

Personal Mention

Mrs. T. W. Fouts went to Salem Saturday. Herman Lee was in town from Canby Wednesday. J. K. Graham, of Canby, was in the city Tuesday. Miss Gracie Friendly was a Portland visitor Tuesday. J. N. Bessell, of Sunnyside, was in the city yesterday. Miss Hulda Holden went to Albany Saturday morning. Miss Dora Frey has been visiting friends in Brownsville. W. H. H. Samson was visiting relatives in Needy Tuesday. E. D. Soules was in Woodburn this week visiting his parents. H. Gans, of Oswego, was in Oregon City on business Tuesday. Mrs. J. H. Ralston and Miss Ralston were in Portland Tuesday. A. S. Davis and niece, of Marquam, were in the city Wednesday. A. T. Sanders, of Milwaukie, was an Oregon City visitor Tuesday. G. W. Scamlin, a merchant of Mackeburg, was in the city Monday. Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Sawtell were in town yesterday from Molalla. W. M. Munpower and William Hess, of Stone, were in town yesterday. Miss Ethel Albright returned Tuesday from a fortnight's visit in Clatskanie. Miss Elma Albright and Miss Marjorie Casfield visited Salem friends Sunday. Mrs. C. Cross has been visiting her uncle, Mr. Ethens, at Cathlamet, Wash. Hon. Henry Meldrum, surveyor general of Oregon, was in Salem this week. Mrs. Ida Barclay and son Vern left Wednesday evening for Denver, where they will reside. A. W. Cooke was in town from Damascus Monday arranging for the 4th of July celebration. The Misses Mamie and Alice Lewth left Tuesday morning for a month's visit with friends. Chas. Rutherford, a student at McMinnville college, returned yesterday to spend his vacation. Marion Palmer, of Silverton, a brother-in-law to Mrs. W. H. H. Samson, was in the city Wednesday. Register C. B. Moores, of the Land Office, and family returned Monday from a brief visit in Salem. W. P. Johnson and family arrived from San Francisco Monday morning and are visiting N. R. Lang. John Carson, representing the publishing house of Knapp & Co., is in the city this week appointing agents. Erastus Smith, who has been studying for the ministry at McMinnville college, has returned home for the summer. Mrs. Huxon, Mrs. Ross Holman's mother, left yesterday for Seattle accompanied by Mrs. H. Inan's little girl. Mrs. C. E. Loomis, who has been visiting Dr. Loomis in this city returned to her home in Eugene Monday morning. Miss Ednetta Chase arrived Tuesday morning from Stanford University, to spend the summer with her family here. Ira Wishart and wife, of Baker City, who have been visiting Mr. Wishart's parents, went to Oakland Saturday morning. Miss Donahue, of San Francisco, visited at the home of Mrs. Mary E. Case last week, and left Wednesday evening for points in Alaska. Ivan Chase, editor of the Coifax Gazette, arrived Monday afternoon with his wife and two children, and is visiting his mother, Mrs. S. A. Chase. G. C. Garfield, Arthur Viggers and Thomas Viggers are delegates from Oswego Lodge, No. 79, A. F. and A. M. to the grand lodge in Portland. Mr. Russell, of Sacramento, who came up to attend the funeral of his brother, R. L. Russell, of Parkplace, left for home Tuesday morning. Mrs. G. M. Strange has resigned her position in the Bolton Annex of the West Oregon City school to accept the principalship of the Willsburg school. Mr. John Adams, of Astoria, Miss Lotie Adams and Miss Pearl Dick, of Portland were in town Sunday, visiting Mrs. A. H. Adams and Mr. Louis Adams. Mr. and Mrs. Amos Gleason, of Hubbard, formerly residents of this county, were in the city yesterday enroute to Portland to attend the Pioneer Society. Judge Thos. F. Ryan, J. H. Walker and R. C. Ganong are attending the Masonic Grand Lodge in Portland as delegates from Multnomah Lodge, No. 1, A. F. and A. M. Prof. Carl Denton, with his mother, left this week for Portland to reside. Besides being organist of Trinity church, Prof. Denton has a large class of pupils on the violin. Frank L. Loomis, of Eugene, a son of Dr. C. E. Loomis, special agent of the land office, arrived here Monday to take a position in the office of the W. P. & P. Co. Mr. Loomis has been a student at the Oregon Agricultural College the past year. Miss Mary Case left Wednesday for Portland, where she will be joined by Mr. and Mrs. George M. Miller, and the party leave next week for Alaska, via Seattle. Miss Case will return in the autumn and while in Alaska will give recitals at Skagway, Juneau, Dawson and other towns. Prof. W. R. Mathews returned Saturday evening from Salem, where he read the stunner poem before the Willamette University Alumni Association last Wednesday evening. Prof. Mathews wrote the poem, which was published in a Salem paper, and the rhythm and metre shows high poetical ability. He leaves in a few days for Ocean Park, on North Beach, to spend the summer with his parents.

