

Personal Mention

Will Morse is ill and is confined to his room. Mr. Floyd Warren was in town last Sunday. Mrs. Nellie F. Glass returned Sunday from Seattle. W. M. Wallace was in town Saturday from Mullino. W. J. Miley, of Wilsonville, was in the city Saturday. G. W. [unclear], was in town from Monmouth Monday. James M. Tracy was in the city from Logan Saturday. Dr. Leavitt, of Molalla, was in the city Wednesday. Mrs. Sam Galbreath, of Tualatin, was in the city Saturday. Judge Calk, of Multnomah county, was in the city Tuesday. Will Koerner left for Portland Monday to attend Portland Academy. Miss Nora Conyers, of Clatskanie, was in the city the first of the week. Clyde Ainsworth, of Monitor, was in the city on business Wednesday. L. P. Howard, a leading hopraiser of Canby, was in the city Monday. Mrs. Gregerson and family returned Sunday evening from Monterey, Cal. Prof. H. T. Evans, principal of the Oswego school, was in town Monday. George Campbell has gone to Eugene to resume his studies at the university. Charles Humphrys, of the Postal Telegraph Company, was up from Portland Sunday. H. H. Eymann, correspondent of The Enterprise at Sherwood, was in the city Saturday. County Assessor Charles E. McDonnell, of Multnomah county, was up from Portland Saturday. Fred and Charles Warner left Monday for Eugene to resume their studies at the University of Oregon. Miss Jennie and Laura Beatie left for Pendleton Saturday to resume their positions in the public schools. Milton Trullinger, a blacksmith from Molalla, passed through Oregon City Monday, enroute to Portland. Mrs. John P. Beal and son Malcolm were up from Portland this week and visited Mrs. Beal's aunt, Mrs. R. D. Wilson. Miss Addie Clark, principal of the Barclay school, returned Saturday from her summer's vacation on the old homestead in Polk county. E. L. Hoopengartner, for nearly two years Southern Pacific agent at this point and for 11 years in the company's service, left Monday evening for Pendleton, where he will enter the O. R. & N. office as revising clerk. J. W. Graale, a prominent citizen of Milwaukie and a fruit grower of that section, was in town Saturday on business connected with the sale of delinquent property. Miss Katherine McMillan, of Wilhoit, has been engaged to teach an eight months' term of school at Maple Lane, commencing Sept. 30. Miss Florence Patty, one of Oregon City's teachers, and Miss Ipha Robbins, of Molalla, stopped in Silverton over Sunday.—Silverton Appeal. Mr and Mrs Geo. Lazelle, Miss Lorena Lazelle, Marshall Lazelle and Miss Alvina Horn leave Monday for Salem to spend a week at the State Fair. J. A. Renshaw, who is traveling over the county in the interest of the Boys and Girls Aid Society, of Portland, was in the city Saturday en route to Logan. Mrs. Young, mother of J. S. Young, and her youngest son, Cass Young, have moved from Oregon City to Silverton, and now occupy the Davenport building on Water street.—Silverton Appeal. H. S. Ramsley, of Molalla, was in the city Monday with a load of wheat. He reports a good yield and a fine quality of grain. The farmers about Molalla have about finished threshing. Attorney C. Schuebel, Abstractor Clark and A. W. Cheney returned Monday from a two weeks' outing in the mountains. They had an enjoyable trip and shot several deer, besides catching thousands of trout. James H. Carrico, who graduated from the State University two years ago, and has been attending the medical department of the university in Portland since then, was in town Saturday visiting his brother, and went to Eugene the first of the week. He expects to leave next week for Chicago to complete his course in medicine. U. S. Fish Commissioner J. N. Wisner was in the city yesterday and returned to Portland last night. He was here to accept the tender boat that Joe Leathers has just finished for his use on the Columbia. Mr. Wisner is field superintendent on the Columbia under the United States fish commission of Washington city. He needs the boat in getting around from the White Salmon hatchery to Eagle creek hatchery on the Oregon side, and to the other United States hatcheries on the Columbia under his jurisdiction. Mr. Wisner was appointed superintendent last year.—Astoria News (Sept. 14).

