

FUNERAL HELD YESTERDAY

Burial of the Martyred President at Canton.

BODY LAY IN STATE AT CAPITOL

Story of the President's Death Graphically Told—The Stricken Wife Bears up Bravely.

BUFFALO, Sept. 14.—President McKinley died at 2:15 a. m. He had been unconscious most of the time since 7:30 p. m. His last conscious hour on earth was spent with the wife to whom he devoted a life time of care. He died unattended by a minister of the gospel, but his last words were a humble submission to the will of the God in whom he believed. He was reconciled to the cruel fate to which an assassin's bullet had condemned him and faced death in the same spirit of calmness which has marked his long and honorable career.

His last conscious words, reduced to writing by Dr. Mann, who stood at his bedside when they were uttered, were: "Good-bye all, good-bye. It is God's way. His will be done."

His relatives and members of his official family were at the Milburn house except Secretary Wilson, who did not avail himself of the opportunity, and some of his personal and political friends took leave of him. This painful ceremony was simple. His friends came to the door of the sick room, took a longing glance at him and turned tearfully away.

He was practically unconscious during this time. But powerful heart stimulants, including oxygen, were employed to restore him to consciousness for his final parting with his wife. He asked for her and she sat by his side and held his hand. He consoled her and said good-bye. She went through the heart-rending scene with the same bravery and fortitude with which she has borne the grief of the tragedy which has ended his life.

WHEN THE END CAME.

It was now 2:05 o'clock, and the minutes were slipping away. Only the sobs of those in the circle about the President's bedside broke the awe-like silence. Five minutes passed, then six, seven, eight—now Dr. Rixey bent forward, and then one of his hands was raised as if in warning. The fluttering heart was just going to rest. A moment more and Dr. Rixey straightened up and with a choking voice said:

"The President is dead."

Secretary Cortelyou was the first to turn from the stricken circle. He stepped from the chamber to the outer hall and then down the stairway to the large room where the members of the cabinet, senators and distinguished officials were assembled.

As his tense white face appeared at the doorway a hush fell upon the assemblage.

"Gentlemen, the President has passed away," he said.

For a moment not a word came in reply. Even though the end had been expected, the actual announcement that Mr. McKinley was dead fairly stunned these men who had been his closest confidants and advisers. Then a groan of anguish went up from the assembled officials. They cried like children. All the pent-up emotions of the last few days were let loose. They turned from the room and came from the house with streaming eyes.

Theodore Roosevelt took the oath of office at Buffalo Saturday.

Mrs. McKinley Saw Remains.

BUFFALO, Sept. 16.—Mrs. McKinley was admitted to the death chamber today and viewed the remains of the murdered President. Her grief was great, but she maintained her self control to a wonderful degree. The funeral party started for Washington today.

Result of the Autopsy.

BUFFALO, Sept. 14.—The following report of the autopsy upon the remains of President McKinley was issued at 5 o'clock and was signed by 14 physicians: "The bullet which struck over the breastbone did not pass through the skin and did little harm. The other bullet passed through both walls of the stomach near its lower border. Both holes were found to be perfectly closed by the stitches, but the tissues around each hole had become gangrenous. After passing through the stomach the bullet passed into the back walls of the abdomen, hitting and tearing the upper end of the kidney. This portion of the bullet's track was also gangrenous, the gangrene involving the pancreas. The bullet has not yet been found. There was no sign of peritonitis or disease of other organs. The heart walls were very thin. There was no evidence of any attempt at repair on the part of nature, and death resulted from the gangrene which affected the stomach around the bullet wounds, as well as the tissues around the further course of the bullet. Death was unavoidable by any surgical or medical treatment, and was the direct result of the bullet wound."

Removed From Buffalo.
BUFFALO, Sept. 16.—The remains of President McKinley were moved from Buffalo to Washington today and now lie in state in the east room of the white house.

OUTLINES HIS POLICY.

President Roosevelt Tells How He Will Conduct Public Affairs.

BUFFALO, Sept. 16.—President Roosevelt has outlined, in some detail, the policy he will follow during his incumbency of office. When he took the oath of office he stated with much definiteness:

"It shall be my aim to continue absolutely unbroken the policy of President McKinley for the peace (and he emphasized that word), prosperity and honor of the country."

The President yesterday gathered together some personal friends in Buffalo and those members of the Cabinet who were here, and gave to them such ideas as he had already formulated for the conduct of public affairs and his own policy. In no sense were they divulged from what has been understood as Mr. McKinley's policy. Among the features of this policy as outlined to the President's friends are:

A more liberal and extensive reciprocity in the purchase and sale of commodities, so that the overproduction of this country can be disposed of by fair and equitable arrangements with foreign countries.

The abolition entirely of commercial war with other countries and the adoption of reciprocity treaties.

The abolition of such tariffs on foreign goods as are no longer needed for revenue, if such abolition can be had without harm to our industries and labor.

The establishment of direct commercial lines between the eastern coast of the United States and the ports in South America, and the Pacific coast ports of Mexico, Central America and South America.

