

CORRESPONDENCE

Our correspondents will please send in articles before Wednesdays of each week, otherwise it reaches us too late for publication.

Highland

Harvest is just commencing. A. Harrington has lost five calves with blacktongue. People are going to the mountains every day for blackberries. Quite a number from here attended campmeeting at Viola and report a good time. Crops are good. There will be an abundant yield of oats, and wheat is far over average. Mrs. Geo. Stevens and children, of Beaver Creek, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Gard. Mrs. Walton, of Oregon City, returned home last Saturday after visiting two weeks with old friends. Mrs. James Heckart and son Lloyd, of Portland, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Al Harrington for the past week, returned home today. Thomas Hickman, of Missouri, who built a saw mill here thirty years ago, is back again shaking hands with old friends. He is a brother of the late Chas. Hickman.

Willott

Warm weather still continues. Bert Wade made a business trip to Silverton last week. M. A. Nicholson was visiting her brother at Turner last week. J. L. Crouse was doing business at the county seat Wednesday last. A. E. Thomas, of Scotts Mills, was having in this section last week. The county assessor was seen passing through this section one day last week. Charley and Thomas Slaughter lost a valuable bull from an unknown cause last week. E. Wade and son have taken the contract of cutting 50 cords of wood for F. McLaren. Brenton Vedder, of McKee, our ex-school master, was visiting his pupils and many friends in this vicinity last week. N. J. Thomas is making regular trips on Sunday over near Downs' station. There must be something very attractive over there.

Aims Items

O. V. Hickman and wife, of Montavilla, are visiting relatives here. Mrs. Roberts and her two children, of Portland, are the guests of Mrs. Johannessen, this week. J. A. Hickman and son Rex went to Portland Friday of last week, and returned Saturday. Some of our people spent a pleasant day at the head works of the Bull Run pipe line Wednesday. Mrs. L. C. Lowe, while picking berries came in contact with poison oak, and is now suffering from the effects of it. Mr. Britt, who is in the employ of the O. & C. R. Co., recently passed through here. He was looking after the interest of the company. Mrs. Harry Bramhall spent last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Aschoff, of Marmot, while Harry went to Mount Hood. Mr. Ponock and wife, of Portland, are spending their summer outing in this neck of the woods, where pure air and clear, cold water abounds. Mr. J. W. Mullen made a flying trip to Lewiston, Idaho, and returned, bringing with him, his aged mother, who expects to make her home with him. The Johannessen's were agreeably surprised Thursday evening by a party of young folks who gathered there for a pleasant time in honor of Mrs. Roberts and family. The secular people of Aims seems to be getting in earnest. They held a meeting two weeks ago, which was well attended, and another is appointed for Sunday next. We are sorry to say that the bottom has fallen out of the railroad tie business, stopping the sawmills and throwing many men out of employment, and affecting life generally. Pleasure seeking is the order of the day now. Mr. W. D. Thomas and wife, Chas. Bramhall and Miss Emma Jones, and several guests from abroad, spent a day of last week fishing in Bull Run.

LOSING FLESH in summer can be prevented by taking Scott's Emulsion. Its a beneficial in summer as in winter. If you are weak or run down, it will build you up.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Brown of this place, were agreeably surprised a few days ago. A lady came to their home and applied for the position of cook. She was informed that she was not wanted, and as she turned away a team and two men stopped in front of the house. They proved to be father, mother and brother, of Mr. Brown, from Kansas, whom they had not seen for many years.

Sandy

Annie Nelson has returned home from Portland. Jack Malria has returned to his position in Astoria. Miss Tillie Bruns has been very sick, but is recovering. Idleman, our groceryman, was visited by his brother, the past week. J. H. Weiwer will start at once sawing lumber. He will put in a planer. Mrs. Dodge was considerably bruised in a runaway accident that happened in Portland. Ed Strawbridge, of Portland, is in town greeting everybody with the same old smile. Sandy just now is having a hot time; 100 in the shade is the warmest ever known here. Grain of all kinds is ripening rapidly. Several farmers have started their harvesting machines already. Mr. Davies has been awarded the contract of building Kelso schoolhouse size of building is 26x40, 14 foot post. E. T. Bruns has returned to Sandy, having just finished a handsome residence for N. O. Nylander in Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Boshlin are spending their summer vacation at their beautiful country home on the Sandy Heights. Berry pickers and pleasure seekers are flocking out here by the dozens. An automobile, with Mr. Weimer, of Portland, at the helm, was out Sunday. It aroused considerable interest among hay seeds. Now the horses will have a kick coming. Gritty Camp No. 539 W. of W. will give a harvest picnic in Meinig's park, August 24, 1901. It will be the grandest of the kind ever celebrated on Sandy. Aims brass band will furnish music for the occasion. A glee club will render vocal music. Hon. George C. Brownell will deliver an oration. Log sawing, rail driving and various other amusements. Come one, come all and have a good time.

Needy

The weather has been very hot for the past week. Julius Spaglia has returned from eastern Oregon. Roy Cochran and Fred Mohr are cutting teasels at Carus. The threshing machines are now rattling in every direction. The people of Needy spent the Sunday at Soda Springs and had a good time. The telephone is now finished and the sweet voices of the good people are passing through the phone to their full capacity.

