WIDE-AWAKE MERCHANTS, ADD TO YOUR BUSINESS Think about the GRAPHOPHONE
The enormous sales of the Graphophone, are caused by the fact that it has such MATCHLESS POWER OF ENTERTAINMENT That an INTENSE DESIRE for POSSESSION is awakened in all who hear it.
IT SUPPLIES AN ACTUAL WANT (THE IRRESISTIBLE DEMAND FOR DIVERSION AND RELAXATION) TO GRATIFY WHICH MANY ARE WILLING TO DO WITHOUT OTHER NECESSITIES. IT IS THE UNIVERSAL ENTERTAINER OF THE AGE
An inexhaustible source of Wonder and Delight to all It is simple in construction, and prices are arranged to suit all pocket books; while the demand will continue as long as human nature exists.
The introduction of a few Graphophones into a community at once creates an increasing demand for RECORDS and SUPPLIES, and a CONTINUOUS BUSINESS is thus established. Why not secure the Liberal Profits which are allowed dealers?

BERNARD GOLOSMITH DEAD.

Built Oregon City Locks in 1872 and Established Steamer Line.

Bernard Goldsmith, who was a prominent business man of Portland for a generation, died Monday morning of heart failure. He was a pioneer merchant and was mayor of Portland in 1899. His connection with Oregon City is explained by a portion of his record, taken from "The Chronicles of the Builders," by Hubert Howet Bancroft:
"Among the numerous enterprises with which he has been connected, that which probably has been of the widest benefit to Oregon, especially Portland and the Willamette Valley, was the building of the locks on the Willamette in 1872. Prior to that time goods had been first transferred from one side of the falls to the other by teams, and later by means of a tramway or incline plane, connecting the lower part of the falls with a basin built on the east side of the river. Both of these means were expensive, beside occasioning a great loss of time. Mr. Goldsmith and his associates, aided by a subsidy of $200,000 from the State legislature, undertook the construction of the locks; but the contractor failed, and they were compelled to complete the work by themselves. Its final cost was more than double the amount appropriated by the legislature.

"But his troubles did not end there;
the People's Transportation Company refused to use the locks. This forced him to build boats, and he organized the Willamette Locks & Transportation Company, which reduced the transportation 50 per cent below previous rates.
This brought about the consolidation of the People's Transportation Company and the Oregon Navigation Company.
In order to compete with this organization it was necessary to build newer and better boats and also to establish a line of steamers between Portland and Astoria. Ultimately he was forced to sell out to his rivals at a great loss. He was the only loser, however, for in the Willamette locks, which will endure as a BUSINESS FOR THE FISCAL YEAR.

There Has Been an Increase in Acreage Located by Actual Settlers.— Tabulated Statement.

The tabulated statement prepared by Register C. E. Moore, showing the amount and character of business transacted by the Oregon City land office for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1901, has just been completed, and forwarded to the general land office. This statement shows that the total number of acres of government lands located in the district, during the past fiscal year, was 185, 916.13, or 23,321.1 acres less than were located during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1900. However, there has been an actual increase in the acreage located by actual settlers. During the first year, the Forest Reserve lieu land selections amounted to 92,601.05 acres, about $1,000 acres being taken by the Northern Pacific Railroad Company, while during the past year the lieu land selections will not aggregate more than 12,000 acres.
During the past year, however, the homestead locations far exceed that of any former like period in the history of the land office. Following is a summary of the land entries for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1900:

Homesteads, 56,597.56 acres.
Indemnity school selections, 13,331.84.
Northern Pacific Railway Forest Reserve lieu land selections, 81,584.03.
Oregon & California Railroad Company selections, 1797 acres.
Timber applications, 34,649.32 acres.
Private Forest Reserve lieu land selections, 19,256.62 acres.
Isolated tracts sold, 57 acres.
Total acreage disposed of, 207,237.37.
Disposals should also be credited with lieu land selections of the Northern Pacific Railroad as follows: Tillamook county, 1118.49 acres; Washington county, 1974.63; total, 3093.12 acres.
The following table shows (in acres) the disposal of lands in the district during the past fiscal year by counties:

September 17.

