PERISHED IN THE FLAMES.

Blind Indian Woman Could Not Escape From Burning House.

Monday afternoon the house of Jim Tooski on the bluff on the east side of the river between this city and Canemah was burned to the ground and Susanne, his aged wife, who is totally blind, perished in the flames. It is a mystery how the building caught fire. The woman's husband was down town at the time and she was in bed in an upper story. Being very feeble and unable to help herself she was burned to death. The dead woman was the only surviving daughter of Chief Yelcus, of the Molalla tribe of Indians and her age was about 75. The loss of the building probably does not exceed $500, exclusive of $100 in gold coin. Susanne was born in this county and was a half-sister to Henry Yelcus, of Molalla. Tooski is a well known character about Oregon City and he earns a living by doing janitor work. He came here from Warm Springs about 50 years ago, and is what is known as a Deschutes Indian. Coroner Strickland investigated the affair and decided that an inquest was not necessary. The remains were interred at the Indian Camp Tuesday.

IT IS UP TO M'BRIDE

Grade Crossing Dangerous to Life and Property.

S. P. TRACK SHOULD BE MOVED.
Electric Road is Not Properly Located. —Should Have Been Along River Bank.

The report of Major Alfred F. Sears, C. E., Wm. B. Chase, city engineer of Portland, and Charles F. Lester, who is connected with the Astoria and Columbia River Railroad, commissioners appointed on the Canemah crossing in the case of the Oregon City & Southern Railway vs. the Oregon & California Railroad and the Southern Pacific Company, was filed in the office of the county clerk Saturday. The report is an exhaustive one and goes into every detail. The public is so familiar with this case that the publication of the events that led to it are unnecessary. The manner of the crossing and the signals are minutely specified. The report states that the O. C. & S. road is constructed to crossing the track of the S. P. Co. twice and established the position of the crossings. The S. P. Co's road is subdivided into stations of 100 feet each, numbered consecutively from Portland and the first crossing is to be between stations 826 and 827 and center of the crossing to be 48 feet south of station 826. The second crossing to be between stations 845 and 846 the center 73 feet south of 845. The report also says:

"Grade crossings are a menace to life and property under all circumstances, even when guarded by the most perfect device known to men. In our judgment it should never be allowed when it can properly be prevented.
"In the present instance the commissioners would have decided upon an overhead crossing if it could have been built without undue interference with the county road.
"Your commissioners wish to emphasize their decided opinion that the line of the electric road is not properly located. They find on personal investigation that it might and should have been placed along the river bank between the S. P. line and the river, even if it had been necessary to move the track of the S. P. a trifling distance eastward, for which there is abundant room, without serious damage to abutting property or the alignment of the existing company. Such lateral movement would not in their judgment exceed 10 feet."
The piles that annoy you so will be quickly and permanently healed if you use DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Beware of worthless counterfeits. Geo. A. Harding.
