THE LOCAL NEWS.

FUNERAL LAST SUNDAY.—The funeral of the late A. J. Sawtell was held last Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock at St. Malachi. The body was embalmed Tuesday by H. L. Holman, to await the arrival of a daughter of the deceased from Southern Oregon.

CARENA HOFFMEYER.—Carena has the appearance of a deserted village. Over half of its population are in the hospital. Among those absent are the families of Robert Blanchard, F. M. Long, Leo Shannon, S. E. Miller, and Mrs. Joseph Painter, Mrs. George Freeman, Mrs. Douthett and family, William Marshall, William Strange, Mrs. Wayne Howard, Ivan Ownbey and Beldon Young.

CHILDERA INFANTUM CAUSE DEATH.—Charles Belmont Haines, the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Charles N. Haines, of Oswego, died suddenly last Sunday morning of cholera infantum. The little fellow was ill only a few days. His age was four months and 11 days. The funeral was held Monday afternoon from the family residence at Oswego, the services being conducted by Rev. E. S. Clair, pastor of the M. E. church, and the interment was in the Oswego cemetery.

WANTED 30 LODGES.—County Judge Ryan returned Monday morning from a fortnight's trip on the southern Oregon coast in the interest of the I. O. O. F. of which he is Grand Patriarch. Leaving Oregon City August 18th he went to Eugene and by stage from there to Mapleton, then down the coast to Seaside, taking in Florence, Gardiner, Astoria, Marshfield, Coquille City, Bandon and Myrtle Point, returning to the interior by way of Roseburg. Judge Ryan is very well satisfied with the condition of the order. Everywhere it is flourishing and good gains have been made in the re-organization branch.

ROCKY OVER.—P. E. Polk, who was arrested some time ago on a charge of robbing a nickel in-the-slot machine in the Bon Ton saloon on August 17th, waived examination in the justice court Tuesday and was bound over to appear before the grand jury at the November term of the circuit court. His bonds were fixed at $600, which he was unable to furnish so he went to jail. He expects to secure bondsmen in a short time but the authorities doubt if that is possible. Polk has been a county charge since last winter, when he fell through a bridge while intoxicated. When suspicion fell on him he tried to throw the guilt on the shoulders of James Gwinnup, who was arrested and speedily acquitted.

Mrs. CONDON DEAD.—Mrs. C. J. Condon, wife of Prof. Thom. Condon, the well-known geologist for many years connected with the State University at Eugene, died Monday at Newport, aged 69 years, after a week's illness with typhoid fever. She came around the Horn to Oregon with her husband in 1852, and with him bore a part in the making of the state's history. They located at The Dalles and then for a number of years taught on the Warm Springs reservation. In 1876, at the founding of the State University, Dr. Condon accepted the chair of geology, and they have since resided in Eugene. Her husband and five children survive her. The latter are: Mrs. H. A. McCornack, of Eugene; Mrs. R. S. Bean, of Salem; Mrs. Nell, of Pendleton; Hon. S. W. Condon, of Oakland, Cal.; and H. T. Condon, of Moscow, Idaho.

NEW GENERAL SECRETARY.—W. Gilbert Beattie, general secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association, has resigned to accept the superintendency of the Fort Wragel schools, and leaves for Alaska next Tuesday evening. His salary will be $80 per month. Mr. Beattie is a graduate of the 1901 class of the University of Oregon and was elected secretary of the local association about a month ago. The work he has done since then is not generally known, but the results show the association to be out of debt for the first time in several years. He will be succeeded by Seth Leavins, at present general secretary of the Marshfield association. He graduated from Portland University in 1893 and worked with the Portland association. Nine months ago he went to Marshfield upon the solicitation of several business men, and, with a new field to work on, built up an association of about 70 members.
