FREEMAN HAD THE BEST OF IT .- A Portland paper has the following account | Cure. of a preliminary scrap before the Cole-Irwin fight last Friday night. Freeman is from Oregon City: The preliminary between Eddie Murphy, of Albina, and Frank Freeman was a fast little scrap. The youngsters lost no time getting together in the first round, and kept hard at it all the way through. Murphy drew first blood in the third round, with a sharp jolt on Freeman's nose. Freeman's sharp jabs proved too much for the Albina lad, and although he bung to it plackily till the end, it was a fight against time, which be had the good tortune to win, although he was down and promptly applied to cuts, burns and almost out several times in the last two scalds. It soothes and quickly heals the rounds. The referee, Van Buskirk, injured part. There are worthless councalled the match a draw, to the great terfeits; be sure to get DeWitt's.
