BICYCLES OF REPUTATION

COLUMBIA.

For 22 years standard of the world. It took the Grand Prize at the Paris Exposition as it has always taken prizes wherever it competes. The 1901 Models present the latest ideas in bicycle construction. Small tubing, light chain and direct pull spokes, correct rake to the forks and the lightest weight road wheels on the market—22 pounds.

HARTFORD.

Among medium priced bicycles the Hartfords stand at the head. Made in the Columbia factories by Columbia workmen they are high grade in everything but price, and it has come to be said "Once a Hartford rider, always a Hartford rider" unless a Columbia. Weight 23 pounds.

Table listing bicycle models and prices: Columbia, 72 and 73... $50.00; Hartford, 27 and 28... $35.00; Crescent, Chainless... $30.00; Vedette, 29 and 30... $25.00.

Motrow Coaster Brake on any model $5.00 extra. Cushion Frame $5.00 extra on Columbia.

Choice of Dunlop, Hartford, G & J, or any other first-class tire on all but $25.00 models.

Come in and see the new models. Catalogue free for asking.

CRESCENT.

The wheel that stands up. More Crescents are sold than any other wheel in the United States which is sufficient proof of its popularity. The 1901 models are strictly up to date and the No. 61 in particular is generally admitted by all competitors to be the sweetest bicycle shown this year. It weighs 21 pounds and has many new and exclusive features.

Price, No. 61 $50.00.

VEDETTE.

We realize that there are a great many riders who must have bicycles that can be depended on for practical everyday service, at a price that is within their means. Such a wheel is the Vedette, made by the Columbia factories and fully guaranteed by the Columbia people. Not less handsome than many of its higher priced neighbors, light and easy running, it is a wheel that anybody might ride with pleasure.

Local Events.

The annual school meeting of this district will be held at the court house next Monday night at 7:30.

The Clackamas county legislative delegation attended the Mitchell ratification banquet at Portland last Monday night.

The choir of the Presbyterian church was entertained at the home of Mrs. C. S. Seaman Tuesday evening. Many beautiful songs were sung and the evening was spent delightfully.

G. W. Grace on the corner of 7th and centre streets, has a $4,000 stock of boots and shoes which he is selling at remarkably low prices, to reduce stock. You should see these goods before buying.

Notices have been posted on the electric bridge between this city and Gladstone forbidding people to walk on the bridge. This compels the people of that suburb to ride to town on the car and pay the fare.

Mrs. Josie, living at Beaver Creek, gave birth to triplets one day last week. One of the children died soon after birth, but the other two are living and doing nicely. Mrs. Josie is 40 years old and these are her first children.

The firm of Macy & Moore, the 7th street druggist, has been dissolved. Mr. Macy retiring and Mr. Moore continuing the business. Mr. Macy will go to Iowa where he will spend some time, but will, no doubt, return to Oregon after a time.

A 5-year old son of P. H. Meade had a miraculous escape from death Wednesday. He was playing about the edge of the bluff near Seventh street and fell over. He struck the ground near the railroad track 65 feet below, and with the exception of a few bruises was unhurt. No bones were broken.

The Degree of Honor will give an entertainment at the Armory next Friday evening, March 8. There will be a "pickaninny cakewalk" by the little tots, solo by Mrs. Ed Shehan, reading by Miss Holden, selections by male quartette, and Dorthic Club ladies' double quartette and other attractions. Admission 25 cents.

A young man named Price, who was employed in the Crown Paper Mills, met with a very serious accident while at work Wednesday. He became entangled in the machinery in some way and was crushed and bruised and had several bones broken before he could be rescued. Though very dangerously injured, he will recover.

A debate was held at the Y. M. C. A. building last Tuesday evening. The question was, "Resolved, that the introduction of machinery has not improved the pecuniary condition of man." The debaters were A. M. Brownell, affirmative, and C. Haberlach, negative. The next debate will be held March 12. The question will be "Woman Suffrage."

Night Watchman Ed Reckner arrested a half dozen hobos last Monday night for being drunk and begging in the streets. They were taken before Recorder Curry, who gave them, in addition to a lot of fatherly advice, a fine of $10 each, for three of them, and a smaller fine for the others. As they had no money they will be allowed to work it out by cleaning out the jail; something that hasn't been done in the memory of the oldest inhabitant.

I have the best land in the county for the least money. Try me.

THE FIRE LADDIES' BALL.

The Columbia Hook and Ladder Dance a Success.

Parties who attended the ball in Armory hall last Friday night, given by the Columbia Hook and Ladder Company of this city, declare it to have been the best thing of the kind ever given in this city.

There was a big crowd; the biggest seen at a function of the kind here. 10 years, and everything moved along nicely and in good order. This company has an established reputation for giving good entertainments, but the boys say this is the best they have ever given.

The ball was nicely decorated with evergreens and fancy paper. The music was furnished by the Seventh U. S. Infantry Orchestra, from Vancouver Barracks, and was first-class in every respect. The program consisted of 22 dances. The dancing did not stop until the little hours of Saturday morning, which came all too soon for most of the revelers.

R. Holman, leading undertaker and embalmer, Oregon City, Ore. Two doors south of court house.

The Jessie Shirley Company.

These people, who are Oregon City's favorites, have been playing here all week to packed houses. When Oregon City packs the opera house every night for a whole week it is evidence that there is something very unusually good doing. But the Shirley company deserves good houses. They are first class in every respect.

Miss Jessie Shirley is a first favorite with our people and is always welcome. She is brighter, sweeter and more bewitching this year than ever. The repertoire this season is composed of good plays, and such as are new and out of and above the ordinary. We are sorry not to be able to give a more extended notice of these people. We must mention sweet little Baby Felton, the child actress, who has sung and danced her way right into our hearts. She will be seen in the title role of "Little Lord Fauntleroy," at the Saturday matinee.

SEEDS.—Red clover, alsike, timothy, orchard grass; garden seeds, all kinds, bulk or packages. Prices right. A. ROBERTSON, Seventh-street Grocer.

In Honor of Lord Tennyson.

The Abernethy Chautauqua Literary Society held a meeting at the residence of Judge Galloway, in Parkplace, in honor of the poet Tennyson's birthday. About 50 persons from Oregon City, Gladstone and Parkplace were present. Music and readings from the poet were features of the evening, and nice refreshments were served.

Galbraith's Confectionery.

Opposite the Bank of Oregon City is the finest in the city. All kinds of fresh home-made candies always on hand. Salted almonds to order.

Moki Tea positively cures sick headache, indigestion and constipation. A delightful herb drink. Removes all eruptions of the skin, producing a perfect complexion, or money refunded. G. A. Harding, druggist.

Millions of people are familiar with DeWitt's Little Early Risers and those who use them find them to be famous little liver pills. Never gripe. G. A. Harding.

For Young Men and Young Women.

There is nothing that will arouse the ire of a young man or woman so quick as to have interior laundry work put off on them. They may dress ever so well, but if their shirt front or shirt waist is mussed their neat appearance is spoiled. The Troy laundry makes a specialty of ladies' and gentlemen's fine work. There can be no better work than is done at the Troy. Leave your orders at Johnson's barber shop.

Laminated Cotton Down Mattresses

The best grade of staple cotton is used in the filling of all our laminated cotton down mattresses, which is so prepared as to be of an elastic nature.

Built up with layers of this filling it produces an article that is lofty in character, holds its shape and never becomes hard or lumpy.

For comfort and durability they cannot be excelled. There is absolutely nothing on the market that compares with these goods in quality and workmanship.

We recommend them as strictly first-class in every respect.

For sanitary reasons these mattresses are especially desirable.
