SHERIFF'S SALE ON EXECUTION.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Multnomah.

Portland Trust Company of Oregon, plaintiff, vs. J. C. Havelly and Anna Havelly, defendants.

By virtue of a judgment order, decree and execution, duly issued out of and under the seal of the above entitled court, in the above entitled cause, to me duly directed and dated the 20th day of June, 1901, upon a judgment rendered and entered in said court on the 15th day of June, 1900 in favor of Portland Trust Company, of Oregon, plaintiff, and against J. C. Havelly and Anna Havelly, defendants, and H. W. Ross, surety, for the sum of $3,356.30, with interest thereon at the rate of 10 per cent per annum from the 24th day of July, 1900, together with the costs and expenses which judgment was rendered and docketed in the clerk's office of said court in said county on the 5th day of January, 1901 and whereas, notice of contribution and repayment was filed by Lucinda Ross, administratrix and Minnie L. Foster and Lenora Ross, by her co-executors, Lucinda Ross, Nov. 2, 1900, commanding me out of the personal property of said defendants and H. W. Ross, surety, and if sufficient could not be found, then out of the real property belonging to said defendants and surety to satisfy the sum of $4427.83 now due on said judgment with interest thereon at the rate of ten per cent per annum from the 25th day of December, 1900, also costs upon this writ.

Now, therefore, by virtue of said execution, judgment order and decree, and in compliance with the commands of said writ, being unable to find any personal property of said defendants or surety's I did on the 12th day of July, 1901 duly levy upon the following described real property of said defendants and surety situate and being in the county of Clackamas, state of Oregon, to-wit:

An undivided four-ninths interest in and to all of the following described real property to-wit: Lots three (3) and four (4) in block (2) in the town of Canemah, Clackamas county, Oregon, as shown by the plat and survey of said town of Canemah, now on file in the county clerk's office of Clackamas county, Oregon.

The north one-half (1/2) of the James Whitford Donation Land Claim, notified on No. 7292, in sections one, twelve, and thirteen, township three (3) south, range (3) east of Willamette Meridian, in Clackamas county, Oregon, containing one hundred and fifty-three (153) acres more or less.

Beginning at a stake 15.86 chains south and 43 chains west from the northern corner of the John S. Gilman Donation Land claim; thence south 46 degrees, 45 minutes, east 40 chains to a stake; thence south 43 degrees, 30 minutes west 8 chains to a stake; thence north 46 degrees, 45 minutes west 40 chains to a stake on the north west boundary of said claim; thence north 43 degrees east 7.36 chains to the place of beginning, containing 30 acres, more or less, in Clackamas county, Oregon.

Beginning at the northwest corner of Isaac Gordon's land, or land formerly owned by him, thence along the line of said Gordon's tract in a southeasterly direction 70 rods; thence at right angles running westerly to the line of a tract of land formerly owned by L. D. Harding; thence northerly along the line of said Harding's tract of land 70 rods, more or less, to L. D. Harding's northwest corner; thence in an easterly direction to the northwest corner of a tract of land formerly owned by Lucy A. Burnett; thence southerly to the southeast corner of said tract formerly owned by said Lucy A. Burnett, 10 rods; thence easterly along the line of said Lucy A. Burnett tract of land to the place of beginning, containing 100 acres, the same being part of Philip Foster's D. L. C., in Clackamas county, Oregon.

Beginning at a point thirty (30) feet east of where the south line of section nine (9) township two south, range two (2) east of the Willamette Meridian, crosses the center of the Oregon and California railroad, running thence northerly, tracing the eastern boundary line of said railroad right of way to a point forty (40) rods north of said section nine (9); thence east parallel with said section line sixty-eight (68) rods to the west boundary of the county road; thence in an easterly direction tracing the west boundary of said county road fifty and one-half (50 1/2) rods to line of said section nine (9); thence west thirty-nine (39) rods tracing said section line to place of beginning, containing thirteen and three-eighths (13 3/8) acres, more or less, in Clackamas county, Oregon.

