DIES OF HEART FAILURE A. J. Sawtell Dies Suddenly at his Home Near Molalla Tuesday Morning at 1 o'clock. The community of Molalla and Clackamas county in general lament the death of one of its most prominent pioneers, on Thursday morning at one o'clock, in the person of A. J. Sawtell. Mr. Sawtell was one of the early pioneers of the Pacific Coast, immigrating to Oregon in 1859 and locating on his 310 acre farm near Molalla where he has since resided and prospered. He was born in England, October 22nd, 1839, and came to America in 1858, residing in Canada until his departure for Oregon the following year. In 1860 Mr. Sawtell engaged in the teasel raising industry and until recently he was the only grower of teasel west of the Rocky mountains. He was married March 23, 1869, to Miss Eliza Dibble, daughter of Horace Dibble, also a pioneer of 1852. His wife and only daughter, Iva May, survive him. Mr. Sawtell was a man of sterling qualities, thorough integrity and excellent business qualifications and by them has made for himself an exemplary reputation. Fire at Crown and W. P. & P. Co., Mills At 2:30 p. m., Thursday, fire was discovered from unknown causes in the store house of the Crown Paper Mills. The water was promptly turned upon it and when just about extinguished the hose conveying the water broke near a joint and before it could be repaired the flames, with the aid of a strong breeze, spread over the entire building and also across the canal into the store house and ware room of the Willamette Pulp and Paper Company, completely destroying both buildings and the contents. Large quantities of alum, sulphur, lime, pulp and machinery were stored in each building, and all was entirely destroyed, the loss aggregating $15,000 or $20,000, both largely covered with insurance. The entire plants of both companies were in danger of being completely destroyed, and it is somewhat singular that under the circumstances greater damage was not done. The origin of the fire is unknown and was probably due to spontaneous combustion as the fire was not observed until it broke out through the roof of the building in flames. All the regular services will be resumed at the Congregational church next Sunday. The Holy Communion will be observed during the morning service. At 8 o'clock, p. m., the pastor will speak on "Why do People go to Church?"

Social Happenings. FAREWELL PARTY. Mrs. Nelson Lawrence was agreeably surprised Tuesday evening upon returning home about nine o'clock to find her home filled with a merry party of young people, who had gathered in answer to invitations given by Miss Harding and Miss Pratt to attend a farewell party in honor of Mrs. Lawrence, who leaves soon for San Francisco where she expects to reside in the future. Progressive games were enjoyed and refreshments served. To Miss Hazel Pillsbury and Mr. Leighton Kelly were awarded the first prizes, and Miss Mattie Draper, and J. Goodfellow, the consolation. Below is given a list of guests present: Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Lewthwaite Mrs. D. D. Shindler, Mrs. M. E. Barlow, Miss Walden, Miss Lewthwaite Miss Pillsbury, Miss Pratt, Miss Fouts, Miss Harding, Miss Conyers, Miss Alice Lewthwaite, Miss Hattie Mary Pratt, Misses Sade and Ina Chase. Messrs. J. B. Lewthwaite, Forbes Pratt, H. Leighton Kelly, Bea Norris, James Church, L. Adams, E. L. Hoopengartner, Nello Johnson, Joseph Goodfellow. MARTIN-MCCRAY. Married, August 9th, at Howard Street church, San Francisco, by the Rev. John A. B. Wilson, Miss Lulu B. McCray, of Carry, Pa. and Homer Martin, of Oregon City. Mr. and Mrs. Martin will reside at Mayfield, Calif., and attend Stanford University. Mr. Martin is the son of D. B. Martin, of this city, and has been a student at Stanford for some time. SURPRISE PARTY. Thirty members of Meade Post No. 2 gave Comrade C. A. Williams a surprise party at his home in Gladstone, Wednesday evening. Mr. Williams was presented with a handsome badge inscribed with "C. A. Williams, Past Commander, presented by Meade Post No. 2, G. A. R., August 28, 1901." The presentation speech was made by Mr. F. H. Beach, who in turn was presented with a gold mounted cane by the Woman's Relief Corps. The surprise was successful in every respect and the evening most enjoyably spent by all present. RENOVATING THE P. O. STORE. The dusty walls of the front part of the postoffice are undergoing several coats of alabastine under the direction of C. W. Love, the new proprietor of the postoffice cigar and confectionery store.

In the Circuit Court. Aug. 23, 1901.—Hattie Clark filed papers for divorce from George Clarke on grounds of desertion. The complaint alleges that the parties were married at Denver, Colorado, in Sept. 1886 and that defendant has deserted plaintiff since July, 1900. Plaintiff asks to be allowed a decree of divorce and assume her maiden name, Hattie McQuaid. Isabelle Miller prays for decree allowing her to assume her maiden name, Isabelle Edgar, and custody of her minor child, Ralph L. Miller, and granting her a divorce against Robert Miller on ground of desertion. The complaint shows that the parties were married at Vancouver, Wash., Dec. 1, 1897, and that defendant deserted plaintiff Sept. 15, 1898. Macmahon, of Portland, is attorney for plaintiff. Florence M. Miller has filed divorce proceedings against William S. Miller, and alleges that the parties were married at Topeka, Kansas, March 20, 1898, that in December, 1900, and till June, 1901, plaintiff was sick, brought on by overwork, and indolence and shiftlessness of defendant, and that on April 30, 1901, defendant abandoned plaintiff, and his conduct and acts have rendered the life of plaintiff burdensome and unbearable. Plaintiff prays for the dissolution of the bonds of matrimony. Geo. C. Brownell appears as attorney for plaintiff. Marriage License. August 27, Halsey J. Phelps to Mary T. Vorpahl. August 26, Howard Eccles to Jennie White. A Noteworthy Combination. The consolidation of The Chicago Record and The Chicago Times-Herald was one of the most important events in the history of modern metropolitan journalism. People familiar with the newspapers published in the great capitals of the world say that the best daily papers are made in Chicago, and it is well known that The Chicago Record and The Chicago Times-Herald ranked at the very front among Chicago's best dailies. Each covered the world's news thoroughly every day, and each possessed also distinctive special features giving it that individuality so attractive to its readers. Now that the two have been combined, all the resources and worldwide facilities of both papers are united in The Chicago Record-Herald. It is in truth "a great combination"—a combination without parallel in American journalism. The fortunate readers of The Chicago Record and The Chicago Times-Herald now receive every day a newspaper whose news facilities are unequalled by any other American newspaper.