SUDDEN DEATH.

Charles T. Hickman Sustains Apoplectic Stroke Sunday.

Charles T. Hickman sustained a stroke of apoplexy at 7 o'clock Sunday morning and died about two hours later. He had been in failing health for some time and his sudden death came as a severe blow to his family and friends. Mr. Hickman was well known in Oregon City.

The funeral was held Tuesday afternoon from his late residence on the hill, under the auspices of the G. A. R. and United Artisans, of which the deceased was a member.

Charles Thornten Hickman was born at Norwich, Ohio, March 3, 1843. He enlisted in the army in 1861 and served until the end of the war. For his many acts of bravery he was made First Lieutenant of Company B, Thirty-ninth Infantry Volunteers. In 1866 he was married to Amanda L. Moore at Laplato, Mo., and together they came to Oregon in November in the year 1871. They moved to Oregon City in 1872, where they have since resided. He has been monument to his public spirit and enterprise, the people of the Willamette Valley have secured forever immunity from excessive railroad charges and discrimination."

In the matter of the estate of N. O.
Walden, deceased, the executors are directed to pay $72 interest upon the mortgage indebtedness of the estate to Henry Miley.

Otto H. Miller has been appointed guardian of Edward A., Willie O., George H., and Lillie A. Miller, minors, and his bond fixed at $2000.

Wm. H. H. Blaney has filed an action against Mary E. Blaney asking for a decree of divorce. The couple were married at Baltimore, Md., on April 12, 1870 and in May, 1899 Mrs. Blaney deserted her husband without sufficient reason.

Attorney C. H. Dye is preparing the papers in the appeal of the case of Mrs.
Gibbons vs. Strong. The plaintiff, who formerly conducted a boarding house known as "The Cottage," sued Strong in the justice court for $38.50 on an unpaid board bill and obtained judgment for $22.
Mr. Dye is Strong's attorney.

Louisa E. York has filed a suit for divorce against W. H. York. They were married in Mayville, Gilliam county, Oregon, in May, 1884, and York abandoned his wife in 1899. The following children have been born to them: Henry R. York, aged 15 years; Albert J. York, 13 years; Eva York, nine years; Minerva York, seven years; Edward York, six years, and Maud York, two years.

Minnie McKean sues William F.
Hedges to recover $150 and interest on a promissory note, dated April 9, 1898.
The plaintiff, who was formerly Mrs.
Minnie Ham, but was divorced and resumed her maiden name of McKean, holds a mortgage on 160 acres of land in Clackamas county belonging to the defendant. C. D. and D. C. Latourette are attorneys for plaintiff.

Winnie Duffy, aged 19 years, was committed to the insane asylum Wednesday by Judge Ryan. The girl's parents reside near Schubel and she came here about two weeks ago and has been working in C. W. Bagly's boarding house.
Bagly was the only witness and Dr. Carl pronounced the girl insane. She was taken to Salem Wednesday evening by Sheriff Cooke.

The Washington National Building, Loan and Investment Association, a corporation has commenced action against Geo. W. Stryker, Ola M. Stryker, J. A.
Barker and M. J. Barker, his wife, J. W.
Didier and —Didier, his wife, to recover the sum of $1000 with interest from March, 1895. In December, 1892, Geo.
W. Stryker purchased 10 shares of stock in the association and gave his note, which was secured by a mortgage on block eight in Sellwood's Addition to Milwaukie. The other defendants claim to have some interest in the property.

Martin Giesy has filed complaint against J. DeVore Johnson and W. C.
Johnson, her husband, to recover $2,000 on a promissory note, with interest from February 16, 1900, and the further sum of $153.34 as taxes for the year 1899; and the further sum of $138.06 as taxes for the year 1900; and the further sum of $250 attorney's fees and for costs and disbursements of suit. The plaintiff asks that a mortgage on blocks 50 and 51 in Oregon City be foreclosed, except on lots 5 and 6 in block 50. As Charles Heinz claims a lien or interest in the mortgaged property, he is made a party to the suit. John W. Loder is the plain-tiff's attorney.
