

CORRESPONDENCE

Our correspondents will please send in articles before Wednesdays of each week, otherwise it reaches us too late for publication.

Damascus.

DAMASCUS, May 6th.—We are having beautiful weather at present. Farmers are making garden.

Wilhoit

WILHOIT, May 5.—Once more we welcome the Oregon mist.

Redland

REDLAND, May 7.—Our farming is done for the present and we are ready to work out our road tax.

Bozings

BOZINGS, May 6.—Rain still predominates. Farmers were wanting to see rain, now it has come, some are wishing it would stop.

Shubel

SHUBEL, May 5th.—Rev. Theo. Hornschuh, of Sweet Home, and his sister Lena, of Oregon City, were home on a visit during the week.

Milwaukie

MILWAUKIE, May 8th.—A surprise party was given in honor of Misses Mineva and Annie Thiesens last Saturday evening by the Evergreen club.

Veitch Bros. have been doing some slashing this spring, and when the dry weather comes this fall, there will be a smoke raise when the match is touched to the slashings of J. A. Richey and Veitch Bros.

Mr. Ernest Hickey, was the guest of Mr. Lea Welch last week.

P. Utiger and sons, were slashing for B. Joharud, of Kelso, last week.

Mr. Ellis Richey, made a trip to Barton, on business recently.

Mr. C. Y. Lake, Borings stock man, is improving his farm on Deep Creek bottom.

Mr. Fredolph, from Portland, is visiting his family of this place.

The Woodmen lodge held a meeting last Friday evening.

Harry Feathers and Mirrale Newell attended the basket social at Lents Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hunter, when returning to Sunnyside last Tuesday evening, were serenaded by the Sunnyside band.

Wednesday evening a crowd of young men from Damascus gathered their tin cans and cow bells for a merry good time, so they had it.

The Damascus school picnic was a grand success. The Union and Rock Creek schools were in attendance.

Mr. W. Boring is on the sick list.

New arrivals daily in Ready to Wear Hats at Miss Goldsmith.

STAFFORD, May 6.—Again we come before you with but little to say.

Although rain fell Easter Sunday the old saying received a telling blow this time, as last Sunday was clear and hot.

Mumps have made their appearance in the wood camps.

Early potatoes are up and look very thrifty. Some are planting their main crop of potatoes.

Pastures are green and stock begin to look sleek.

Fred Baker is getting along nicely with spring work on the Hayes farm.

The assessor is daily expected.

Henry Baker gains strength but slowly. He is barely able to sit in a chair an hour or so daily.

"The pitcher that goes often to the well is broken at last." There's a world of wisdom in that familiar proverb, and a sound application of it to disease, especially to such familiar forms of disease as coughs and colds.

"I was very sick indeed," writes Mrs. Mollie Jacobs, of Polina, Kent Co., Kentucky, "and our family doctor said I had consumption. I thought I must die soon for I felt so bad.

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, paper covers, is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay expense of mailing only.

some denizen of that city.

The Congregational church has been given a new coat of paint on the inside.

Dr. Casco, of New Era Grange, passed through here yesterday to attend the Highland grange.

Chris Moehnke, of Kelso, is home for a few days visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Moehnke.

Several of our young people went to the Highland dance last night.

The debating society, instead of debating last night as usual, had a spelling school instead.

Mr. C. Hornschuh and wife went to Portland this morning to attend the conference of the Evangelical church.

Following is the report for the Shubel school, district No. 88, for the month ending April 26, 1901:

The children in District No. 21, are delighted with their teacher.

Harry Mosher, rode over from Frog Pond, Saturday, on his wheel. He informs us that their school will close with a picnic.

Lenord Newkirk and wife, with their brother Bird, of Logan, was visiting Mrs. Newkirks mother, Mrs. Mosher, here Sunday.

Wm. Sprague, made a trip to Portland the first of the week.

Dr. C. Richardson, was at Logan one day last week, on a business and social trip.

MITCHELL, LEWIS & STAVEL COMPANY. Mitchell Wagons Hoosier Drills Case Plows Champion Mowers and Binders Southwick Hay Presses Evans Potato Planters Agricultural Implements, Vehicles and Bicycles. First and Taylor Streets, Portland, Oregon.

Mr. L. B. Clark, of Livermore, California, who has spent three winters in the Dawson country, is visiting his sister, Mrs. Hagenburger.

William Atkinson Webster, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Webster, died May 1st, aged 12 years, 10 months and 22 days.

Mr. Banister and family have moved to Sellwood.

The undersigned wish to thank their neighbors, friends and citizens who petitioned the county commissioners not to grant a franchise to lay a track on Front street in our town of Milwaukie.

Mr. E. Welch, of Salmon, paid us a pleasant visit and reports bears plentiful and himself in good standing as a school official.

The rich strike made on Shena creek by August Hornecker & Co. has caused great excitement in this section.

August Hornecker made a flying trip to Sandy and reports the work progressing very rapidly on the Bonanza and Northern Light mine.

Mr. and Mrs. Cox and son Clyde, arrived from the East last week, and are visiting the former's sisters, Mrs. Stone and Mrs. Carr.

Mr. Andrew Douglas and family, have moved from Eastern Oregon, to live on the farm which he bought some time ago.

Mr. J. N. Woodlee, of Portland was visiting his brother Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. Kehill has a new picket fence.

Mr. Baker is home again from Lents, where he has been visiting his son.

J. P. Woodlee built a new milk house last week.

Dr. Knoder is at Eagle Creek again doing dental work.

Lilly Hoffmaster was home Sunday.

G. Woodlee was helping his mother-in-law roll logs one day last week.

Mr. Udell made two trips to Portland last week.

Burt Douglas went to Damascus today.

