Around the Court House.

Ruby Seinfurth asks for a dissolution of marriage and decree of divorce from Willard C. Seinfurth, and to resume her maiden name of Ruby Wade. The couple were married in Portland, July 2, 1900. The plaintiff alleges that the defendant had a wife living at the time of their marriage. J. J. Fitzgerald, of Portland, is her attorney.

Herman Vorpal has sued Lizzie Vorpal for a decree of absolute divorce. They were married at Canby in 1889. Vorpal says her treatment of him was cruel and inhuman and he was at times subjected to personal indignities. She accused him of being false and untrue to her and of being intimate with other women, all of which he denies.

Mary Youmans wants a divorce from Freeman Youmans. In her complaint she avers that her husband made her life burdensome and unbearable and shortly after their marriage he began showing signs of temper and irritability. They have a son, Clarence, two years and eight months old. After the child was born he seemed to take a dislike to Mary and refused to defray the expense necessarily incurred in maintaining his family. She also alleges that the defendant was guilty of various kinds of mistreatment and refused to let her have milk for the baby, frequently throwing it away rather than let her have it for the child. He would not pay doctor or drug bills and forbid grocers to sell her anything. Finally he compelled her to leave the house on April 4, 1901 and since then she has been compelled to live on the charity of friends. Mrs. Youmans asks to be allowed to resume her maiden name, Mary Parks and petitions the court for an allowance from the defendant of $40 per month and to assess Youmans for costs and attorney's fees. The complaint states that defendant is worth $4500 in real estate and money. Mr. and Mrs. Youmans were married in Portland June 12, 1897, when she was 18 years of age and he was 59.

A. Hayhurst, through his attorney, Col. Robert A. Miller, has brought suit against H. O. Inskip and Minnie Inskip to settle a boundary dispute between their adjoining farms. In the county court Monday Ella E. Williams was appointed administrator of the estate of Martha E. Partlow, deceased. The property is valued at $700, of which $400 is personal. Minnie Casaday asks judgement against P. O. Lindstrom for $2622, with costs and disbursements. She was formerly the wife of Lindstrom and deeded him property valued at $2250, no part of which has been paid. She lent $420 to W. A. Grondhal, who returned the amount and interest to Lindstrom, who pocketed it. Harvey E. Cross is her attorney.

A license to wed was granted Minna Bravler and Jacob Carviner by the county clerk Tuesday. John W. Loder has entered suit against Joseph Bachman and Bertha Bachman, his wife, for the recovery of $250 on two promissory notes, which were originally made to Frank and Sol Miller, of Aurora and assigned to Attorney Loder. S. W. R. Jones and Harrison Jones have brought action against George E. Hargreaves and others for ejectment. In 1875 S. W. R. Jones bought 3500 acres of land from the Southern Pacific Railroad and afterwards transferred a portion of it to Harrison Jones. In 1890 the property was sold to W. T. Burney and a mortgage taken for a large portion of the purchase price. Burney did not keep up the taxes after 1893 and they became delinquent. The property was bid in by the county and Hargreaves bought certificates of sale for 1897, and got a sheriff's deed to 1400 acres. He now attempts to hold the land on tax deeds and the suit is brought through Dimick & Eastman to have the land revert to the plaintiffs. Their attorneys claim that the county had no power to deed property bid in at sheriff's sale. At the last session of the legislature a bill was passed empowering counties to dispose of delinquent property by giving a warranty deed to the purchaser if the land was not redeemed, but the new law is not in effect until July 1.

The petition of Gracie D. Mideke, formerly Gracie D. McComb, praying for the closing of the affairs of the estate of Jacob S. McComb, deceased, was granted in the county court Tuesday. The value of the estate $1,754.45 is cash, of which Mrs. Mideke gets one-half and Velma McComb, a daughter, of the deceased and Mrs. Mideke, received one-half. The administratrix was discharged and bondsmen exonerated. William Pitman has sued Cummins & Cole, the Sandy sawmill men, for $120.90 for labor. He is represented by Attorney John W. Loder. Pitman was cutting ties for the defendants, and has secured a lien on the ties. A Gresham merchant has a mortgage on them and will probably guarantee the amount of Pitman's claim to secure his mortgage, which is not prior to a lien. Proceedings are stayed, pending settlement.

OUT ON A LARK.

Two Portland Boys Get a Horse and Buggy and Forget to Return.

Last Sunday two Portland boys hired a horse and buggy from the Pioneer stables in that city and started south. They told the liveryman that they would return in a few hours. Monday the boys did not put in an appearance and Tuesday morning passed, but no boys. Sheriff Frazier was notified and he telephoned to Sheriff Cooke to ascertain the whereabouts of the youngsters, if possible, and to arrest them. Shortly after the message was received the boys were seen driving through town going north and were nabbed by Constable Moody. The horse was taken in charge by S. J. Vaughn, who swore to a complaint against the boys for larceny. Late Tuesday afternoon a man named Wolf, brother to one of the boys, came up and conferred with the authorities, agreeing to pay for the use of the horse and buggy for the time it was out of the stable and also to pay all costs incurred in the case. This offer was accepted by the liveryman and authorities and the boys were released and put on board the car for Portland. It is not known how far they went but they had not been home up to Wednesday noon.

The Pioneer stables sent a man up after the horse and buggy Tuesday evening. In the buggy some trashy literature of the blood and thunder order was found, which probably incited the boys to take a wild run about the country.

"I have been suffering from dyspepsia for the past 20 years and have been unable after trying all preparations and physicians to get any relief. After taking one bottle of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure I found relief and am now in better health than I have been for twenty years. I cannot praise Kodol Dyspepsia Cure too highly," thus writes Mrs. C. O. Roberts, North Creek, Ark. Geo. A. Harding.

Oregon City, Oregon, May 31, 1901. BOARD OF WATER COMMISSIONERS.

Suzanne Adams. Her sweet naturalness impresses one, says the New York Mail and Express, as instantaneously and pleasantly as the sweet purity of her voice, and the Suzanne Adams who looks and sings so charmingly as Juliet and Marguerite, Young, bright-eyed, healthy and happy, unaffected, such is the youngest of Mr. Grau's prima donnas, with the most fetching accent—not American, not exactly English, but with a delightful soupçon of Irish, despite all her French singing. "My mother was Irish, you know," she says. "and I was born in Massachusetts—at Cambridge."

Mrs. Adams has a novel method of practicing. In her parlor by the piano stand two graphophones. She sings into one of these, while her husband, who teaches and accompanies her, plays into the other. The song finished, they sit down to rest while the graphophones are turned on, and out pours the air with piano accompaniment. "In this way," said Mrs. Adams, "we get the effect, and can tell whether we want to do it that way again or not. It is great fun, too, aside from the help in practicing. And one has to do so much practicing and study of parts which possibly one may never sing."

The Columbia Phonograph Co., No. 88 Wabash avenue, Chicago, headquarters for graphophones and talking machine supplies of every kind, will send you catalogues on application.

There can be no better work than is done at the Troy. Leave your orders at Johnson's barber shop.
