At The White Horse Tavern next Saturday. Don't forget. An infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Grange, died last Saturday afternoon in West Oregon City. Mr. Shrock will take charge of the school formerly taught by Shirley Buck, near Oregon City.—Aurora Borealis. Miss Mariab Pratt entertained the whist club and a few invited guests Tuesday evening and a delightful time was spent. Mrs. N. H. Lambson, state organizer of the L. O. T. M., will address the members of that order in Red Men's hall this (Friday) afternoon, at 2 p. m. A party was given to about 30 young ladies of this city at the home of Mrs. L. L. Fickens last Friday night by some of her young friends, which was greatly enjoyed by all present. There was not a sufficient number present at the fishermen's meeting in Justice McNulty's court room, last Monday evening, to form a quorum. There will be another meeting Saturday night, when it is hoped there will be a better attendance. "At The White Horse Tavern," a three-act comedy that is said to be full of delightful love episodes, entertaining character types, amusing complications, strong interest and realistic stage effects, will be the attraction at Shively's Opera House Saturday, January 12. The Aurora Borealis says, editorially: "An effort will be made to have all barbershops in the state closed by law on Sundays. The barbers are certainly entitled to one day's rest in the week, especially so when their work days consist of more hours than the usual work day. The members of the Dickens' club gave a party to their friends last evening at the home of Mrs. T. W. Clark. A delightful time was enjoyed in playing games etc., and some very novel ideas were introduced which proved highly amusing. Refreshments were served. In last week's issue of the Pacific Homestead, there appeared a cut of the farm home of Hon. J. L. Kruse, Clackamas county's representative, and the following notice: "Mr. Kruse is a successful farmer, as his well improved farm indicates. He owns 400 acres of land in one of the best sections of the county. He keeps on his farm 22 head of fine Shorthorn cattle, 60 head of well bred Angora goats, and about 50 head of hogs." The second annual exhibit of the Polk County Mohair Growers' Association will be held in Dallas, Thursday, February 14, 1901. At the meeting of the association last Saturday it was decided to hold the show in this city, provided a sufficient sum of money were raised to meet all the necessary expenses of such exhibit. H. L. Fenton, U. S. Grant and Wilson Ayres were appointed as a committee on general arrangements.—Dallas Observer.

A Creamery for New Era.
At the meeting held in Warner Grange hall, at New Era last Saturday, which was announced in the Enterprise, there were about 30 farmers and others present. Geo. Lazelle was selected for chairman, and D. McArthur, secretary. The meeting went to work in a business-like way, to ascertain what could be done in the way of securing a creamery and cheese factory. Every body present was enthusiastically in favor of the enterprise and the proper support was pledged for its maintenance. J. L. Waldron made a canvass of those who were there, and found that the persons present owned 90 cows. Committee to canvass the various neighborhoods to ascertain the number of cows that could be depended upon, were appointed: New Era district, B. Friedrich; Canby, C. N. Waite; east of New Era; Thos. Blanchard; neighborhood opposite New Era, J. Rieth; Mt. Pleasant, Wm. McCord; Phelps' neighborhood, J. D. Wilkinson. Committee to look out location for buildings, etc., B. Friedrich, F. Veteto and J. Rieth. There will be another meeting held at the same place, Saturday, January 19, at 1 o'clock p. m.

A New Year's Wedding.
New Year's evening nineteen hundred and one was very pleasantly celebrated at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. White, near Damascus, Oregon, when their eldest daughter, Jessie E. was united in marriage to Franklin W. Farrer. At 7 p. m. while Miss Ethel Osburn played the wedding march, the happy couple, attended by Roy and Laura White, brother and sister of the bride, entered the room, taking their places beneath an evergreen arch from the center of which was suspended a pretty wedding bell. Rev. J. H. Wood officiated, using the impressive ring service. The ceremony was witnessed by the near relatives and friends of the bride and groom. After congratulations the newly wedded pair, followed by the guests, repaired to the dining room where all partook of a delicious wedding lunch. The many presents were both beautiful and useful. On the following Thursday Frank and Jennie left the homes of their youth for Portland, their future home, where after January 15, they will be at home to their many friends, the best wishes of whom go with them. A. M.

Why She Came.
Vance Thompson in his Paris letter to the Saturday Evening Post says: "It was half past six in the morning. The St. Lazare station was uncanny, for the moon was shining broad and full, and the dawn was creeping up. Madame Sarah's carriage drove into the court. Young and smiling she stepped out—a handsome figure of a woman in a long fur coat. Then Coquelin came. There came too, a host of actors and actresses, journalists and society folk. They cried, 'Vive Bernhardt! and 'Vive Coquelin!' 'I'll be home again in six months,' said Madame Sarah, throwing kisses to her friends. 'But what are you going for?' they asked her sadly. 'For a million,' said Madame Sarah. And that was true; for her toudence in the United States she is to be paid one million francs and all her expenses.

Elected President.
Richard Scott, of Milwaukee, has been elected president of the State Dairymen's Association. Mr. Scott, is one of the most prominent stockmen in the state. He will attend the convention of the National Stock Association, which will meet at Salt Lake, January 15. Don't trouble yourself with cokes, etc., when you can get them the best and cheapest at Kuerien's. When threatened by pneumonia or any other lung trouble, prompt relief is necessary, as it is dangerous to delay. We would suggest that One Minute Cough Cure be taken as soon as indications of having taken cold are noticed. It cures quickly and its early use prevents consumption. G. A. Harding.

Probate Orders.
Livy Stipp was appointed guardian of Ralph, Martin and Albert Baty, minor heirs of Robert Baty deceased. H. K. Stagsdill, administrator of the estate of Asa G. Stagsdill, deceased, made final settlement, and was discharged by the court, and the court ordered a division of the property as follows: Of the total sum, $1142 90, $571.45; less $350 already paid, is given to the widow, Mary E. Stagsdill; the remaining $571 45 to be divided equally among the four children.
