When threatened by pneumonia or any other lung trouble, prompt relief is necessary, as it is dangerous to delay. We would suggest that One Minute Cough Cure be taken as soon as indications of having taken cold are noticed. It cures quickly and its early use prevents consumption. G. A. Harding.

WILL L. MILLER DEAD.

Prominent Member of Pioneer Family Passed Away.

Will L. Miller, a member of one of the prominent pioneer families of Oregon and Clackamas county, died at his home in Jacksonville, January, 19, aged 30 years.

Mr. Miller was born in Jacksonville, January 2, 1871. He received a primary education in the public schools of that place, after which he took a two-year's course in the University of San Jose, California. From there he entered the law school of Ann Arbor university, whence he graduated in 1894. He was a clerk in the U. S. Land office at this place four years. In September 1895, he was married to Matilda G. Ganong, a member of one of the best pioneer families of Oregon.

In 1898 he took a trip to Alaska, but the vigorous climate there was too severe for him and his health failed, and for two years he traveled in Colorado, California and Arizona, in an effort to recuperate his health, but to no avail.

Col. J. N. T. Miller, father of the deceased, died last fall. Col. Robert A. Miller, of this city, and Mrs. J. S. Beach, of Los Angeles, Cal., are the only surviving members of the family.

Mrs. Ganong and son, J. W. Ganong, mother and brother of deceased's wife, and Col. R. A. Miller, attended the funeral services at Jacksonville.

Deceased leaves a wife but no children.

Farwell Party.

About 50 people gathered in the parlors of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Mark, on the West Side, last Wednesday evening at a farewell reception to the Roake family which is about to move to Long Beach, Cal.

For fifteen years Mr. and Mrs. Roake have been members of the Congregational church choir, and the family will be greatly missed in church circles and society generally. Mr. Roake has long been identified with the business interests of Oregon City.

As a token of the high esteem in which this excellent family is held here, they were presented with a splendid set of dishes, their pastor Rev. E. S. Bollinger making the presentation speech. Music and a nice supper were features of the evening.

The family expects to leave Saturday. They will be accompanied by their son, Will, and his family. There are most favorable business interests awaiting father and son at Long Beach.

Money to loan at lowest rates. HEDGEC & GRIFFITH.

Amus m-nts.

The "Turkish Bath" company presented "The Beggar Prince" to a very fair house at Shively's opera house last night. People who like to laugh certainly got their money's worth last night. Every feature of the show was excellent and every actor did his part to perfection.

Tonight this company will present another strong play, "A Turkish Bath." This play is, in many respects, better than the "Beggar Prince," and it will, no doubt, draw a large house. Saturday night an entire change of bill will be given. The popular prices prevail and the company should do a fine business.

Angora Goat Show.

The second annual goat show for the state of Oregon will be held at Dallas, Polk county, Oregon, on Thursday, February 14, 1901, under the auspices of the Polk County Mohair Association. Appropriate medals will be given to all prize winners.

There will be two grades of goats eligible for entry: Thoroughbreds in one class and all other goats in another class. Twenty-six prizes will be awarded in the thoroughbred class, and the same number of prizes will be awarded in the other class, making 52 prizes in all.

School Officers, Attention.

There will be held a meeting of clerks and directors at the court house, Oregon City, Saturday, February 16, 1901 for the discussion of matters of mutual interest. I trust every district in Clackamas county will be represented.

J. C. ZINER, Supt.

Drop in and try the finest barber chair in the city. Next door to Jackson's, opposite Huntley's. Parker, the barber. No Sunday work.

For Young Men and Young Women.

There is nothing that will arouse the ire of a young man or woman so quick as to have interior laundry work put off on them. They may dress ever so well, but if their shirt front or shirt waist is mussed their neat appearance is spoiled. The Troy laundry makes a specialty of ladies' and gentlemen's fine work. There can be no better work than is done at the Troy. Leave your orders at Johnson's barber shop.

The pastor of the Baptist church will preach a memorial sermon on Sunday evening. Topic, "England's Queen From an Englishman's View."

The degree team of the K. O. T. M. received new uniforms and regalia this week. The uniforms are very nice and cost quite a snug little sum of money.

Nightwatchman Shaw, who has been confined to his room for three or four weeks with a broken ankle, is able to be out on the street again, though his injured member is by no means well yet.

Miss Laura Pope entertained a number of her friends at whist last Tuesday evening. Games and music were features of the evening and an elegant lunch was served.

On Tuesday evening the Sunday school will hold a book social at the rectory of St. Paul's Episcopal church. Everyone invited. Admission free, any good book for the library.

A 56,000 horse power is claimed for Oregon City. During the past few days it would have been safe to have claimed a 56,000,000 horse power for the city, says the Albany Democrat.

Reeber & Berkman have opened a new meat market in the Freytag building on Fourteenth and Main streets. They will keep a first-class market and will supply the public with all kinds of meats.

Services will be held at St. Paul's Episcopal church next Sunday at 11 a. m. and 5 p. m. The evening service will be a memorial service for Her Majesty, Queen Victoria, of Great Britain and Ireland.

Captain Fred Metzger, Co. A, Third Inf., has resigned his command and the same has been accepted. First Lieutenant Leighton Kelly succeeds to the command until a captain shall be elected.

Mrs. Nelson W. Lawrence and Miss Imogen Harding will give another one of their informal dances on Friday evening of this week, at the Armory. A pleasant time is assured to all those who may attend.

The city fathers inspected the 7th street sewer in pretty good condition, except for some slight imperfections. The high water of last week damaged it to a considerable extent, but these places will be repaired.

When a man is so cursed mean and ornery that his neighbors are pleased to see misfortune overtake him in the loss by flood of goods and chattels, it's time he was turning over a new leaf.—The West Side.

The Odd Fellows and Rebekahs, of this city, will have an entertainment and banquet Saturday night. Invitations have been issued to the various lodges of the county and a large attendance is expected. Entertainment will be in Willamette hall and the banquet in Odd Fellows hall.

At the M. E. church on Sunday evening, 7:30, p. m. memorial services will be held in solemn memory of Alexandra Victoria, Great Britain's Queen. Appropriate music will be rendered by the choir. Addresses will be delivered by the pastor, R. A. Atkins, and the Rev. P. K. Hammond, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church. All British subjects and the general public are invited.

The U. S. Civil Service examinations, will be held at several places in each state during March and April, to secure young men and women for various government positions. Last year upwards of 8000 such appointments were made without political influence. No fees are charged. Information about the places and dates of examinations can be had free by writing the Columbia Correspondence College, Washington, D. C.

SECTION FOREMAN KILLED.

F. H. Miller Was Run Over by Southern Pacific Engine.

F. H. Miller, section foreman for the Southern Pacific, was run over and killed near Canby Wednesday morning, by an engine. Mr. Miller was riding a velocipede on his way to Canby, when a lone engine overtook him on a curve, and before he could dismount, the engine struck him and threw him with great force against a rick of cordwood at the side of the track. He was unconscious when picked up, and remained so until 4:50 Thursday morning when he died.

Mr. Miller was a well known railroad man, having been in the employ of the Southern Pacific for some time. He was 50 years old and had four children, the eldest of whom is 15 and the youngest seven years old. His wife has been dead several years.
