Notice

Notice is hereby given that the board of county commissioners of Clackamas county, Oregon, will receive sealed bids up and until August 9th, 1901, at the hour of 10 o'clock a. m. for the county printing and the furnishing of county supplies for the ensuing year. The printing to consist of tax lists, execution notices, proceedings of the board of county commissioners, legal blanks and all advertising and printing which the county or any of its officers is required to do. Also, to furnish all stationery, blank books, registered blanks, election tickets and duplicates, record books and all supplies of whatever kind and nature used by the county officers. The board reserves the right to reject any and all bids. E. H. COOPER, County Clerk. Dated July 10, 1901. Josh Westhaier, of Logosoteo, Ind., is a poor man but he says he would not be without Chamberlain's Pain Balm if it cost five dollars a bottle, for it saved him from being a cripple. No external application is equal to this liniment for stiff and swollen joints, contracted muscles, stiff neck, sprains and rheumatic and muscular pains. It has also cured numerous cases of partial paralysis. It is for sale by G. A. Harding, druggist.
