A. J. Marrs has bought a farm three miles south of Oregon City and will move there soon.

The first three miles of the Springwater plank road is finished, all but 300 yards. Work stopped for lumber.

The Springwater church has procured the Rev. Julian Hatch, of Dilly, to fill out the Rev. Soper's time. He will preach his first sermon Oct. 27.

Highland.

H. M. North is building a fine barn.

Fred North is building a new dwelling house.

Amos Harrington has hauled his hop crop to market.

Messrs Mitchell and Pollock have each built a new dwelling house.

Our sawmill has again changed hands. It is now run by Fred Madison.

Ora Welsh is staying in Portland for several weeks, undergoing a treatment for her eyes.

Kirk Bros. have bought the Martin homestead and are putting in a new shingle mill.

Fall plowing is the topic of the day. Several of the leading farmers have their seedling done.

Nat Scribner and family have returned home again and Nat is trying his hand at farming.

Highland school is progressing finely under the management of Miss Kennedy, of Oregon City.

Grandma Rutherford and son James visited relatives in Oregon City several days last week.

Quite a number of our young people have visited the Portland Carnival. All report a fine time.

Stephen Hutchinson has just returned from Everett, Wash., where he has been visiting his sister.

B. N. Harrington, of Bandon, has been visiting relatives here for several days past but intended to start for his home the latter part of this week.

Iva Harrington has just returned from a week's visit among friends in Oregon City and Portland and leaves Sunday to begin her school at Molalla.

Central Point.

The farmers are all very busy in this vicinity preparing their grounds for fall wheat. The potato crop is all harvested with about a half of an ordinary yield.

Scott's Emulsion

of Cod Liver Oil is the means of life, and enjoyment of life to thousands: men women and children.

When appetite fails, it restores it. When food is a burden, it lifts the burden.

When you lose flesh, it brings the plumpness of health.

When work is hard and duty is heavy, it makes life bright.

It is the thin edge of the wedge; the thick end is food. But what is the use of food, when you hate it, and can't digest it?

Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil is the food that makes you forget your stomach.

If you have not tried it, send for free sample. Its agreeable taste will surprise you.

SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, 409 Pearl Street, New York.

50c, and $1.00; all druggists.

The fruit crop this fall is very abundant around here.

George Randall and son sold their hop crop last week to T. A. Livesley and Co., of Salem, for 10 cents per pound.

Cresto Smith has been very sick with the typhoid fever, but is much better at the present writing. Except that one case, the health of the neighborhood is good.

George Randall has just bought him a brand new diamond feed chopper. Its chopping capacity is 250 bushels in 10 hours. Mr. Randall will do custom work one day in each week on Wednesday.

Shubel.

Room is getting scarce in the school.

Work continues on the New Highland road.

Will Moehne went to the metropolis Saturday on business.

Mrs. E. F. Ginter went to Portland last Saturday to attend the fair.

Mr. Martin Hill spent a few days in Portland during the past week.

Miss Elmore Ginter came home on a visit last Saturday, but returned Sunday.

The gulch near Ed Hornshuch's place has been filled and the road is now much better than before.

Mr. Columbus Klemm and family, of Clarks, attended the English services here Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Joe Hill spent a few days in Portland during the past week visiting relatives and attending the fair.

A Portland nurseryman passed through this neighborhood during the week, taking orders for fruit trees.

Fred Moehne has made another horse trade. He traded one of his horses for another horse and received "$80 to boot."

Rev. Engelhart preached here Sunday afternoon in the English language. Three weeks from next Sunday afternoon he will preach again in English. Everybody is invited to attend. His subject will be an unusual one.

Laurence Hornshuch, of Chico, Calif., spent a few days at his old home here during the past week. Laurence enjoys traveling, his latest venture being a trip to Boston, where he intends entering the conservatory of music in that city. We wish him success in his new venture.

Willie Bohlender is in a Portland hospital, suffering from an operation. One evening last week he ate cucumber salad for supper and drank water immediately afterwards, resulting in such fearful cramps, that one of his bowels became twisted. We hope that he will recover, but a late report informs us that he is dying.

Rev. Witrock preached a practical and instructive sermon in the Lutheran church Sunday morning. It was a sermon worthy of publication, among the many good thoughts he emphasized, was this: "Earth was intended a home for all and mankind was not created to live a life of misery and woe, but all were destined to be happy and free."

Colton.

Mrs. Countryman is on the sick list.

Mr. R. Nindie, of Woodburn, is visiting in this neighborhood.

Misses Beale and Mabel Hubbard came home last Saturday on a short visit, before going to Portland for the winter.

Mrs. Rice, of Wyoming, who has been visiting at the home of Mrs. Garret for several weeks, departed for home last Thursday.

Colton is enjoying the best of weather for digging apud, picking apples and shooting birds, although none of our followers of Nimrod can boast of bagging several thousands.

Eagle Creek.

Miss Grace Douglass is still slowly improving.

J. P. Woodie and wife were visiting friends at Damascus Sunday.

George Douglass and wife of Portland, have been visiting friends at Eagle Creek.

