SCHOOL LIBRARY.-The institution of a school library, to be maintained in the office of the county superintendent, is promulagated by the prominent educators of the county. The soliciation for books to be placed in this repository is commendatory to the entire public, and any contributions made the association will further a worthy effort. Mrs. Eva Emery Dye has the proud honor of being the first contributor to the new school library with the following books: "The Quincy Methods"-Partridge; "Formal Methods"-Brooks: "The Chantauqua Movement' - Vincent; "Kate Thurston's Chautauqua"-Fields.

NOVEMBER BLACKBERRIES,-It must be with a considerable degree of envy th our eastern neighbors read an article a Pacific coast paper announcing ri blackberries in the month of December Not that alone, but we are prepared proudly boast of Lawton vines bearing truit, in every stage of developmen at this very season of the year. Augu Kanne, a substantial farmer of the county who lives about two miles fro Clackamas, displayed in this city during the week a splendid cluster of lar, Lawton berries. He states his vin are absolutely loaded with green as tipe berries and they have borne sin early summer. Mr. Kanne thin there is a possibility of their bes ing during all the month of D ladies took well filled lunch baskets, and made their way to the residence of Uncle Henry Samson, where, after several hours of pleasant conversation, they pro- ceeded to set a table with yiands fit for a wedding dinner, to which the old couple. their daughter and the self invited guests did ample justice. After dinner Uncle Henry entertained the company by reciting some of the incidents, that befell them on their journey across the plains from Iowa, to their present home in Marquam precinct. People of the pres- ent generation have little conception of the hardships and suffering encountered those early pioneers. Grandma Samson
