Pullman Ordinary Sleepers.

The tourist travel between the East and the Pacific Coast has reached enormous proportions in the last few years, and calls for a special class of equipment.

To meet this demand the Pullman Company has issued from its shops what it technically calls the "Pullman Ordinary Sleeper."

These cars appear similar to the regular sleepers, being built on the same plan, but not furnished with the same elegance. They are equipped with mattresses, blankets, sheets, pillows, pillow-cases, towels, combs, brushes, etc., requiring nothing of the kind to be furnished by the passenger.

Each car has a stove for making tea and coffee and doing "light housekeeping," and each section can be fitted with an adjustable table.

A uniformed porter accompanies each car, his business being to make up berths, keep the car clean, and look after the wants and comforts of the passengers.

In each of the trains which are dispatched daily from Portland by the O. R. & N. Co. is to be found one of these "Pullman Ordinary Sleepers."

The car attached to the "Chicago-Portland Special" goes through to Chicago without change, and the one in the "Atlantic Express" runs to Kansas City without change.

Passengers in this car for Chicago change to a similar one at Granger. Much of the first class travel is being carried in these cars, the rates being lower, and the service nearly equal to that in the palace sleepers.

Gen. Botha is so accustomed to the sight of peace that he cannot recognize the flutter of Gen. Kitchener's white wings.

"I have been troubled with indigestion for ten years, have tried many things and spent much money to no purpose until I tried Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. I have taken two bottles and gotten more relief from them than all other medicines take. I feel more like a boy than I have felt in twenty years." Anderson Riggs of Sunny Lane, Tex. Thousands have testified as did Mr. Riggs. Geo. A. Harding.

Minnesota has lost a philanthropist named John S. Harris, who found forty acres enough to demonstrate the value of apple growing to the state, and also to originate new varieties suited to the climate. Nobody ever hurrahed for Harris, but he was worth more than ten thousand demagogues to Minnesota.

Tourist Car. The tourist cars, like a newspaper in a country town, certainly "fill a long felt want." A cool, clean, well ventilated sleeping car, equally free from the discomforts of the old fashioned passenger coach and the stuffy heat of the over luxuriously upholstered drawing room and sleeping cars, and at a moderate extra fee, has solved the problem of providing attractive accommodations for the general public. The O. R. & N. Co. runs three of these cars daily between Portland and the East. A porter is in charge of each car to look after the wants and comforts of the passengers. Read This, Consumptives

"From the way my wife coughed for six months, I knew she had consumption. She showed it in her face, too, and her body wasted away to a mere skeleton. After she got down in bed the doctors couldn't do any good. I called in both Dr. T. A. Shannon and Dr. N. L. Lawson, each of whom is a first-class physician, but they had nothing that would reach the trouble that would reach the lungs. My wife's father when she got very low. He lives in Cedar Lake, Wis. While he said he knew what was needed, and made me get a bottle of Acker's English Remedy for Consumption. I went to Schmidt's, our local druggist, and got a bottle, and it helped her right away. She took eight soc. bottles, and they put her back on her feet and made her as sound and well as any woman in town. She has taken on flesh again, she doesn't cough, and if any one who doesn't know the facts was to be told she was so near death with consumption, he wouldn't believe it. My wife does all her housework, and at night sleeps as soundly as you please. Her stomach no longer gives her any trouble at all. Maybe you doubt what I am telling. If so, I advise you to see J. N. Schmidt, the druggist who sold me Acker's English Remedy for Consumption. He'll tell you the same thing. That says Acker's English Remedy is wonderful in all throat and lung troubles; that it is sold on a guarantee to cure, or money returned, and he never yet had a bottle come back to his store, although he has sold hundreds of them. My name is Luther Bedell, Rice Lake, Wis."

Acker's English Remedy is sold by all druggists under a positive guarantee that your money will be refunded in case of failure. Sold by a bottle in United States and Canada.
