THE LOCAL NEWS.

MAID OF HONOR.—Oregon City has been honored by the appointment of Miss Blanche Bain as maid of honor to the Queen of the Astoria regatta, which commences Thursday, Aug. 29th, and continues three days.

FISH WERE PLentiful.—Attorney L. Stipp and Judge Martin L. Pipes and son Wade, of Portland, returned Saturday from an eight days' fishing trip on Roaring River, 15 miles from the Upper Hatchery. They report fine sport, having caught over 200 Rainbow trout.

OWNS 8000 SHEEP.—George Vanderwalker, an Arizona sheepman, was in town Saturday visiting his cousin, Mayor Dimick. He was raised on the Vanderwalker donation land claim two miles east of Hubbard and left Oregon when he was 14 years of age. Thirty-five years have passed since then, and he returns to see his sister, who lives in the Palouse country and who will return with him. Mr. Vanderwalker owns 8,000 sheep and controls the irrigation of a country 20 miles long and 15 miles wide.

ATTACHED THE CROP.—Attorney Schuebel returned Saturday from Turner, where he attached 250 bushels of wheat and 300 bushels of oats belonging to Jacob Baurer, who, with Fred Baurer, gave a note for $85 in 1892 to Charles Moran. Since that time only $16 has been paid and the interest brings the total up to $146. The note will outlaw October 4, 1901, and unless it is paid the crop will be sold.

WHERE IS GEORGE JOHNSON?—Arthur Wilson, Swedish vice-consul in Portland, is making inquiries as to the whereabouts of George Johnson, who lived in Oregon City about 10 years ago. He was then between 60 and 70 years of age and had lost one eye. As nothing has been heard from him for about 10 years his relatives are getting anxious about him. Vice-Consul Wilson would be pleased to hear of any information concerning the man.

PEARS $50 PER BOX.—Peter Allison, better known as Judge, was in the city Saturday. He has just returned from Dawson, where he has been in business for 13 months past, and is on his way to his Grants Pass fruit farm to pack pears, which are worth $50 a box in Dawson. He will return there in the spring and take 100 boxes with him. Mr. Allison resided in Oregon City about six years ago.

COMING FAIRS.—This is the period of the year when fairs are held and the disciple of agriculture and the apostle of horseflesh rejoice in the opportunity to display their fine products. Among the fairs scheduled are the State Fair, at Salem, Sept. 23—28; Spokane, Wash., Interstate Fair, Sept. 10—21; Portland Carol-val, Sept. 18—Oct. 19; LaGrande, Oct. 1—5; The Dalles, District Fair, Oct. 1—5, and the Washington State Fair at North Yakima, Sept. 30—Oct. 5.

SCHOOL BEGINS SEPTEMBER 16.—The public schools of Oregon City open Monday, Sept. 16 and an increased attendance is expected. Miss Gertrude Nefzger has been transferred from the fourth grade in the Eastham school to the first grade in the Barclay school, made vacant by the resignation of Miss Harriet Bray. Miss Erma Lawrence goes from the third to the fourth grade in the Eastham school and Miss Eva Meldrum, who was recently appointed, takes the Eastham third grade.

$25 REWARD.—Sheriff Cooke has offered a reward of $25 for the arrest and identification of the men who robbed C. Wang & Co's. store at Canby on August 13. By means of a pass key the thief entered the store and carried away shoes and gloves to the value of $30.00. A portion of the stolen goods was sold at Hubbard and the authorities think they have the man spotted. Descriptions of the suspects have been sent to officers all over the state, and the arrest of the thieves will probably follow within a few days.

CHAMPION WALKERS.—J. W. Loder and Bert Nash returned at 1:30 Sunday morning from an eight day's trip in the Nebalem country. From here they went to Astoria and walked to Jewell, taking a boat and going down the Nebalem river to its mouth. The trip was an exciting one and their boat turned somersaults, shot rapids and did other things which will not be printed as the public would not believe the story. Mr. Loder found a bottle of champagne on the river bank and christened his boat—with the bottle. From Nebalem they walked up the beach to Seaside, where they took the train for home.