H. F. Gibson, one of Eagle Creek's prosperous merchants, is hauling lumber to build a barn.

A. J. Douglass has returned from Eastern Oregon, where he has been on a business trip.

The school in district No. 50 is progressing nicely under the supervision of Miss Olive Currin, of Salem.

Ed Barnett is preparing to do some more grading on the road between Eagle Creek and Barton, which will be a good improvement.

Gray?

"My hair was falling out and turning gray very fast. But your Hair Vigor stopped the falling and restored the natural color."—Mrs. E. Z. Benomine, Cohoes, N. Y.

It's impossible for you not to look old, with the color of seventy years in your hair! Perhaps you are seventy, and you like your gray hair! If not, use Ayer's Hair Vigor. In less than a month your gray hair will have all the dark, rich color of youth.

21¢ a bottle. All druggists.

If your druggist cannot supply you, send us one dollar and we will express you a bottle. Be sure and give the name of your nearest express office. Address, J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass.

The weather is very fine at present. Some of the farmers are still plowing although the ground is getting dry.

Jake Smith is home again after an extended visit with relatives in Washington County.

Mr. Jake Ruek returned home Monday after spending several months at Cape Nome.

D. O. Freeman has just received a lot of new goods. Call and see them before buying elsewhere.

The Barlow Euchre club will be entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hedges Saturday evening, October 26th.

H. W. Philberry, representing the Sweet Candy Company, of Portland, was a business visitor at Barlow, Tuesday.

The dance at Barlow, which was to take place tomorrow night, is to be postponed on account of one being given at Aurora on the same date.

J. O. Walker, of this place, and Miss Eva Parrot, of Glenwood, Wash., were married October 13th at the home of the bride's parents. The young people are both well and favorably known around Barlow and have the best wishes and congratulations of their many friends.

Stone.

Miss Withick, of Portland, opened school in District 51, October 14, with a full roll.

Such a lovely fall as we are having. Who is it would complain now of Oregon weather?

Ned and Frank Hutchins and Fred Reiboff have gone to the mountains hunting.

Miss Andrews is to give Columbus exercises Friday, it being the close of the first month of school at Stone.

Work is being rapidly pushed on the new church building. It will soon be enclosed. J. Hatton is plying the paint brush rapidly.

Mrs. F. F. Hatton and children left for Kansas on a visit October 15. She intends to be gone some time, visiting her father and other relatives and friends.

J. T. Hatton returned yesterday from Southern Oregon, where he has been the past month investigating the McKenzie and other rivers for a site to build a new fish hatchery.

Canby.

A Snell is drying apples at his place.

C. H. Wilcox has moved to Washington.

F. Rosenkran's parents from Michigan are making him an extended visit.

E. W. Penman and family will occupy the house lately vacated by Mr. Wilcox.

Frank Voliner has been chopping fodder corn for the silo on Mr. Batty's place.

A reception and donation party was given to the minister, Rev. Dunlap, at the parsonage last Friday evening.

A party of ladies met at the home of Mrs. A. Kocher one afternoon last week to sew carpet rags. All present reported an enjoyable time.

GRAIN-O! GRAIN-O!

Remember that name when you want a delicious, appetizing, nourishing food drink to take the place of coffee. Sold by all grocers and liked by all who have used it. Grain-O is made of pure grain, it aids digestion and strengthens the nerves. It is not a stimulant but a health builder and the children as well as the adults can drink it with great benefit. Costs about 1/4 as much as coffee. 15c and 25c per package. Ask your grocer for Grain-O.

Simple and Effective, but Costly.

"When I came to town, I noticed a little, round swelling on my wrist," said a visitor from the country. "It bothered me, and one day when I saw a sign, 'Dr. John Doe,' I thought I'd go in and have it looked at. Well, I was shown into a fine room, and in a minute a pleasant looking man came in. 'Dr. Doe?' I says and held up my wrist.

"Ah, a weeping snail," says he, as if he'd been waiting years for a chance to study a case like mine.

"I didn't say anything, but kept my wrist out with the hand hanging limp while he took down a book from the shelf. I expected him to turn over the pages and look up my trouble under S or W and then prescribe something. Instead he gave me a crack on the wrist like a thousand of bricks! It was right on the swelling and hurt like a cannon ball. I jumped high in the air and yelled.

"Your weeping snail's gone," says the doctor quietly. "Three dollars."

"I was too much surprised to say a word, and I paid it. But no wonder your city doctors get rich. Three dollars! Any blacksmith would have done that job for the fun of doing it."

New York Post.

Strange Hiding Places.

There are standing at the present day Elizabethan houses known to contain hidden chambers. The very positions of these chambers can be shown, yet their secrets have remained inviolate for centuries, the spring that should serve as the open sesame being undecipherable. Some day the accidental touch of a girl's finger may set a column of stone rotating or a panel sliding or a door in a picture frame retreating on invisible hinges, and the secret—if any remain—will be revealed.