A. M. Vinyard, of Canby, was a caller at the Enterprise office Wednesday. B. C. Strickland, of Grass Valley, was visiting friends in the city this week. Mrs. W. H. Conyers, of Clatskanie, was the guest of her daughter Tuesday. A. J. Ringo, a prominent citizen of Clarks, was in Oregon City Wednesday. Col. R. A. Miller made a business trip to Vancouver, Wash., on Wednesday. Andrew Kocher, the Canby farm implement man, was in the city Wednesday. Miss Millie Kruse, of Oregon City, has been engaged to teach the Jones Mill school. Miss Anna Grace Samuels, of Portland was visiting friends in this city Sunday. C. D. Latourette left Tuesday night for Michigan to see his brother, who is seriously ill. Attorney Mary F. Leonard, of Portland, was transacting business at the court house Tuesday. Chester A. Whitmore, of Portland, president of the Irwin-Hodson Company, was in the city Tuesday. Dr. and Mrs. Tizer and the Misses Dreyfus, of New York City, were visiting in Oregon City Sunday. Miss Martha Koerner left Thursday for Corvallis and will attend the Agricultural College this winter. L. I. Vierck arrived Monday evening from Albany and has taken a position in the Willamette Paper Mills. William Hammond left for Eugene Wednesday morning to resume his studies at the State University. Miss Besie Kelly went to Eugene Wednesday, where she will enter the freshman year of the university. Ex-Representative Knight, of Canby, was in the city yesterday and attended the McKinley memorial service. Miss Sybil Lippett left Monday for Portland, where she will reside the coming winter and attend the academy. Lawrence Selling was in town from Portland Tuesday visiting his brother, S. Selling, and left Wednesday for Yale. Ex-Commissioner Frank Jagger, of Carus, was in town Tuesday, with a load of wool for the Oregon City Manufacturing Co. Hon. C. B. Moore went to Corvallis Wednesday, accompanied by his son, Merrill, who will enter the Oregon Agricultural College. Louis Hartwig, of the Portland General Electric Co., came from Portland Monday and is renewing the wiring at the Crown Paper Mills. William Neffger, who has been spending the summer on the Coquille, has returned to this city and taken a position in the Willamette paper mills. E. C. Greenman left for Portland Tuesday morning to take charge of the salmon hatchery exhibit at the Portland Carnival under the direction of Supt. E. N. Carter. Rev. Dunlap, pastor of the Canby Methodist church and Rev. Exon, pastor of the Viola church, passed through Oregon City Wednesday morning, en route for Portland.

Local Events

New veilings. Miss Goldsmith. School Books at Charman & Co. Gun repairing. Johnson & Lamb. Albright & Logus have piano tickets. Charman & Co. Exchange School Books. Bicycle sundries of all kinds. Johnson & Lamb. Baby caps. Something new. Miss Goldsmith. The postoffice was closed yesterday after 10 a. m. New wheels to rent. Prices right. Johnson & Lamb. Keys fitted while you wait. Johnson & Lamb. Main street. Buy your School Books at Charman & Co., the Cut Price Druggists. Sewing machines and light machinery repaired. Johnson & Lamb. The store of I. Selling will be closed next Monday, September 23. Pencils, Tablets and Rulers, with School Books, at Charman & Co. Born, Thursday morning, Sept. 19, to the wife of R. L. Holman, a son. Wanted, to exchange town property for a farm. Enquire at this office. Memorial services will be held Sunday evening at the Presbyterian church. Subscribers desiring to pay their subscription in wood should do so now. $20 to $100 to loan on chattel or personal security. Dimick & Eastham, agts. Try the Osteopaths for that rheumatism. They can cure you when others fail. The place to get it fixed. What? Your wheel. Johnson & Lamb. Main street. Buy your meat at Albright & Logus' meat market and secure votes for the $450 piano. The finest line of ready to wear hats ever shown in Oregon City at Miss Goldsmith's. Grand millinery opening on Tuesday, Wednesday, Sept. 24 and 25, and following days at Miss Goldsmith's. Bring your old school books to Moore's Pharmacy, Oregon City. Will exchange any school supplies for them. The United States Land office was closed yesterday out of respect to the memory of President McKinley. Do you want to see your lodge win the $450 piano? Albright & Logus issue one vote with every 25 cent purchase. Imported hats will be on exhibition Tuesday and Wednesday, Sept. 24 and 25 and following days at Miss Goldsmith's. Business houses were closed yesterday from noon until 4 p. m., to permit merchants and employes to attend the memorial services. As my wife, A. A. Lofstedt, has left my bed and board, I will not be responsible for any debts contracted by her. Molalla, Sept. 4, 1901. A. W. Lofstedt. Miss Cornelia McCown was taken to Portland Monday and underwent an operation Tuesday at the Good Samaritan hospital. She is critically ill and her chances for recovery are doubtful. The Board of County Commissioners adjourned their session Saturday after passing on a number of tax questions, such as double assessments, rebate of taxes, etc. The next meeting of the Board will be held October 2. Fall suitings are coming in and the man who wants an up-to-date suit in color, cloth and style should go to J. Knowland, the leading tailor, located Seventh street, near depot. Samples cheerfully shown. Prices reasonable. Christian Science services are held in Willamette hall every Sunday morning at eleven o'clock. Subject for Sunday, Sept. 22, "Reality." Sunday School at twelve o'clock. Wednesday evening meeting at eight o'clock. To these services all are welcome. Portland-Oregon City boat Str. Leona leaves foot of Eighth St. at 7 and 11 a. m. and 3:00 p. m. Leaves Portland at 9:00 a. m. and 1:00 and 5:00 p. m. Take the Leona if you want a good comfortable ride. The run is made either way in one hour and fifteen minutes. Round trip 25 cents. The theme for Sunday morning at the Congregational church, will be the "Christian in the World." The pious life and the secular life in their relations will be discussed. In the evening at 8 o'clock the Baptist church will unite with the congregation in a memorial service. Rev. Beaven will give the leading address. Harry Jones has been awarded the contract for the construction of the Crown Paper Co's new warehouse. The structure will be 70x120 feet, with a large dock in front. Since the burning of the old warehouse workmen have been clearing the burned rubbish away, and as soon as this is accomplished, work on the new warehouse will commence. The building will be on the east side of the canal.

