Come and be convinced of what you can save at the Racket store. Work has commenced on the new buildings of Howell & Stevens and Mrs. Stratton and they will be pushed rapidly to completion. Andrew Hart, who purchased the post-office store of F. A. Miles about a month ago, has transferred the business to C. W. Love, of Portland, taking Mr. Love's establishment in exchange. E. D. Soules met with a painful accident Monday evening at the paper mill. One of the big shafts fell on his foot, badly bruising it, and while the injury is not serious he will not be able to work for a week or two. Deputy Organizer Edward Lance, of the Knights of the Maconbees, will meet with the Toastin Tent next Thursday evening. He will work for the local lodge and expects to make a large increase in their membership. A small fire in the rear of the Electric hotel Saturday night was promptly subdued by the department and the damage was slight. The origin of the fire is a mystery but it is likely that the blaze was started from a cigar stub. Christian Science services are held in Willamette hall every Sunday morning at eleven o'clock. Subject for Sunday, August 11, "Soul." Sunday School at twelve o'clock. Wednesday evening meeting at eight o'clock. To these services all are welcome. The board of directors of the Y. M. C.