Moiolla

The "hot wave" has struck this part of the country; 94 degrees in the shade. Mrs. Dond, of Mt. Tabor, and Mrs. Ira Jones, of Oregon City, have been visiting at R. R. Thomas'. Bert Perry, who was recently crippled in the spine by being thrown from his horse, is still improving. The hot weather is rushing harvest along in great shape, almost too fast to insure the plumpness of the topmost oat grains. Moiolla never does anything by halves. John Cole and brother will come forward also with an "Advance" outfit complete. The Harless, Shaver, Adams crew have their new threshing outfit home, and will try it on oats tomorrow. It is a 20 horse Russell engine, and "Advance" separator. Not to go to Willott this hot weather and wash the dust out of your throat is to miss something good in season. Among the representatives from Oregon City Sunday we noticed Mayor Dimick, Messrs. Eastham and J. U. Campbell drinking soda water.

Garfield

Mrs. Anders had several of her young friends to dinner with her Sunday. The Misses Davis are at home at present. Their mother, Mrs. J. J. Davis, is not well. The thermometer registered 120 at 2 o'clock Sunday, in the sun, and 100 in shade. Our hottest day so far. Mr. W. H. Snuffin and wife are spending a few days with Mrs. Snuffin's parents. They reside at Mt. Tabor. Grain is ripening fast this hot weather. J. E. Tracey and Doc. Palmateer are the first to cut their fall wheat, which can't be beat. Fruit is in fine condition so far and promises an abundant crop. Potatoes are so large that one makes all a small family can eat. A number of people have gone in the woods for wild blackberries, but some came home very tired with but few berries as there are none to get.

Coughing

"I was given up to die with quick consumption. I then began to use Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I improved at once, and am now in perfect health."—Chas. E. Harriman, Gibbstown, N. Y.

It's too risky, playing with your cough. The first thing you know it will be down deep in your lungs and the play will be over. Begin early with Ayer's Cherry Pectoral and stop the cough.

Three sizes - 25c., 50c., $1. All druggists. Consult your doctor. If he says take it, then do as he says. If he tells you not to take it, then don't take it. He knows. Leave it with him. We are willing. J. C. AYER CO., Lowell, Mass.

Sherwood

The farmers are all jubilant over the fine crops. Yesterday was a busy day with our merchants. H. H. Eyman, our undertaker, has purchased a hearse. Dr. A. L. Saylor started for the coast this morning for a much needed rest. The temperature was not so high here yesterday by five degrees as it was Saturday and Sunday. Sunday was the warmest day we have had this season; the thermometer registered 101 in the shade. Rev. J. M. Barber preached to a well filled house Sunday, his farewell sermon. It is with much regret that we have to report that he also tendered his resignation as pastor of the Congregational church of this place. P. T. Meeks and L. S. McConnell have returned home from a two weeks' stay at the Willott springs. They say they did not drink all the soda water. They both speak very highly of the management and say the water is a wonderful restorative.

Carus

We are having very warm weather; yesterday it was 95 degrees. Teasel picking began last Thursday with nearly forty-nine pickers. Mrs. J. R. Tresnon, of Portland, is up visiting her parents for a week or two. Harvest is in full blast. Grain is turning out better than for several years past. Wallace Graham, one of Carus' highly esteemed young gentlemen, is going to Portland in a few days to work. Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Worsham, of Malheur, are visiting the former's sister, Mrs. B. Faust, and the latter's sister, Mrs. J. K. Graham. Messrs. Arthur Dills and Virgil Griffin, of Illinois, are visiting the former's mother, Mrs. Ben Faust, whom he has not seen for fourteen years.

Borings

Hot, Hotter, Hottest. Mr. W. H. Boring made a trip to Oregon City today. Mr. Sloop's new house is being rapidly pushed to a finish. Mr. C. Y. Lake had the misfortune to lose a fine horse recently. Road boss S. S. Waybill has a crew of hands at work on the road. J. D. Lea, superintendent of the penitentiary, was in Borings last week. J. Osborn and James Richey returned from Eastern Oregon last Wednesday. Mr. O. W. Boring spent Sunday, July 28th, in Portland, visiting old friends. A number of the young people attended the dance at Pleasant Home Saturday evening. A number of the people of Borings attended the G. A. R. reunion at Pleasant Home last week. The hot weather is ripening the grain quite fast. The busy click of the binder is heard on all sides. Mr. I. P. Welch and H. Utiger have been building an addition to J. Jari's store at Kelso the past week.

Dover

Blackberries are very scarce this year. R. DeShazer is visiting his sons in Firwood. Mrs. Cooper started for Portland last Thursday. Grain harvest is here; wheat and oats are very heavy. Miss Mary Kitzmiller is home visiting her parents at present. Mrs. Raglan has been visiting her mother for a few weeks. James and Joseph DeShazer made a quick trip to Portland this week. Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Kitzmiller attended the quarterly meeting at Viola last week. Mrs. N. Nelson is preparing to go to Gresham, where she can be nearer a physician. Mrs. Huntsinger, from Kansas, was visiting her sister, Mrs. Jos. DeShazer, last week.
