has been allowed to again assume her maiden name, Bertha Kahn, and has been given the care and control of three minor children.

FLAGRAING.—Friday, September 14, has been selected as the date for a flag-raising at school district No. 10, W. W. Austin, teacher. The patrons of the school are looking forward with much pleasure to the affair. Superintendent J. C. Zinsler is to deliver the principal address.

NEW CARS.—The West Side Railway Company is constructing two new flat cars to be used in transferring wood from Willamette Falls to the Willamette Paper Company. The capacity of each car will be 16 cords. About 125 cords of wood is brought over the road daily from that place.

LOST THREE FINGERS.—Losing fingers seems to be the bad now-a-days. Wm. Boylan, of this city, who works with an engine in a logging camp near Cathlamet, had three fingers severed from his left hand last Monday. This makes about a half a dozen Oregon City people who have suffered the loss of fingers during the past two weeks.

A PRECIOUS STONE.—During her recent outing at Newport, Mrs. G. W. Swope had the good fortune to pick up a pretty little pebble, which, when polished by Lapidary J. S. Young, proved to be a combined moss and water agate. It is about an inch in diameter and a half inch in thickness and has the appearance of containing water, sunshine and moss. Mrs. Swope prizes it very highly and will have it developed into a watch charm.

COMPANY A, O. N. G.—Company A, O. N. G., will begin drilling the 24th of this month, after a suspension of about six weeks. At their next meeting it is said that Captain Fred Metzner will hand in his resignation, which will send all the under commissioned and non-commissioned officers up a step, making 1st Lieutenant Leighton Kelly, captain. The boys are also planning quite a number of social events for the winter.

A PLEASANT SURPRISE.—Miss Rebekah Renolds, of Illinois, who is paying a visit in this city to her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Pierce, was tendered a pleasant surprise party one evening this week. Friends gathered to enjoy a pleasant evening at games, music and refreshments and their fondest hopes were fully realized. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Pierce, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Forsberg, Mr. and Mrs. McKilligan, Misses Rebekah Renolds, Dona Doty, Maggie Goodfellow, Jessie Humphrey, Messrs. Carl Church, Joe Goodfellow, Forbes Pratt, Len Confer.

THE 8 O'CLOCK LAW.—The 8 o'clock closing agreement has not been adhered to as strictly as it should be, and officer Shaw states several violations have occurred. Rule No. 2 of the agreement reads as follows: "No customer shall be admitted to the store after the closing hour, 8 o'clock." Rule 3 reads: "All customers in the store at 8 o'clock shall be waited upon. Mr. Shaw states that it is very difficult to ascertain whether or not customers are in the store at 8 o'clock, or are admitted afterward when the door is partially opened, but if it was locked so others could not enter while they were being waited upon there would be no trouble.

An Interesting Relic.

Oregon City has an historical cannon, but living witnesses know of its history only since 1856. The cannon was originally bought from Captain Kilbourne, of the old bark Henry, on which it was used as a signal, gun by reason of its wonderful capacity for making noise.

It is strictly a democratic gun. In 1850, by resolution of men prominent in the democratic party—among them Hon. D. P. Thompson, Hon. George H. Williams, Hon. A. Bush, ex-Senator James K. Kelly, and many others—the cannon was bought as a necessary article in the administration of the affairs of the party, particularly during victorious campaigns and occasions of public speaking during the exciting times of the civil war.

When the division in the democratic ranks occurred there was considerable rivalry as to whether the Douglas or Breckinridge wing of the party should have the cannon. Hon. D. P. Thompson tells of an attempted raid by the Douglasites, led by himself, to capture the cannon, but the raid was a failure, owing to the fact that a member of the Breckinridge party, Robert Caulfield, had taken the precaution to lock the gun in his cellar.

Until recently, the cannon has done duty as a city gun on special occasions, but it is now most highly prized as a relic of the last years of what may be called the democratic era, and, when compared with present-day ordnance, demonstrating the wonderful progress which the nation has made under republican rule. But let us give all due credit to the manufacturers of the antiquated cannon and the lusty men who delighted in the noise it made and the soul-stirring oratory of their leaders. They wrought well for their time.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident of which Mr. John Oliver, of Philadelphia, was the subject is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised 'Electric Bitters,' and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement I continued their use for three weeks and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50¢ nts, guaranteed at Geo. A. Harding's Drug Store.

For Young Men and Young Women.

There is nothing that will arouse the ire of a young man or woman so quick as to have inferior laundry work put off on them. They may dress ever so well, but if their shirt front or shirt waist is mussed their neat appearance is spoiled. The Troy laundry makes a specialty of ladies' and gentlemen's fine work. There can be no better work than is done at the Troy. Leave your orders at Johnson's barber shop.

Unreasonable.

"Yes, we're at swords' points," admitted a suburbanite, while discussing a neighbor.

"Fault on both sides, I presume?"

"No, sir, not a bit of it. I've been unfortunate, that's all, and he won't listen to explanations."

"Shot his dog, didn't you?"

"Yes, I did, but it was this way. I heard the whole street in shrieks and rushed to the window. Boys were climbing trees, mothers hustled their babies inside and locked their doors, and down the center of the street came that dog like all possessed. Of course I thought he was mad. So would anybody, and I shot him."

"Come to find out, he'd been rooting into a bumblebee's nest. I'm no expert on mad dogs and told my neighbor so, but he stormed around as though he had been in his own hair, and I just dropped him."

"What made him madder was that I hit him in the head with an old coal scuttle. I can't see through a tight board fence, can I? I didn't know he was snooking through the alley when I threw the thing away. He was so mad that I didn't recognize his voice. I told him we didn't allow such talk and had him kicked across part of a subdivision before I discovered who he was. Then I apologized, but there's no reason in him."—Detroit Free Press.

He Hated Dem Britishers.

When Admiral Cockburn's marauders ravaged Tilghman's island in 1814, during the war between the United States and Great Britain, they found a different country from the Tilghman's island of today. Then the white population was less than 50. Old George, a Tilghman slave, who afterward belonged to the Harrisons of Long Point, where in his old age he had a comfortable quarter and a boy to wait on him, was one of the victims of Cockburn's marauders and used to tell how "dem ar' Britishers made me run down me own hawg, and not only dat, my young master, dey make me kill 'im and skin 'im, hang 'im!" And the old negro's heart would burn with indignation at the memory. Old George lived to be a hundred, according to the record of his birth kept by his mother's master, and lived in great comfort in his old age. He died in 1856 on Cedar Point farm, the home then of his last master, the late Theodore P. Harrison of Baltimore.—Baltimore Sun.

Composition on Breathing.

A boy, 14 years old, who was told to write all he could about breathing in a composition, handed in the following:

"Breath is made of air. We breathe with our lungs, our lights, our liver and kidneys. If it wasn't for our breath we would die when we slept. Our breath keeps the life a-going through the nose when we are asleep. Boys that stay in a room all day should not breathe. They should wait until they get outdoors. Girls kill the breath with corsets that squeezes the diaphragm. Girls can't holler or run like boys because their diaphragm is squeezed too much. If I was a girl I had rather be a boy so I can run and holler and have a great big diaphragm."—Detroit Free Press.

A Minister's Mistake.

A city minister was recently handed a notice to be read from his pulpit. Accompanying it was a clipping from a newspaper bearing upon the matter. The clergyman started to read the extract and found that it began: "Take Kemp's Balsam, the best Cough Cure." This was hardly what he had expected and, after a moment's hesitation, he turned it over, and found on the other side the matter intended for the reading.