The encouragement of the merchant marine and the building of ships which shall carry the American flag and be owned and controlled by Americans and American capital.

The building and completion as soon as possible of the Isthmian canal, so as to give direct water communication with the coasts of Central America, South America and Mexico.

The construction of a cable owned by the government, connecting our main land with our foreign possessions, notably Hawaii and the Philippines.

The use of conciliatory methods of arbitration in all disputes with foreign nations, so as to avoid armed strife.

The protection of the savings of the people in banks and in other forms of investments, by the preservation of the commercial prosperity of the country and the placing in positions of trust of men of only the highest integrity.

STATE FUNERAL.
Services Over the Late President in Rotunda of the Capitol.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 17.—The state funeral of President McKinley was held tonight, the body is speeding toward its last resting place at Canton.

The Interment at Canton.
CANTON, Sept. 19.—The funeral of President McKinley was held today and was attended by half a million people. The interment was in the family vault at Canton.

Asks Cabinet to Remain.
WASHINGTON, Sept. 17.—At a cabinet meeting held today President Roosevelt requested all the members of the cabinet to remain throughout the term. His request will probably be complied with.

Czolgosz Was Indicted.
BUFFALO, N. Y., Sept. 16.—Leon F. Czolgosz, alias Fred Nieman, was indicted today by the county court grand jury for murder in the first degree, for fatally shooting President McKinley in the Temple of Music in the Pan-American Exposition at 4:15 o'clock on the afternoon of September 6. When arraigned before Judge Edward K. Emery in the county court the prisoner stubbornly refused to answer questions repeatedly asked of him by District Attorney Penny as to whether he had counsel or wanted any. The district attorney then suggested that inasmuch as the defendant refused to answer, counsel should be assigned. Judge Emery assigned Lorain L. Lewis and Robert C. Titus, ex-supreme court justices of this city, whose names had been suggested by the Erie County Bar Association.

Czolgosz Will be Tried Monday.
BUFFALO, Sept. 17.—The assassin of President McKinley was arraigned this morning, but refused to plead. His trial was set for Monday.

Stood Death Oath.
E. B. Munday, of Henrietta, Texas, once fooled a grave-digger. He says: "My brother was very low with malarial fever and jaundice. I persuaded him to try Electric Bitters, and he was soon much better, but continued their use until he was wholly cured. I am sure Electric Bitters saved his life." This remedy expels malaria, kills disease germs and purifies the blood; aids digestion, regulates liver, kidneys and bowels, cures dyspepsia, nervous diseases, kidney troubles, female complaints; gives perfect health. Only 50c at Geo. A. Harding's drug store.

Entertaining Newspaper Features.

Probably no other newspaper in the United States can show so brilliant an array of special features as is found in the columns of The Chicago Record-Herald, which combines in one great newspaper all the entertaining departments of both the Chicago Record and The Chicago Times-Herald. The daily and Sunday news and special features of the Chicago Record-Herald include the Washington letters of William E. Curtis and Walter Wellman, The Record-Herald's special New York dispatches, its unequalled foreign news service, embracing its own special cables with those of The New York Herald, The New York Tribune and The Associated Press; its pages devoted to the markets and financial and commercial intelligence—extensive to the most satisfactory degree, its popular sporting page, its extended editorial department, "Queer Sprigs of Gentility," "Kiser's humorous Alternating Currents," "Stories of the Day," "The Current Topics Club," the departments of railroad and insurance news.

A Certain Cure for Dysentery and Diarrhea.

"Some years ago I was one of a party that intended making a long bicycle trip," says F. L. Taylor, of New Albany, Bradford County, Pa. "I was taken suddenly with diarrhea and was about to give up the trip, when editor Ward, of the La ceyville 'Messenger', suggested that I take a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy. I purchased a bottle and took two doses, one before starting and one on the route. I made the trip successfully and never felt any ill effect. Again last summer I was almost completely run down with an attack of dysentery. I bought a bottle of this same remedy and this time one dose cured me." Sold by G. A. Harding, Druggist.

Josh Westhaver, of Logansport, Ind., is a poor man, but he says he would not be without Chamberlain's Pain Balm if it cost five dollars a bottle, for it saved him from being a cripple. No external application is equal to this liniment for stiff and swollen joints, contracted muscles, stiff neck, sprains and rheumatic and muscular pains. It has also cured numerous cases of partial paralysis. It is for sale by G. A. Harding, Druggist.

Portland Carnival and Exposition.

The great Carnival, which opens at Portland on September 20 and continues until October 19, 1901, will be well worth a visit to the metropolis.

Exhibits of agricultural and horticultural products, mining and manufacturing industries, athletic exercises, a horse show at which feats of horsemanship and the various forms of fancy riding will be seen, and a magnificent military tournament, participated in by picked companies from the Oregon National Guard, are a few of the attractions at the Carnival this year.

The Southern Pacific Co. will sell tickets at low rates for this occasion, and will also run a special excursion from Ashland to Portland and return, stopping at all intermediate stations, the date and rates for which will be announced hereafter.