Attorney John W. Loder went to McMinnville Wednesday to deliver an address before the alumni association of McMinnville college on "The Utility of Power." Mr. Loder is a graduate of the class of '94. President Pierce, of the Willamette Pulp and Paper Co. arrived here from San Francisco Monday morning, accompanied by Mrs. Pierce and two daughters, and remained until yesterday, inspecting the affairs of the mill. Fred L. Charman has resigned his position with the Willamette Pulp and Paper company, and leaves in a few days for Boise, Idaho, to accept an office position in that city. Mr. Charman is exceedingly popular in social circles and his departure will be universally regretted. H. Leighton Kelly, of the Clackamas Hatchery, was in town Monday, preparing for a trip to the Upper Clackamas Hatchery, which he has never seen. He has been granted a 29 days leave of absence and will spend a portion of it in the mountains fishing and hunting. While Mr. Kelly would prefer a vacation a little later in the year, it is now or not at all, as after June hatchery life becomes busy to permit any extended vacations until December, and it is possible that Mr. Kelly may be transferred before that time to the Little White Salmon Hatchery, 15 miles from Hood River. This is his first vacation since the summer of 1898. Hats at your own price. Mrs. H. T. Sladen. NO GAME LAST SUNDAY. Stephens' Nine Failed to Connect and the League is Dismanded. Owing to the absence of four of their players, the Stephens' Addition team did not fulfill their engagement last Sunday and there was no game played. Manager Humphrys is endeavoring to schedule a game for Sunday with a team from McMinnville and a game is arranged for the following Sunday, June 23, with the Vancouver nine. The amateur league has gone to pieces and the respective clubs will go it alone the remainder of the season. Fontellas beat Vancouver Sunday at the former's grounds and next Sunday Stephens' Addition will play on the professional grounds in Portland. Fourth of July Chorus at Chautauquon. The church choir of the city and other good singers are respectfully invited and requested to meet at the Methodist church at 8 o'clock p. m. next Tuesday evening, to rehearse patriotic songs for the Fourth of July exercises. Those who sing in choruses on that day will be granted free admission to the grounds. A large attendance of singers is very urgently requested by the board of directors of the Chautauqua Association, who are earnestly striving to make the coming celebration at the grounds unique in the history of Clackamas county. Bloomer Girls Coming. The Boston Bloomers, champion women baseball players of the world, will play with a picked team from this city, on Albright field, next Tuesday, June 20, at 2:30 p. m. The grounds will be enclosed by a 10 foot canvas wall and a covered grand stand will be erected with a seating capacity of 1800 people. The Boston Bloomers consist of 12 women from various metropolitan cities, and all who witness the coming game will be surprised to see the manner in which the ladies handle the ball. Admission 25 and 50 cents. Sailor and waiking hats just arrived. Miss C. Goldsmith. Harry Mosher, one of Clackamas County's teachers, leaves next Monday for Hamilton, Grant county, where he has accepted a position as teacher of a school. He goes well recommended and success is sure to crown his work. Among the graduates of the University of Oregon are William G. Beattie and David H. Wolfe of this city. The former will be one of six members of the class who won honors in the senior try-out and will have the privilege of contesting for the Failing and Beckman prizes on commencement day. These prizes are $100 and $50 cash. Portland-Oregon City boat Str. Leona leaves foot of Eighth St. at 7 and 10 a. m. and 1:30 and 4:30 p. m. Leaves Portland at 8:30 and 11:30 a. m. and 3:00 and 6:15 p. m. Round trip 25 cents. Take the Leona if you want a good comfortable ride. The run is made either way in one hour and fifteen minutes. Southern Pacific Conductor B. W. Maddox, who blocked a street crossing by leaving freight cars on a siding, and who laid off for a week, hoping the authorities would overlook the matter, rectified his error Tuesday by paying a $10 fine to Recorder Curry. He has resumed his run but will leave no more freight cars on crossings. A sample jar of Cudahy's "Rev" Brand Beef Extract at Robertson's Seventh street grocery. This is the finest preparation of its kind manufactured, and sells for 40 cents per jar. Return the cap of a 40 cent jar to Cudahy Manufacturing Company and receive an elegant lithograph, 12x15 inches, free from advertising. The Knights of Pythias elected the following officers last Wednesday evening for the coming year: Chancellor Commander, Benjamin Doolittle; Vice Chancellor, Delbert Hart; Prolate, W. Cruise; Master at Arms, W. Foliosbee; Keeper Record and Seal, J. Peckover; Inside Guard, Joseph Froemong; Outside Guard, Dr. Hoey. Mrs. Johanna Freytag, wife of Julius E. Freytag, died at the residence of her daughter Mrs. F. J. Meyer, yesterday morning at 5:30 of paralysis. Mrs. Freytag was born May 24, 1841. She leaves a husband and six children, Oscar, Richard, Otto, Paul, Mrs. Hattie Pelt and Mrs. F. J. Meyer. Arrangements for the funeral have not yet been made. Why not spend the vacation at Yaquina Bay, where can be had excellent fare, good fishing, good boating, safe bathing, alluring rides and rambles. The courses and exercises at the summer school, of 1901, at Newport, will afford great variety of instructions, diversion and entertainment. No other resort offers equal attractions and advantages.

