He mind to kill that ruler. I bought a leaves a wife and one daughter, Mrs. M. J. Rolton; five grandchildren, Mrs. E. E. Taylor, Mes. W. D. Martin, E. S. ag my piatol under my handkerchief. Hatch, H. A. Bolton and May Bolton; three grandchildren, Elmer Taylor, George and Ray Martin.

Captain Miller is a pioneer of 1850 and is one of the best known river steamboat men in the Northwest. He was a river pilot for 30 years and retired about eight years ago. He was known as the father of Willamette river steamboatthen I shot him twice through my ing and most of the older captains owe handkerchief. I would have fired their knowledge of the river to Captain Miller, who knew the Willamette like a book. For some years after his retirement pilots would secure his services to take their steamers around Rock Island. He was one of the first men to bring down a steamer over the rapids in the Snake River.

The funeral will take place at 2 p. m.