U. OF O. OPENS SEPT. 15.—The 1901-1902 catalogue of the University of Oregon has been received and is a very comprehensive work, comprising 186 printed pages. Clackamas county has always supplied a full quota of students for the university which is increasing in standing and popularity under the management of President Strong. The students registered from Oregon City and Clackamas County are Waldo J. Adams, Wm. C. Adams, Wm. H. Barber, Wm. P. Book, Wm. Hammond, Mary F. Huerth, Roy Wentworth Kelly, Mortimer Dillon La-tourrette, Lewis A. Montandon, Rea Norris, Arthur D. Paddock, Julius O. Peterson, Wm. Besley Scott and David Henry Wolfe. A. Stark is registered in the school of medicine.

FELL FORTY FEET.—Howard W. Scott, a lineman employed by the Portland General Electric Company, fell from a pole on the West side of the river Friday morning and was severely injured. A party of linemen were stringing wires from the electric station to Morey's ranch and Scott was working at the top of a pole when he lost his balance and fell 40 feet, striking on his right foot and crushing the bones of the foot quite badly. He also sustained a gash over the eye and his back was strained. Scott was taken to the Electric hotel, where his wounds were dressed by County Physician Stuart. He was sent to a hospital in Portland Saturday morning. He has worked for the General Electric Company three years and his home is in Portland.

OPEN AIR CONCERT.—The open air concert and picnic given Tuesday evening by the Milwaukie Brass Band at Electric Park, Milwaukie, was a decided success socially as well as financially. The entertainment was given for the benefit of securing new uniforms for the band, and while no admission was charged, a good sum was raised by selling refreshments at a small sum. It is estimated that fully 500 persons attended the concert, and not one left but that was highly satisfied. The band, while only organized four months ago, has made excellent progress, and the director, John Coomer, certainly deserves credit for bringing the band to the front in so short a time. The band is composed of 23 pieces, and within a short time will be able to rank with the leading bands of the state. The members of the band wish to express their thanks to all those who volunteered their services Tuesday evening to make the entertainment a success.

LAND PATENTS.—Patents were received at the land office today for the following settlers: William Langworthy, William B. Wing, George W. Tamsies, John A. McRae, William G. Keleo, Francis H. Bower, James P. Tamsies, John A. Weaver, Charles C. Parker, Malcolm McAlpin, William W. Howell, R. Effie Creet, Otto C. Clelen, William A. Lamb, Francis Collins, Fred John Wind, Percy A. Young, Kasper Krapp, Frank Steingrandt, Jacob Menner, Zachariah T. Pack, John McClun, Eden Amos, Frank H. Howell, Adah Morris, Henry R. Slavens, Cornelius J. Hagerty, John C. Logan, Mary Glaser, Walter W. Webster, William J. Keeney, Addie J. McBride, Joshua W. Tolford, Jacob Wick, Robert Hayes' heirs, Matthew P. Hayes, Edwin H. Gates, Matthew E. Hayes, William C. Jones, Bridget Flynn, Clayton T. Blackman, Walter B. Buell, Ida M. Bu-ell, William E. Bush, Moses McD. Bullock, Albert H. Nunn, Herbert Nunn, Henry S. Lawrence, Henryet Slavens, William A. Calkins, Andrew J. Nicholls, Orin E. Brooke.

DISSENTING OPINIONS.—Register C. B. Moores and Receiver Galloway, of the United States Land Office, have filed conflicting opinions in two contest cases. The first case is Viva Vlascher vs. Mis-souri A. T. Van Buskirk, involving cash entry No. 6718, for the S 1/2 of the N E 1/4 and lots 1 and 2 in section 4, township 8 south, R 3 east. The Register recommends the cancellation of the entry, while the Receiver recommends that the contest be dismissed, and the proof of the entryman be approved. In the case of Francis De Witte vs. David C. Hatch, the facts are practically the same as in the first case, and Register Moores recom-mends that the contest be dismissed but that the proof of the entryman be rejected and that the contestee be called upon to make new proof. The Receiver decided in favor of the entryman. The claim of Hatch is alongside that of Van Buskirk. Both cases will probably be appealed to the General Land Office. Robert A. Miller and J. R. Stoddard are the attorneys for the contestee and T. F. Cowing for the contestants in each case.