Local Events.

Milinery sale at Mrs. H. T. Sladen's. Commissioners court meets Thursday, June 20. Sheriff Cooke has collected $64,000 of the 1901 tax. Trimmed hats for 50 and up at Mrs. H. T. Sladen's. Camera supplies of all kinds, at Charman & Co., the Cut Price Druggist. Company A baseball team will play McMinnville in that city on June 29 and 30. One hundred and fifteen people went to Salem Sunday on the engineers' excursion. A pension increase of $12 per month has been granted Jackson Knotts, of Mulino. Judge T. A. McBride adjourned circuit court Saturday evening to meet Saturday, July 6. Children's Day exercises were held Sunday in the Presbyterian, Baptist and Methodist churches. George W. Martin was kicked by a vicious horse Monday evening and will be confined to the house for several days. A marriage license was granted yesterday to Miss Nettie Studeman and Alvin B. KleinSmith, who has a prosperous blacksmith business at Ely. Prof. Millard Hyatt has been re-elected principal of the Willamette Falls school and Miss Lizzie Shipley was elected a teacher in the primary department. Lone Star Lodge, No. 145, I. O. O. F., of Clackamas, has incorporated with a capital of $700 and Herman Noas, Milo Thompson and W. H. Counsel as incorporators. Rudolph Gantenbein has been granted a pension of $6 per month, under the war with Spain act and Fletcher Bogue, of Mulino will receive an additional pension of $12 per month. The Portland City and Oregon trolley line will, until further notice, make a 25 cent round trip rate from Canemah and Oregon City to Portland on Sundays with cars every 30 minutes. The Portland City and Oregon trolley line will, until further notice, make a 25 cent round trip rate from Canemah and Oregon City to Portland on Sundays with cars every 30 minutes. The Portland City and Oregon trolley line will, until further notice, make a 25 cent round trip rate from Canemah and Oregon City to Portland on Sundays with cars every 30 minutes. Why not be in line and look stylish. If your clothes do not fit it is because Joe Knowland did not make them. Suits of his manufacture look well. Call and see new samples at his Main street establishment. Dr. C. A. Stuart has located in this city and has opened offices in the Willamette building. He is a graduate of Willamette University and will pay special attention to rheumatism and diseases of women. Johnson & Lamb do general bicycle repairing at their shop on Main street, between Fifth and Sixth. All kinds of bike sundries. Wheels to rent. Coaster brakes fitted. We are here to stay and do first class work. Give us a call. The Congregational church will celebrate next Sunday as Children's Day. The pastor will preach a sermon to the Sunday School at 10:30 a. m. At 7:30 p. m. the School will render a program that promises to be one of rare merit. C. G. Huntley, president of the State Pharmacy board, attended a session in Portland last week. Among the successful candidates for druggist licenses was Miss Blanche Holden, of this city. The board will hold its next meeting September 10. Christian Science services are held in Willamette hall, every Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Subject for Sunday, June 16, "God the Preserver of