Special Prices on all School Supplies for School Districts. This Store is Headquarters for School Books AND School Supplies. It is the State Depository for Text Books where Old Books will be taken in Exchange for New, and New Books sold at Special Introductory Prices. School Books. Prices are about 10 per cent. less than last year and exchange prices (when old book is turned in) are about one half regular price. Rules for Exchange. Bring your old books with you. No allowance for old books except when purchasing. Old books taken for books of same grade only; that is an old small geography can be traded for a new small one not for a large one. Any school book regularly used in the county during the past 6 years is exchangeable if in usable condition. Schools Clerks. Should get our special prices on Ink, Chalk, Black Boards, Erasers, Slating, Maps, Globes and all School Supplies. We will save you money. SCHOOL SUPPLIES. We supply three-fourths of all the school supplies used in Clackamas County, and buying in such large quantities, we are able to deal direct with the manufacturer. This means a saving of about 25 per cent. for our customers. More than that it enables us to guarantee the quality. We cheerfully refund your money on any unsatisfactory purchase. School Bags, Book Straps, Writing Paper, School Companions, Drawing Sets, Pencil and Ink Eraser, Composition Book, Pencil Compass, Pens, Pencils, good, Slates, covered, Sponges, big, Ink, guaranteed, Slate Pencils, Pen Holders, Big Value Tablets. Notice the size and quality of paper in our 5c and 10c tablets, composition and note books. Huntley's Book Store, Oregon City.

Family of Boys and Girls Needing Homes. Five boys aged six, eight, nine, fifteen, and two girls about thirteen years. These children are of good parentage and have been trained to work. Also one boy babe and one girl fourteen years to be placed in homes. Address I. F. Tobey, Supt. Oregon Children's Home Society, 606 Marquam Building, Portland. W. H. Burghardt, Jr., of Salem, assisted in Huntley's book store Monday, that being the opening of the school year and the rush was so great that several extra clerks were employed. Sunday afternoon at 3:30 the Y. M. C. A. will hold its first religious meeting of the season in its parlor. All men are cordially invited to be present. Special music will be rendered. To the Ladies. You are cordially invited to the grand millinery display at Miss Goldsmith's, Tuesday, Wednesday, Sept. 24 and 25, and following days. A snap—80 acres, 4 1/2 miles from Oregon City, 30 in cultivation, buildings and orchard. Price, $15 per acre. C. O. T. WILLIAMS, Office, Barclay building.

FRANK BUSCH, The Housefurnisher. Demands on Your Pocket Book. You have plenty of need for your cash, and you ought to make it go as far as it will. We help you to get full value from what you have to spend. Never a dollar is placed with us but that you get full value in return. Ask for a rebate check for every purchase you make. Very Real. We have bright paper designed by some of the first artists, and the flowers and foliage look very real. These are most beautiful specimens of the paper decorator's art and skill, and we advise an early look at them. On the Rug. subject we are away ahead— ahead in variety and quality, and everything but price. The price is where you will be ahead. This rug show of ours is a regular art exhibition; won't you inspect it? Look at the Carpet. stock in this wonderful carpet store and you will not have any inclination to look elsewhere. You can do best in buying here—best in quality, coloring, in pattern, and price for instance. Highest grade Wilton Velvet per yard $1.25 down to 25c per yard Ingrain. We sell the Wheeler-Wilson drop head machine and give prices on application. We invite you to inspect our full stock of Cook Stoves, Ranges and Heaters.