Emma Taylor, of George, was visiting relatives and friends Sunday.

Arms, May 4.—A goodly number of our people attended the entertainment and dances at Sandy on the 2d.

Henry Tabke, the foreman at Branhall's mill, has yielded to his inclination to seek employment elsewhere.

Mr. Ingraham and family, after laboring in this neck of the woods long enough to make a stake, have returned to Farmington, Oregon.

The weather has been favorable for farming of late. Prospects for fruit are still excellent.

No one is so well prepared to appreciate the excellence of this country as those who have traveled and know something of other places.

Our motto is High Quality and low prices. Miss Goldsmith.

Colton, May 7.—Misses Bessie, Stella, Josie and Alma Hubbard, Mamie Adams and Grace Gorbett and Low Hubbard, spent Saturday and Sunday in Springwater, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Marrs.

Our supervisor has had a crew out on the road a few days which has resulted in great improvements if the good work continues to go on in Clackamas county.

F. M. Robeson, of Ostrander, was visiting here last week. He reports work plentiful in that part of the world.

Carr, Stone & Co., are now prepared to fill your bill, as they have purchased the Tinners' property and have the mill in running order.

Press Bonney, left on the seventh for Ostrander, where he is engaged in a lumber camp.

Quite a crowd gathered at Mr. Stone's last Sunday, to be shot by the new artist Mr. Joe Carr.

There was a good crowd in attendance at the Colton ball last Thursday to take in the Edison show.

Mrs. Jennie Heglan nee Carlson, of Portland, is visiting her parents here. She has been ordered to the country by her physician, on account of poor health and will probably remain for some time.

Oscar Carlson had the misfortune some time ago to get struck in the eye with a piece of wire, which has caused him much trouble, and may result in the loss of his eye.

Mr. and Mrs. Cox and son Clyde, arrived from the East last week, and are visiting the former's sisters, Mrs. Stone and Mrs. Carr.

Eagle Creek. Eagle Creek, May 6.—Ray Woodlee went to Firwood today.

Mr. Andrew Douglas and family, have moved from Eastern Oregon, to live on the farm which he bought some time ago.

Mr. J. N. Woodlee, of Portland was visiting his brother Saturday and Sunday.

the county road is being pushed with vigor. Blasting the stumps and clearing out roots is the work now.

Mr. G. F. Gibbs, of Ely, attended granite here on Saturday.

Mr. C. Tallman is improving his place on the top of Buckner hill by putting a new board fence along the road.

Durst and Cummins are clearing a place on which to move their sawmill, and we will soon hear the buzz of the saw in a different direction.

Mr. Bert Cummins is moving into C. P. Tallman's house on Buckner hill.

Columbus KleinSmith is improving the fine weather by digging his potatoes. John Peck is making extensive preparations for keeping sheep, by building a large sheep shed.

Dr. O. C. Blaney has rented his farm to Fred Marshall and will soon move to Portland.

BEAVER CREEK, May 6.—The basket social and entertainment last Friday evening at the Welsh Congregational church was a grand success.

The pastor presided and opened the meeting by prayer.

After a few remarks from him in both languages a Welsh hymn was sung and the following persons took part in entertaining the audience:

Misses Lora Parry, Blodwen Thomas, Maggie Lewis, Celena Jones, Sarah Parry, Eva Faust and Mary Jones; Messrs. William Davies, Henry Parry, John M. Jones, Richard Davies, John R. Lewis, Humphry Parry, Dave Jones, Gordon Jones, all of whom acted their part well and to great satisfaction.

The audience sang another Welsh hymn which brought the first part of the program to a close.

The second part opened by John R. Lewis in selling elegant baskets.

Miss Celene Jones, Miss Maggie Lewis and Miss Eva Faust assisted him.

At the table were Mrs. Lewis, Mrs. Humphry Jones, Mrs. Wm. H. Jones, Mrs. David E. Jones, Mrs. David W. Thomas and Mrs. Owen Parry, with the coffee, cakes and pies.

Everybody enjoyed themselves fine and the gathering closed before midnight.

The proceeds were about $13, which goes to the church building fund.

Heartfelt thanks are extended to all for your presence and kind help. You have aided us in a good cause. May the Lord bless you.

Sincerely yours, Rev. J. MORLAIS RICHARDS, Pastor.

Beware of a Cough. A cough is not a disease but a symptom.

Consumption and bronchitis, which are the most dangerous and fatal diseases, have for their first indication a persistent cough.

If it is properly treated as soon as this cough appears are easily cured.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has proven wonderfully successful, and gained its wide reputation and extensive sale by its success in curing the diseases which cause coughing.

If it is not beneficial it will not cost you a cent. For sale by G. A. Harding, druggist.

Mr. W. J. Baxter of North Brook, N. C., says he suffered with piles for fifteen years.

He tried many remedies with no results until he used DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve and that quickly cured him.

Geo. A. Harding.

SCOTT'S EMULSION OF COD-LIVER OIL WITH HYPOPHOSPHITES. should always be kept in the house for the following reasons: FIRST—Because, if any member of the family has a hard cold, it will cure it. SECOND—Because, if the children are delicate and sickly, it will make them strong and well. THIRD—Because, if the father or mother is losing flesh and becoming thin and emaciated, it will build them up and give them flesh and strength. FOURTH—Because it is the standard remedy in all throat and lung affections.

DO YOU GET UP WITH A LAME BACK? Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable. Almost everybody who reads the newspapers is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy. It is the great medical triumph of the nineteenth century; discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing lame back, kidney, bladder, uric acid troubles and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble. Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found just the remedy you need.

Home of Swamp-Root. Mabel and Hazel. Mrs. Englebart, mother of Rev. Englebart.