-ExOUTLOOK OF NEW ADMINISTRATION

Fortunate, indeed, it is at this critical period that the people of the United States can turn from the bier of Mc Kinley to contemplate with well-founded hope the opening administration of his successor in office. It has been the misfortune heretofore the vice-presidents succeeding to the executive chair hav been too anxious to carve out a personal career for themselves. The new president has great opportunities and a bright outlook. He is the representative of no faction, and is unhampered by obligations or affiliations, His start is most auspicious, and he has only to do his duty to retain the heavy support of the nation .- Argonaut.

Crep Bulletin.

The past week in Oregon has been unusually wet. The night temperatures were seasonable, but during the daytime the excess in cloudiness caused the temperatures to average about 10 degrees below normal. The maximum temperatures during the week in Western Oregon ranged between 53 degrees and 68 degrees, and the minimum between 44 and 52 degrees. In Eastern Oregon the maximum temperatures ranged between 50 has received high praise and a great in Eastern Oregon on several mornings and an occasional light frost was reported from the western portion of the State.
