SCHOOL BOARD'S REPORT

OREGON CITY, Oregon, January 28, 1901.

To the Taxpayers of School District No. 62, Clackamas County, Oregon-LADIES AND GENTLEMEN: We, your board of directors, submit the following estimate of the cost of conducting the public schools of this district for the fiscal year ending March 1, 1902, together with the available funds to be received during J. C. Havely and Anna that time:

Salaries of teachers	$6,666
Janitors' salaries	712 (
Fuel	220 (
School supplies	200 (
Interest on bonds (fixed charge)	720 (
Clerk's salary (fixed charge)	100 (
Painting and repairs, Eastham building	250 (
Inside stairs and sidewalks for Barclay school
Incidentals	126 (
Insurance for three years, due in August	330 0
Sewer assessment	13 1
Indebtedness March 1st, 1901	3,225 (

By comparison with last year's report, you will find that this estimate is practically the same, the only difference being the insurance and needed repairs. The item of painting Eastham building was asked for last year, but, owing to the high price of painting material, it was deemed advisable to let it go another

The item of $13.12 for sewer assessment is one-tenth of the amount due under the Bancroft act, and will have to be provided for each year until paid, The past year we have received from various funds as follows:

with a floating debt at the end of the year of about $4,000.00.

The taxable property in the district being $5,000 lower than last year, a 7-mill levy will produce but $400 over last year, and the county valuation being almost surveys of said town of Canemah, Clackamas $500,000 lower, and the levy the same, will bring only $2,400, which is $600 less file in the county clerk's office of Clackamas than the past year. In view of these facts, we recommend a 7-mill tax, which will pay the current expenses and leave the district with an indebtedness of about (1) and the north hall (14) of lot numbered eight (8), in block numbered twenty-seven $4,000 at the end of the fiscal year, or about $500 more than last year. Respectfully submitted,

ELMER E. CHARMAN, CHARLES ALBRIGHT, C, H, CAUFIELD.

TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION.

Interesting Meeting Held at Barlow Last Saturday.

The regular meeting of the Clackamas County Teachers' Association was held at Barlow, Saturday, January 26, 1901. Called to order at 10:30 a. m. by Supt. Zinser

The meeting was held in the Methodist church which was well filled.

The minutes of the Wilsonville meeting were read by the secretary, Fannie G. Porter, and approved.

The semi-annual election of officers was held with the following results:

Vice-president, T. J. Gary. Secretary, Fannie G. Porter.

Treasurer, Kate Casto. Editor, Bertha M. Gibson. The following officers of the Library Association were elected:

President, T. J. Gary; vice-presidents, H. D. Wilcox, and Fannie G. Porter; treasurer, Kate Casto.

The program was opened by singing

"America."

"How can we Interest Patrons and Children" was the subject assigned to W. W. Austen. The teacher in order to interest others in her work, must be Oregon City, Ore, on Feb. 11, 1901, viz: must be able to do good work; must be well informed, and a good disciplinarian, and also a student of human nature in prove his continuous residence upon and order to be really successful. Co-operation between the teacher and the school board, is necessary to up-build Oregon. the school system. The children are being trained for citizenship, and morals and manners should be taught, as well as textbooks." W. W. Jesse also spoke on this subject.

The teachers were invited out to lunch by different residents of Barlow.

Called to order at 1:30 p. m. by Supt. Zinser. The program began with a song by Miss Hilton.

"The Recitation" was the subject of a To Wm.
