

CORRESPONDENCE

Logan
LOGAN, Oct. 22.—The late rain has stopped seeding in this vicinity.
The dance at Wm. Skirvin's was a success, both financially and socially. Mrs. Skirvin knows how to get up a supper.
Mark Hatton, of Stone, fell down one day last week and hurt his back and is unable to leave his bed at present.
Mr. Kerr is the boss potato-raiser of Logan. He has several that measure 8 1/2 inches in circumference.
Our cheese factory is progressing nicely. Plenty of milk yet.
Most of the boys in Logan are wearing a McKinley button. Stick to it boys, times are good enough under the present administration.
Miss Lillie McCubbin is spending a week with her grandmother, Grandma Sprague at Redland and helping make some good old fashioned apple butter.
Hon. James Tracy is having lumber hauled for a new fence.
Mr. Pickard was down from Wardner last week, looking after his property in Logan.
Ned Hutchinson and party started for the upper hatchery last week to see the sights.
AIMS
AIMS, Oct. 27.—Mrs. Sohn R. Taylor has gone to McMinnville to visit her sister.
School opened Monday with Mrs. Colvin as teacher.
E. S. Bramhall is in Gresham visiting his grand-daughter, Miss Jennie Owens who is seriously ill.
Mrs. S. A. Hickman was the guest of Mrs. Chas. Brown Sunday.
Mrs. Harry Tabke, of Canby, visited with his parents most of the week.
Clark Hardin is remodeling his residence and making it a more comfortable home than heretofore.
Ray Hickman is at home from Eastern Oregon and will remain all winter.
B. Wakefield has been on the sick list for the past week, but is better now and able to be out again.
Canns.
CANNING, Oct. 29.—Too much wet weather for plowing.
Mr. Kleinboller and family will locate in Idaho, instead of Eastern Washington as before stated.
Frank Irish has had a severe attack of quinsy sore throat; but is recovering.
Born, Oct. 24 to Mr. and Mrs. Hal Linsley, a fine baby boy, weight nine pounds.
Eugene Hayward, a motorman on the City and Suburban Electric line, Portland, made his parents and sisters a short visit last week. He returned to Portland on Thursday accompanied by his sister, Lily, who expected to spend a week among friends in that city.
We are informed that J. E. Jones is intending to purchase the farm of W. W. May.

Rev. Dunlap, of Canby holds preaching services in the M. E. church this (Monday evening.)
Mr. Shoenburne is having his house nicely finished within, by papering and painting. Miss Clara Shoenburne recently purchased a new organ.
The people of Canby were not favored in hearing a speech by Hon. Gordon E. Hayes last week; but we understand that he is announced for a campaign speech here Nov. 5, in the school house.
DOVER, Oct. 24.—Politics are very quiet in Dover just now. The farmers are busy putting in their fall grain.
Old Bailey's head is covered with snow.
N. Nelson has returned to this place from Pleasant Home, where he has been prospecting among the sawmills.
School commences next Monday Oct. 29. Miss Maud Stone as teacher.

Mr. French has gone to Virginia to visit his daughter.
Mrs. Cooper has just arrived from the hop fields.

Harmony
HARMONY, Oct. 29.—The rain has interfered with potato-digging, which was in rapid progress and several farmers are through. Reports on the yield say it is not very good.
H. W. Stone, of Portland, will speak on "the young man and his ballot" at the church tomorrow evening.
Rev. Robert Perice will begin a revival meeting here Wednesday evening.
Two of our young men, Chas. Cunnell and Chester McLoughlin are attending school in the Portland Business College.
Under the improved condition of things the election Mr. Bryan seems almost impossible.

Needy News
NEEDY, Oct. 29.—This weather is rather hard on the farmers just now, as many have not got out their potatoes yet and very little grain sown. If it keeps it up much longer there will be no fall grain put in. The roads are getting bad and winter is upon us and we are only half ready for it.
Most of the apples are dried. They are only selling for 4 and 5 cents. That is good pay but there is considerable grumbling about it. All now see what makes the most money for the farmer—it is cows and hens, eggs are 27 and butter 20, and still raising.
Just one week from today is election and Saturday night was our first speaking. Mr. Hayes made a fine speech that did credit to his party, while Mr. Campbell's speech was quite interesting as everybody likes to hear of the Philippines. There is not much need of speakers, as we are all McKinley men.
Mrs. Gibson of Pomeroy, Wash. has been visiting her sister, Mrs. S. Taylor, but was called home last week by the sudden illness of her son.
George Askins met with the loss of the thumb on his left hand while at work in the paper mills at Oregon City. He was at home for a few days but has returned to work.
Dr. Weaver was seen passing this way last week. He was called to visit Mrs. George Brockett, who is quite ill. Mrs. Henry Dietz is on the sick list also.
Miss Sophia Donaldson went to Portland to work, and Pearl Brockett to have some dental work done.
Jake Kauffman has a job on the river, running an engine on a dredger.
Charles Kinzer left for Tacoma where he has a job on an electric car.
Several of our young men are just waiting until after election when they are going away to work.
Mr. and Mrs. Coffinberry are visiting their daughter, Mrs. Ben Smith.
Gilbert Noe spent Sunday with his parents and sweetheart.
Mrs. G. Askins has been visiting her mother in Portland the past two weeks.
Mr. Molson will soon have to build an addition to his store.
This is the week that the witches work and Needy will likely be visited.