Also, lots two, three, four and six, block thirty six (36) in Oregon City, Oregon. And I will, SATURDAY, AUGUST 24, 1901, at the hour of 2 o'clock, P.M., at the front door of the County Court House in the City of Oregon City, in said County and State, sell at public auction, subject to redemption, to the highest bidder, for U. S. gold coin cash in hand, all the right, title and interest which the within named defendants or surety or either of them have in or to the above described real property or any part thereof, to satisfy said execution, judgment order, decree, interest, costs and all accruing costs.

J. J. COOKE, Sheriff of Clackamas County, Oregon. Dated, Oregon City, Ore., July 12, 1901.

Annual Int-tute.

Arrangements are being made to hold the annual Teachers' Institute for Clackamas County during the first week in September. J. C. ZINER, Supt. of Schools.

Clackamas County School Funds.

To answer numerous inquiries of school officers, as to the probable amount of school funds available for the current year, I will state that according to a recent report of the state treasurer the state fund will amount to $1.22 per capita, or $9225.04, which is about $2000 less than last year. This together with the lower county valuation for 1900 will result in a shrinkage of school money of about $2500.

J. C. ZINER, Supt. of Schools.

FRANCHISE DENIED.

Council Refuses Further Privileges to the P. C. & O.

MUCH BUSINESS TRANSACTED.

Railway Company Had Freight Ordinance Prepared But It Was Not Introduced.

The council met Tuesday evening with a full attendance. Saloon licenses were granted to Kelly & Nobilit and Edward Byrnes.

The recorder was instructed that it is the sense of the council that water mains be put in on all streets running north and south, so that any person desiring to make connections with the main could do so.

A remonstrance against the further improvement of Center street from Fifth to Seventh was granted.

The treasurer's report was referred to the finance committee.

The chief of police was instructed to notify property owners that sewer assessments must be paid within two weeks or their property would be sold in accordance with the provisions of the charter.

The recorder's report was read and filed.

The street committee was instructed to proceed to collect the poll tax at once.

An ordinance providing for the lighting of Oregon City and authorizing execution of an agreement with the Portland General Electric Company therefor, was read first time and ordered printed.

An ordinance was introduced and read first time and ordered printed authorizing the sale and conveyance of lot one in block 22 and a portion of lot eight in block 22 for a consideration of $51.00 to the Catholics. The same ordinance authorizes the sale and conveyance of the property formerly occupied by the old cement mill to the Portland General Electric Company for $241.86.

Chris Bluhm was elected city sexton of the cemetery.

The street committee was authorized to purchase 25,000 feet of lumber, of which 15,000 feet is to be used on the Apperson road and 10,000 feet for the Broughton bridge between 14th and 15 streets.

The street committee was empowered to extend the sewer outlet. Property owners complain that there is an offensive odor emanating from the outlet.

The committee on streets and public property was instructed to compel John H. Walker to take up 200 feet of tiled drain pipe and replace the same with proper material.

A motion to allow the merchants association the use of the city hall for meetings was lost.

The street committee was instructed to remove obstructions on Jackson street between Fifth and Sixth, and build a bridge across Jackson street.

The committee on fire and water was instructed to request the water commission to place hydrants at the corner of Eleventh and Jackson streets; also at the corner of Seventh and Adams street.

The fire and water committee was authorized to purchase five hydrants.

Chief of Police Burns was instructed to notify all property owners to connect their respective premises with sewers within four weeks.

The matter of granting a new franchise to the Portland City and Oregon Railway Company came before the council. Attorney Minor was present and addressed the council, asking that a new freight franchise be granted. The finance committee reported the payment of $1103.34 by the company being the balance due on the Main street improvement. The company heretofore claimed that there was only about $600 due the city, but the balance is now paid, they accepting the figures computed by the municipal authorities. The payment of this balance gives the trolley company the privilege of running an express car on Main street for six years longer, the 10-year franchise being conditioned on the payment in full of the Main-street improvement assessment.

Councilman C. G. Huntley introduced the following resolution which was unanimously carried: "Resolved that it is the sentiment of the council that ordinance No. 201, under which the Portland City & Oregon Railway Company is now operating an express car, is in the judgment of this council fair and equitable, and that a new ordinance granting greater privileges will not be considered."

The following bills were ordered paid: Bruce C. Curry $25.00 Chas. F. Burns 60.00 E. L. Shaw 60.00 C. Hartman 10.00 Frank Busch, nails, 7.00 Portland General Electric Co., 131.25 G. A.
