THE LOCAL NEWS.

COMPANY A VS. WILLAMETTE.—Much speculation is indulged in as to the outcome of the game between Company A and the Willamettes, scheduled for Sunday, August 18. Both teams are confident of victory and each nine has enthusiastic supporters.

FROM BLEEDING KANSAS.—C. W. Gulick, of the great state of Kansas, has been driven west by the heat and is making a pleasure trip to the coast. He was in town Friday and said that if Kansas people knew of the glorious Oregon climate, they would be coming here in flocks. Here is a fine opportunity for the board of trade to do some home missionary work.

TO CLIMB Mt. Hood.—Rev. and Mrs. W. S. Ginn, Mrs. Otto F. Olson, Miss Harriet Case, Miss Carrie Bedford, Miss Peterson and Mr. J. Wolfe, of Indiana, left Monday for Mt. Hood. They will climb the mountain and see what the earth looks like from an elevation. The party is under the guidance of W. B. Stafford, of Elyville, and will be absent about 10 days.

APHIS APPEARS.—George H. Webster, of Clackamas, was in town Monday. He is one of the county's leading farmers. Mr. Webster says that aphid has appeared in his wheat, which is on low ground, and consequently later than most of the crop. It is not likely that aphid will affect grain to any extent as it is far enough along to be safe, but Mr. Webster's crop might suffer severely from the pest.

MACCABEE INSTALLATION.—State Commander Sherwood, of Portland, installed the following officers of Tualatin Tent, Knights of the Maccabees, last night: G. B. Dimick, commander; F. Gilligan, lieutenant commander; E. E. Taylor, record and finance keeper; P. Harris, chaplain; C. Waldron, master at arms; W. Ream, sergeant; A. B. Buckles, first master of the guard; Robert Vaughan, second master of the guard; M. Rauch, sentinel; C. M. Mason, picket.

SCHLEY IS THE FAVORITE.—It is interesting to note, in connection with the Sampson-Schley controversy, the opinions of people who read newspapers and who think of what they read. It is entirely safe to say that 99 men out of 100 are Schley supporters. The newspapers, too, almost unanimously condemn the navy department for their unjust treatment of and their narrow-minded prejudice against the gallant admiral, who after he won the battle of Santiago, said "There is glory enough for all of us."

CONTRACT FOR STEVENS BUILDING AWARDED.—Stevens and Howell have awarded the contract for the construction of their new building on Main street, between Sixth and Seventh, to Scott & Johnson. Mr. Johnson recently arrived from Seattle but formerly resided here and Mr. Scott is a well known contractor of this city. The terms are not given out. Bids were opened last week but all were rejected and Scott & Johnson's figures were modified and an agreement was reached. The contract calls for the completion of the building by November first, and work will be commenced at once.

EXCAVATING FOR FOUNDATION.—The water commission will receive bids until 4 o'clock this afternoon for the removal of all the earth, loose rock, etc., to bed rock, for a space of 35 feet by 80 feet in depth, from the center of the lot recently occupied by the old cement mill, south of block 29, at the south end of Main street. After the earth is removed surveys will be made and plans will be completed for a concrete foundation for the filter house, under which a filter well will be constructed, covering a space of 35x80 feet.

HOMESTEAD PATENTS GRANTED.—The following settlers have received homestead patents from the Oregon City land office: George Archibald, Ralph Towne, the heirs of Wesley Down, John J. Hudson, Charles Reed, Albert P. Hill, Charles Hill, August Schulenberg, William A. Hadden, James J. McGinnis, Johann F. Spring, Benjamin Harrington, Asa Wells, Henry Goetzler, George E. Sellers, heirs of Parson C. Gleason, John W. Hyde, Joseph M. Bull, George Schriwing, Albert Schoenbeck, Charles C. Clark, Victor Dickey, Soren Jeppson, Arthur F. McKay.

K. OF P. PICNIC AT HUBBARD.—Arlon Lodge, No. 57, K. of P., of Hubbard, assisted by Hermes Lodge, No. 56, of Aurora, gave a fraternal picnic at Hubbard last Saturday. Nearly 2,000 people were there, coming from near by towns and farms. The Aurora Junior Band discoursed sweet music during the day, and among the speakers were several prominent Knights. In the morning Grand Keeper of Record and Seal L. R. Stinson and County Clerk J. P. Kennedy, of Multnomah county, addressed the audience and at 3 o'clock in the afternoon Hon. G. B. Dimick, of Oregon City, spoke on the duties of good citizenship.

PULLED COW OUT OF THE MUD.—Capt. Spang, of the steamer Pomona, as he came up the river on his way to Salem on Monday evening, found a cow stuck in the mud on the bank of the river. He stopped his boat and, with the assistance of his crew, pulled the unfortunate bovine out of the mud, put her on terra firma, and sent her on her way homeward. Then the boat proceeded on up the river, the captain not thinking he had done anything more or less than his duty. But this writer would like to remark that a man who is thus considerate of the welfare of a poor, dumb creature, would not show a less consideration for the feelings or safety of sentient beings. As he "did his duty" by the cow, he will do it by all of God's creatures.—Statesman.

