A Christmas Present Awaits You.

Mr. C. W. Davis, the traveling representative of Eiler's Piano House, of Portland, is in town and will be here the remainder of the week.

Messrs. Eiler Bros., the remaining partners, thought it profitable to make a sacrifice sale on their own account, rather than borrow money. The advantages of this plan are two fold. First—It makes the house absolutely independent of any outside money interest. Second—It gives the people the benefit of the cut price.

For the remainder of the week we offer Oregon City patrons instruments on