CHAS. C. WILLIAMS

A Sketch of a Well Known and Much Respected Citizen.

CAME TO THIS COUNTY IN 1876

Was Married in New York to Chestina C. Baker, and Three Children Survive Him.

Charles C. Williams, one of the reput-able representative citizens of Clacka-mas county, Oregon, residing near Oregon City, is a native of Enosburg, Franklin county, Vermont, born November 30, 1830. He is of old English Puritan an-cestry; the family of his name which landed on Plymouth Rock that bleak winter of 1620 were ancestors of our sub-ject. From there the Williams family scattered in time all over New England, and became influential and prominent in every state. The grandfather was David Williams, and became a soldier in the Revolutionary war, and our subject now has in his possession the powder-horn of the old patriot, which, with his flint-lock musket, went with him all through that long struggle for independence. David Williams died in Enosburg, Franklin county, Vermont, in his ninety-ninth year.

The son of the Revolutionary hero was Isiah Williams; he was born in Ipswich, New Hampshire. He married Miss Mar-tha Tenny, a native of Boston, and re-moved to Vermont, and later to Massa-chusetts, where he died when the subject of this sketch was only six years of age, and the mother died that same year, both in their forty-eighth year. They had a family of ten children; one of these was killed by an accident, at the age of ten years; two of the daughters married ministers; one of the brothers is now a leading minister in the Congregational denomination in Chicago, and another is a prominent lawyer in New York City. Another of this family bravely started out for himself when he was but a lad, and recently died in Buffalo, a rich man, being estimated to have been worth $10,000,000.

Our subject was the youngest child in the family, and was reared near New York from his eleventh year. He was educated in an academy at Aurora, and at Buffalo, Erie county, and has since that time principally devoted himself to farming. The marriage of our subject took place in 1855, to Miss Chestina C. Barker, a native of Evans, Erie county, New York, born in 1836. After their marriage they resided in New York for fourteen years, and there were born to them the following children, namely: Ella E., Thornton L., Wallis W. and Charles T. The last died in his fourth year.

In 1875 the family came to Oregon, and remained in Portland for one year, and then came to Clackamas county, purchasing a farm one mile south of Ore-gon City, and on this property they have ever since resided; improving and prosper-ing. In 1878 our subject erected a good residence in a very desirable local-ity, as from it there is a fine view of the country and the surrounding mountains, especially of grand old Mount Hood. Mr. Williams has dealt some in real estate, and the property which he first bought has so increased in value that he has found it a most profitable investment. Oregon City is fast growing out in that direction. Mr. Williams became a voter when the great question of the extension of slavery into the new Territory was under discussion, and his first vote was cast for Abraham Lincoln and ever since that time he has been a strong adherent of the principles held by the republican party. He is a member of the Masonic fraternity, and was a charter member of

A Minister's Mistake.

A city minister was recently handed a notice to be read from his pulpit. Accompanying it was a clipping from a news-paper bearing upon the matter. The clergyman started to read the extract and found that it began "Take Kemp's Balsam, the best Cough Cure." This was hardly what he had expected and, after a moment's hesitation, he turned it over, and found on the other side the matter intended for the reading.

Mrs. S. H. Allport, Johnstown, Pa., says: "Our little girl almost strangled to death with croup. The doctors said she couldn't live but she was instantly re-lieved by One Minute Cough Cure." Geo. Harding.

In cases of cough or croup give the lit-tle one One Minute Cough Cure. Then rest easy and have no fear. The child will be all right in a little while. It never fails. Pleasant to take, always safe, sure and almost instantaneous in effect. Geo. Harding.