Man." Sunday School at 12 o'clock. Wednesday evening meeting at eight o'clock. To these services all are welcome. The Maccoheens had a picnic at Mackeburg Tuesday. The rain in no way dampened the ardor of the people who attended and everybody managed to enjoy the day. Games of different kinds were held and an address was given by Senator George C. Brownell. The Woodmen of the World held memorial services Sunday afternoon at Mountain View cemetery and unveiled monuments to Charles Deaver and Geo. B. Fancher, who died last year. Addresses were made by Organizer Rogers and Rev. E. S. Bollinger. The Women of Woodcraft joined in the ceremonies. Yesterday morning while the delivery wagon of the Seventh street bakery was coming down Main street, opposite the Red Front, the pin holding the whistle tree came out, causing the wagon to tip backward on the rear wheels. The horse attempted to run away but was caught, preventing a catastrophe. We stake our reputation on our pianos. Do not think for a moment that we would fritter it away upon a worthless article. Just now we are offering most exceptional values in new mahogany or oak cabinet grand uprights for $268. We know for a certainty that no better nearly so good pianos were ever sold for $350 heretofore. Pay $10 or $12 a month, if you like. Eilers Piano House, Chickering, Weber and Kimball piano dealers, 351 Washington street, Portland, Oregon. Wheelmen will have about ten days to pay their tax, which will be collected this year in an economical way. It has been the custom in some towns to put deputies on paths, but this process is an expensive one, as there is very little money left for paths after the deputies are paid. Multnomah county has been compelled to call in her field deputies. Sheriff Cooke will collect the bicycle tax without assistance.

Columbia Bicycles advertisement featuring an illustration of a woman with a bicycle. Text includes 'Columbia Bicycles (Standard) of the World', 'Bicycle Sundries', 'Base Ball Goods', 'Fishing Tackle', and 'HUNTLEY'S BOOK STORE OREGON CITY.' Price lists for various items like Coaster Brake, Split bamboo rods, and Chain Crescents.

R. L. Holman advertisement for undertakers and coffin makers. Text includes 'What shall We Have For Dessert?', 'We carry the largest stock Caskets, Coffins and Linings in Clackamas county.', and 'R. L. HOLMAN Two Doors South of Court House.' Phone numbers 476 and 305.

Jacob Schatz advertisement for harnesses and saddles. Text includes 'Jacob Schatz Harnessmaker and Saddler. Main Street, bet. Fourth and Fifth, Oregon City. New Harnesses made in up-to-date style. Repairing Harnesses a Specialty.' Price list for 'ENTERPRISE AND W. OREGONIAN $2 00'.

FRANK BUSCH The Housefurnisher advertisement. Large text and multiple illustrations of household items. Text includes 'See Us Grow. Development is the sign of to-day, and we are in line with plenty of reasons for development. Stock, Prices, Methods, all point to the cause for our prosperity. Won't you share in the good things?' and 'Keen Cutlery. You can enjoy your meals better from having your knives with keen edges.' Price lists for various items like Nickel Plated Copper Tea Kettle, Salt Box, Egg Beater, and 3/4 gallon Freezer.