Sudden Death of Philip Wolf.

Philip Wolf, of Shubel, aged 71 years, died suddenly at his home on December 19, between the hours of 4 and 6 a. m.

Coroner M. C. Strickland was called and found that deceased had been up at about 4 o'clock a. m., and then again retired. Soon after returning to bed he turned over and apparently took a position upon his back in an easy, natural position. His wife arose and about 6 o'clock a. m. called to deceased to arise, but receiving no response, she went to his bedside and found him lifeless.

The coroner considered the case plainly that of heart failure unaccompanied by suspicious circumstances, and therefore deemed a formal inquest unnecessary.

Deceased was a native of Germany, and leaves a wife and several children to lament his demise.