The place of mystery in these ancient granges that served as shelter to a friend in distress might equally prove the death of an enemy of the house. The priest's hole behind a fireplace was easily converted into an oven. There were staircases which the foot of a friend might press in perfect security. Another, not instructed how to tread, sets his foot apparently on the same place, the stair yawns open, and at the end of the pit is the water. Here is much romance.—London Chronicle.

Pipe Smoking.

There are many pipe smokers who do not know how to get the best there is out of their indulgence. The great point in pipe smoking is to smoke slowly. Nervous smokers smoke too rapidly and burn their tongues with hot smoke, besides failing entirely to get the full and best flavor out of the tobacco. It is all a matter of habit, but slow smoking is a habit which it is hard for some people to acquire. In some cases pipe smokers have tried for years to check their smoking speed without success. They began too late, and the habit of rapid smoking is shaken off with difficulty when it is once acquired.

Rapid smoking is as bad as rapid eating—or worse. It is also "bad form." Whether it is cigar, pipe or cigarette, the smoking should be deliberate in order to get the fullest enjoyment. It is especially so with a pipe.—New York Press.

Hypnotic Influence.

Buyer—Look here, you! You said this horse was sound and kind and free from tricks. The first day I drove him he fell down a dozen times, and he's as bad today.

Dealer—Um—you've been wondering if I cheated you, maybe?

"Yes, I have."

"And the first time you drove the horse you wondered if he hadn't some tricks, didn't you?"

"Of course."

"And you kept saying to yourself, 'I wonder if that there horse will tumble down,' eh?"

"Probably."

"And you had your mind on it a good deal, most like?"

"That's true."

"That's what the matter. You've hypnotized him. See?"

On a Russian Railway Train.

Toilet arrangements such as satisfy the Russian are at his disposal in first and second class trains, but the third class passengers have no such luxuries.

When the train halts for the breakfast interval, those who travel third class may be seen performing their ablutions at the platform tap. They fill a can like a gardener's watering pot, suck through the spout a mouthful of the water, spit it into the hollowed palms and then rub their faces. It is a disgusting process, performed without soap or towel, and though it may be amusing to the onlooker, it is not very cleansing to the operator. Yet this is the method of ablution adopted by the poorer Russian on his travels.—Chambers' Journal.

The Editor Won.

A London paper described a children's excursion as a "long, white stream of joy," and was called to account by a correspondent, who said that a stream could be long, but not white, whereupon the editor justified himself by urging that "a hue is often associated with a cry."

Need Not Feel Lonesome.

Rubberton—May I inquire what your business is, stranger?

Stranger (haughtily)—Sir, I'm a gentleman.

Rubberton—Well, I reckon that's a good business, stranger; but you're not the only man that's failed at it—Chicago News.

A Follower.

Caller—The minister's son is following in the footsteps of that spendthrift young Jinks.

Miss Prim—Isn't that scandalous? Caller—Hardly as bad as that. You see, he's a tailor and is just trying to collect his bill.—Chelsea Gazette.

ASTHMA CURE FREE!

Asthmalene Brings Instant Relief and Permanent Cure In All Cases.

BEST ABSOLUTELY FREE ON RECEIPT OF POSTAL.

There is nothing like Asthmalene. It brings instant relief, even in the worst cases. It cures when all else fails.

Rev. C. F. Wells, of Villa Ridge, Ill., says: "Your trial bottle of Asthmalene received in full for the good derived from it. I was a slave, chained with painful sore throat and asthma for ten years. I despaired of ever being cured. I saw your advertisement for the cure of this dreadful and tormenting disease, and thought you had overpromised yourself, but resolved to give it a trial. To my astonishment, the trial acted like a charm. Send me a full size bottle."

We want to send to every sufferer a trial treatment of Asthmalene, similar to the one that cured Mr. Wells. We'll send it by mail POST-PAY. ABSOLUTELY FREE OF CHARGE, to any sufferer who will write for it, even on a postal. Never mind, though your case is desperate, however bad your case, Asthmalene will relieve and cure. The worse your case, the more glad we are to send it. Do not delay.

Write at once, addressing DR. T. A. F. HOBBS, MEDICINE CO., 70 East 13th St., N. Y. City. Sold by all Druggists.

A $450 IRVING PIANO
To be given away.

A Voting Contest

For the most popular church, lodge, society, school or person of Oregon City, by which a $450 Irving piano will be given away on January 20, 1902, to the society, lodge, church, school or person securing the greatest number of votes. Contest now open. Closes January 20, 1 p. m. All votes will be counted once a week, and a full account of the vote as the contest progresses will be published every Friday in the Oregon City Enterprise.

The final count at the close of the contest will be made by a committee of three; the two contestants in the lead will each send a representative to decide who gets the piano. The votes are given one vote free with every 25c cash purchase by the following merchants. Don't let any but your own church, society, school or friend carry off the honors, and remember that every vote counts. Piano on exhibition at Frank Busch's furniture store. Why not trade where you can get ballots, as they cost you absolutely nothing? Everyone ought to at least do that much for their society or church.