Shubel
SHUBEL, Or. 29.—Fred Moshnke has moved into his new house.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Hornschuh were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Massinger Sunday.
The school is progressing nicely under the management of Prof. Byland.

Cherryville
CHERRYVILLE, Oct. 31.—Cherryville is still struggling to keep alive.
Miss Viola Struchen is staying with Mrs. Myra Revenue, of Sandy.
Theodore Revenue, was up to his farm last Sunday.

ON GUARD
The warning cough is the faithful sentinel. It tells of the approach of consumption, which has killed more people than war and pestilence combined. It tells of painful chests, sore lungs, weak throats, bronchitis, and pneumonia. Do not suffer another day. It's useless, for there's a prompt and safe cure. It is which cures fresh colds and coughs in a single night and masters chronic coughs and bronchitis in a short time. Consumption is surely and certainly prevented, and cured, too, if taken in time.
AYER'S Cherry PECTORAL

A 25c. bottle for a fresh cold; 50c. size for older colds; $1 size for chronic coughs and consumption.
"Always keep a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral on hand. Then every time I get cold I take a little of it and I am better at once."
JAMES O. BROWN,
Oct. 12, 1898.
El Paso, Texas.
Write the Doctor. If you have any complaint whatever and desire the best medical advice, write the Doctor freely.
Dr. J. C. AYER, Lowell, Mass.

Mr. Revenue, Miss Viola Struchen, Mrs. Richardson and Miss Beulah Olson were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fliun last Friday.
It has been reported that Miss Olson is going to return shortly to her home in Tacoma, Wash.
Election is nearly here and still everything is quiet.

Molalla
MOLALLA, Oct. 29.—New snow in sight, it rains on us here below, and our good roads are out of sight.
John Johnson is here again with 25 more bunch grass horses. He will sell them to, before the winter is over.
Harvy S. Jorday and wife of Seattle have been visiting the father of John D. Jordan. John D. Jordan started for Indiana this week to visit his brothers Dan and George. Dr. Jordan of "Gunn and Jordan" the elder brother died several years ago. John D. expects to return by Christmas.

Hallow'en in Oregon City.
Oregon City was very gay on Hallow'en, there being several house parties, besides the usual elaborate decorating of windows, fences and such, by the young lads of the town.
Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Keating entertained about 30 of their friends in a charming manner, with games appropriate to the occasion. Refreshments were served and the evening was pronounced a most delightful one.
The home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Pratt was the scene of a merry party where a number of the young friends of the family were royally entertained. Progressive whist was enjoyed until 12 o'clock when games suggestive of Hallow'en were played. Refreshments were served and a jolly good time was had.
Miss Hilda Walden gave a delightful party to her friends at their palatial residence on the bluff, where progressive hearts led up to many old-time tricks, which though old, will never fail to charm, and Hallow'en is not complete without them. Light refreshments were served.
New veerings, nasy caps and hats. Miss Goldsmith.
We offer correct millinery at correct prices. Miss Goldsmith.

A Lost King.
In olden times, when European kings were as plentiful as Kentucky colonsels are today, it was not an exceptional occurrence for a king to disappear and never be heard of again. In ancient times, however, the people have been more careful of their kings.
So when King Sebastian of Portugal disappeared in battle July 29, 1578, while fighting the Moors at Alcamor, there was great commotion. The Moors surrendered to the Portuguese a body said to be that of the king, but it was rumored that the Moors had the king alive in custody.
The surrendered body was buried with royal honors at Belem, but the faithful Portuguese persisted in waiting for the return of their king. Long after he would have died in the course of nature his countrymen longingly awaited his coming.
Even up to this day the legend of the return of King Sebastian is believed by many, and on stormy nights credulous Portuguese citizens will wrap their cloaks about them and go outside and watch the storm, thinking that the king may appear in a cloud of fire again to rule.

What is a Sleeper?
Here is a definition which is as difficult to read rapidly as "Peter Piper picked a peck of pickled peppers" and yet is more sensible. In fact, it is an actual statement of facts, as you will find if you read it slowly:
A sleeper is one who sleeps. A sleeper is that in which a sleeper sleeps. A sleeper is that on which the sleeper runs while the sleeper sleeps. Therefore while the sleeper sleeps in the sleeper the sleeper carries the sleeper over the sleeper under the sleeper until the sleeper which carries the sleeper jumps the sleeper and wakes the sleeper in the sleeper by striking the sleeper under the sleeper on the sleeper, and there is no longer any sleeper sleeping in the sleeper on the sleeper.

No Woman May Reign.
The question has been asked why none of the daughters of the czar may be a successor to the throne on which the great Catherine proved her capacity. The exclusion rests only on an edict of the Emperor Paul, the son of Catherine the Great, issued to discredit his mother's memory.
France has as many as 45,000 families, with 130,000 individuals, claiming a title of nobility; but, as a matter of fact, only about 450 families can prove their claim to descent from a noble family in feudal times.

Army Flogging.
Soon after General Gatacre was appointed an ensign in the Seventy-seventh foot he turned out with the company to which he was attached to witness the flogging of a soldier. The man, who had been convicted of a serious offense and was later to be drummed out of the corps, took his punishment badly, screaming a great deal. Ensign Gatacre shut his eyes and turned white in the face, as though he would faint. When the punishment was over, he remarked to his color sergeant, "If I see much more of this, I'll sell out."
"The noncom" responded, "You'll get used to it in time, sir."
"Used to it? I'm sure I never shall!" responded the ensign. Flogging in the army was soon abolished, however, and the future general remained in the service.
