

CITY COUNCIL MEETING.

Numerous Petitions and Complaints Considered—Another Street Railway Franchise.

The city council met Wednesday evening with full attendance of all councilmen, with mayor and several councilmen elect also present.

The petition of Frank Welch for construction of a bridge in Holmes' addition was referred to the committee on streets and public property, with power to act.

The petition of E. Matthews asking for sewer connection was granted. J. W. Boatman asked that $1 be added to his sewer assessment, which was granted, thereby bringing him within the provisions of the Bancroft law of 1893.

A. W. Cheney asked for $25 for a proposed New Year's edition of the Courier-Herald, which request was referred to the finance committee, with power to raise the $25 by popular subscription.

A petition for an arc light at corner of Fourth and Main streets was, with the light at corner of Eighth and Main, ordered recorded by the city.

The recorder's report showed receipts from licenses amounting to $258; on cemetery fund, $110; on sewer fund, $140.51.

The finance committee recommended payment of the following claims against the city:

Table listing various bills against the city, including salaries for C. C. Curry, E. L. Burns, E. L. Shaw, C. W. Pope, and others, along with utility bills and expenses for the city.

Clackamas county rock crusher expense, $85.47, was laid over.

An ordinance granting Fred S. Morris a 45-year franchise to operate a railway down Third street from Main to the river at $300 per year license was ordered published at the expense of petitioners.

The ordinance granting persons outside of sewer districts sewer privileges was referred to the city attorney for legal opinion before final passage.

The petition of Mrs. Fuchs for rebate of sewer assessment was referred to Councilmen Frederick, Dixon and Koerner for investigation.

Councilman Powell reported Washington street impassable, and it was ordered that the street commissioner make repairs thereon and serve notice of such repairs upon adjacent property owners.

A sum not exceeding $25 was ordered expended toward opening a culvert at top of Singer hill to avoid damage to the road in case of high water.

The street committee was ordered to hunt up defective sidewalks about the city and order property holders to repair the same, and, in default of owners repairing, the city to make repairs and hold lien on adjacent property for expense incurred.

A resolution pertaining to city bonds was ordered published forthwith.

After canvassing the vote of the city election, the council adjourned.

SPECIAL COUNCIL MEETING.

At the special council meeting last Saturday Engineer Cunningham reported that the sewer would be completed about December 10, and that it was necessary to make changes in the detail plans but that he had followed them as closely as possible. He reports $13,900 expended upon the sewer disposal of flush tank, weight of lampholes, extra trunks and extras for increased width excavation for man holes, extra masonry excavating through culvert on Center street, restoring concrete culvert, grubbing and blasting stumps on Third St., removing a boulder on Fourth street, excavating for pipe under S. P. R. R. bridge, extra filling and wyes, all aggregating $411.43.

A warrant was ordered drawn in favor of Mitchell & Hard for $4,957.21.

Strayed or Stolen. From the premises of R. W. Porter, Canemah, on Oct. 26, a Jersey heifer, 3 years old; colored, light red, with some white;umped horns; dark around the eyes; was giving milk. A reward of $50 will be given to any one returning the cow.

NOTICE.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that bids will be received by the Recorder of Oregon City, Oregon, until noon December 30, 1900, for street and sewer improvement bonds of Oregon City, Oregon, aggregating $12,000.00.

The condition of sale of such bonds will be as follows, to-wit: Said bonds will be sold to resident bidders in lots of not to exceed $500.00 to any one person at two per cent premium.

The City Council reserves the right to reject any or all bids. By order of the City Council of Oregon City, Oregon.