Mrs. HUTCHINS DEAD.—News has been received in this city of the death, on July 22, of Mrs. Eliza Hutchins, of this city. She was visiting her daughter Mrs. Robert A. Moore, in Springfield, Mo., and lived only 10 days after being taken ill. Mrs. Hutchins was a native of Sudbury, Mass., and for many years resided near Springfield. Her age was 73 years. Her daughters, Mrs. Robert Hathaway, of Republic, Mo., Mrs. Moore and Miss Hattie Hutchins, and her sister, Mrs. Jonathan Fairbanks, were with her at the time of her death. Her other children are: Mrs. Clara Pierce, of Hyde Park, Mass.; Mrs. Angie Hall, of West Acton, Mass.; E. W. Hutchins and F. S. Hutchins, of Stone, Oregon. Deceased was a member of Ravenwood Baptist church, of Logan.

WOODMEN DAY.—Tomorrow is the big day for the Woodmen of the World, and 1000 candidates will be initiated at Mt. Tabor. White buttons, inscribed with the figures "1000" have been conspicuous on the lapels of Woodmen's coats for several months past and their motto is "On August 3d around the stump, a thousand men the goat will bump." The initiation in the evening will be witnessed by Woodmen only but everybody is invited to witness the ceremonies during the day, and to partake of the big barbecue. There will be a grand spectacular drill by fifteen degree teams, a ball game and other sports. A large delegation will go from Oregon City, a round trip rate of 35 cents having been made to Mt. Tabor and return. All Woodmen, their families and friends are requested to take the 8:15 a. m. electric car. Tickets good on any car August 3d or 4th.

VERY TALL TIMOTHY.—A sheaf of timothy 7 feet 6 inches in length was forwarded to Commissioner Bosch at the Buffalo Exposition by George Lamberston, secretary of the State Horticultural Society. It is to be placed in the Oregon exhibit to show to all the world how tall the grass grows in Oregon. It was raised on the farm of Charles Daley, near Wilhoit Springs, who has a field of timothy, the average height of which is over 5 feet. The sample sent was certainly a very remarkable one, and no one who saw it could say that he had ever seen timothy before 7 1/2 feet high. Several said they had seen stalks seven feet tall. L. F. Gny told the Oregonian that he had seen timothy over seven feet high around the edge of Lake Labish, and at the same time had seen oats being threshed which yielded 98 bushels per acre, machine measure, and which would have made over 100 bushels by weight.

Maggie Johnson has sued Frank Johnson for divorce. The couple were married May 31, 1900, and Johnson deserted the plaintiff two months later. Mrs. Johnson asks to be allowed to resume her maiden name of Comstock.

Otto Lehman has brought suit against Fred Brackenboush for the recovery of a red Durham cow, valued at $40. The complaint alleges that Brackenboush took possession of the cow on July 2, without the plaintiff's consent, and though Lehman has demanded his property the defendant still retains possession. The plaintiff asks for the cow or the value of the animal and $25 damages and costs of action. Sheriff Cooke went out to Brackenboush's place Friday and brought the cow into town, where she is stabled, pending the trial of the case.

The last will of testament of the late Charles T. Hickman has been filed for probate. The probable value of the estate is $3,000, and his widow, Mrs. Amanda Hickman, is named as executrix, without bonds. The will was made February 16, 1893, in the presence of H. T. Sladen and Nellie Sladen. The bulk of the estate is left to Mrs. Hickman, and one dollar to each of his children: Mrs. Emma B. Bealey, formerly Mrs. Emma B. Clark, aged 34 years, of Pasadena, Cal.; Mrs. Olive Ada Warner, aged 31 years, of Oregon City; Charles Everett Hickman, aged 27 years, of Portland; Samuel Ernest Hickman, aged 25 years, of Sumpter; Harvey Owen Hickman, aged 19 years, of Oregon City.

Annie Smith brings suit against James S. Smith for divorce. They were married in Marion county, Mo., on May 6, 1875 and have five children: Lexie E., aged 19 years; Abraham B., aged 16 years; Earl R., aged 14 years; Chloe I., aged 10 years and Jephtha E., aged 5 years. Mrs. Smith alleges cruel and inhuman treatment. They came to Oregon 10 years ago and in the summer of 1893 resided near Salmon postoffice. While living there Smith deserted her and stayed away for four months, during which time he never aided her. She was sick and helpless and dependent upon strangers for the support of herself and her children. In 1895 they removed to Oregon City, where Smith continued his ill treatment of the plaintiff, accusing her of infidelity without reason and pulling her out of bed by the hair of her head in the presence of her children. She has never given the defendant any provocation for his misconduct. The complaint states that Smith owns property valued at $3,000, and the plaintiff asks for $1,000 alimony and $200 attorney's fee. She also asks for a one-third interest in land owned by the defendant and a one-third interest in lots 3 and 4 in block 2, Parker Hill, which plaintiff and defendant own jointly. She sues for the costs and disbursements of the case and the care and custody of the children.
