THE LOCAL NEWS.

CHANGE IN S. P. TRAIN.—The Southern Pacific North bound overland train now arrives 20 minutes earlier than formerly, coming in from the south at 6:10 p. m. instead of 6:30.

FIVE DAYS FOR HILARITY.—Frank Lawler, of Beaver Creek, was discharged from the City Bastile Sunday, having served a five days' sentence for drunkenness and disorderly conduct.

CROOKSHANK RECEIVES $25.—The case of Crookshank vs. Brakshank came up for trial in the Justice Court Friday and the jury returned a verdict for $25 in favor of the plaintiff. The suit was over the quantity of hay and farm machinery for which the plaintiff claimed $75 damage.

MASQUERADE BALL.—J. H. Turney has completed all arrangements for the Prize Masquerade Ball, to be given Saturday evening, October 26, at the Armory. Suits can be rented at the Electric Hotel tomorrow afternoon and evening, from 4 to 8 p. Prizes on exhibition at the post-office store. This ball promises to be one of the most successful events of the season and will be largely attended.

MORE HONORS FOR OREGON.—"More honors for Oregon at the Pan-American Exposition." Thus writes Henry E. Dusch, one of Oregon's Commissioners to the exposition, and adds: "Oregon butter, put up in tins last June for export trade, scored 93 1/2 points, being one-half point higher than standard fresh butter, and highest point scored for export butter."

THE FORESTERS LODGE.—A. W. Field, deputy high chief ranger of the Ancient Order of Foresters, is in town this week, making an effort to institute a branch of the order here. The organization is conducted on different lines from other insurance orders, the money being paid direct from the local order. The total membership of the organization January 1, 1901, was 980,000 and the total funds were $35,000,000.

VALUATION REDUCED.—Manager Clark Ganong, of the Portland Flouring Mills, appeared before the County Board of Equalization last Friday and asked for a reduction on the valuation of the company's property in this county. The Board reduced the valuation on the machinery $4000, bringing it down from $17,000 to $13,000, and raised the valuation of the buildings from $3000 to $5000. This reduces the total valuation from $45,980 to $43,980.

NEW SCHEDULE.—The time card of the Portland City & Oregon Railway has been changed and hereafter cars will leave Oregon City and Portland every 40 minutes from 7 a. m. to 10:20 p. m. A car will leave Portland every evening at 11:40, and the new time card will be found on page 7. The best way to remember the new schedule is that cars leave Oregon City and Portland on the odd hours and 20 minutes before and 20 minutes after the even hours.

DELINQUENT TAX ROLL.—The clerical force of the sheriff's office is working on the delinquent tax roll and the copy will be in the hands of the printer in a few days. The first publication will be made November 15 in the Enterprise and no other newspaper will contain the roll. The sale will take place December 14 at 10 a. m. The delinquent roll will be much less this year than for several previous years, amounting to about $7,700. The recent sale by the county of Minthorn and Gladstone will make the list much smaller than last year.

A. S. HUNT TO MOVE.—Mr. A. S. Hunt, the leading merchant and postmaster at Willamette, has purchased from Thomas Howell, the well known botanist, the lot on which stands the building occupied by Michaels. Mr. Hunt will move into this building in a short time, and will have more commodious quarters than now, which will enable him to enlarge his stock and display it to a greater advantage. Mr. Michaels will probably move into the vacant building on the corner of the block.

SNOW ON MT. HOOD.—Mrs. A. M. Yocum, who resides at Government Camp on Mount Hood, was in the city last Friday and reported a heavy fall of snow occurred on the mountain about a month ago, which came to the bottom of the green timber above Government Camp. The three peaks of the mountain, about one mile south of Government Camp were completely covered. Mrs. Yocum while in Oregon City, was the guest of Rev. and Mrs. A. J. Montgomery, who camped at Government Camp when on their vacation at Mount Hood last summer.

REBUILDING SAWMILL.—J. J. Yoder, son of J. S. Yoder, of Needy, whose sawmill burned down last August, was in town Monday and said that the foundation of the new mill is nearly finished and that the mill will probably be in operation by the first of the year, though the building will not be completed until later. The lumber is being procured from Bagby's mill near Needy. The new mill will be equipped with a 25-horse power engine, while the old mill had only a ten-horse power, and the capacity will be about 7000 feet of lumber daily, more than doubling the output of the former mill.

SENT TO THE ASYLUM.—Mary Green was committed to the insane asylum Tuesday by Judge Ryan. She was born in London, England, 57 years ago, and two years ago was committed to the asylum from Multnomah county. After two months she was discharged and went to live with her brother in Springfield. Last Thursday she was seized with one of her old attacks and disrobed herself. She has a fear that someone will do her bodily harm. As her brother, Joseph Green, is a single man, he is unable to care for her. At times she is perfectly rational. The testimony, elicited by Dr. Carl, showed that she was of unsound mind and under the care of Sheriff Cooke, she was taken to the asylum Tuesday night.

NEW GROCERY FIRM.—The new Stevens & Howell building is rapidly nearing completion and the painters are now at work. Adams Bros. will occupy the entire lower floor and the Woodmen of the World the upper story for a meeting hall. The Stevens building on the corner of Main and Sixth streets now occupied by Adams Bros., has been secured by McGlashan & Miles, who will open a grocery store. Mr. McGlashan is the present head of the firm of McGlashan & Rakel, and was formerly manager of the Fellows' Grocery. McGlashan & Rakel will discontinue business. Mr. Rakel going into farming. Mr. Miles is well known in Oregon City, having conducted the postoffice store. They are both enterprising men and will be sure to succeed in the new location, which is one of the best in the city.

SCHOOLS OVERCROWDED.—The public schools of Oregon City are in an overcrowded condition and the problem of finding room for the incoming pupils is becoming a serious one. The gymnasium adjoining the Barclay school building could be fitted up for a school room but the board of directors will not do this unless forced to it as it would entail an expense of over $500 besides the cost of an additional teacher.

PATENTS GRANTED.—Patents have been received at the land office for the following settlers: Sophia Evelyn Gustavson, Jakob Luthi, George B. Johnson, Erick Hemstrom, Charles Ratsch, Joseph Kodad, Peter Stachmeivicoz, Philo Huikson, Chas. A. Benson, John Heagney, David O. Leavens, Gust Nelson, heirs of Peter Magnusson, David F. Warner, Alexander Normand, Jr., Geo. F. Brown, Thos. M. Laskey, Wm. R. Traxel, Shelley M. Bayley, Wm. R. Hingsworth.

RECEIVER'S REPORT.—Receiver William Galloway, of the United States Land Office, has completed his report for the quarter ending September 30, showing the receipts for the quarter to be $27,775.97 against $20,534.89 for the previous quarter. Following is the summary of the amounts received: Twenty-nine commuted homestead entries, 4464.90 acres, $6183.25; 50 timber and land entries, 7548.38 acres, $18,870.93; seven entries, 44.21 acres, $55.25; fees on 99 homestead entries, 1415.22 acres, $929; commission on same, $594.74; fees on 50 final, $321.39; fees on 50 timber entries, $500; fees on five coal declaratory statements, $15; fees on 15 indemnity school selections, $74; examining and reducing testimony, $241.41. The receipts for the quarter were $499.35 in excess of the maximum expenses of the Land Office.

HELD UP AND ROBBED.—N. A. Olsen, employed at Young's livery stable, was held up and robbed of $11.25 Thursday afternoon at 5 o'clock by two masked men about two miles and a half from this city. Olsen, with a man named Williams, had gone to Oswego in a buggy and was on his return home when he was met by two men, who told him to give up his money. Upon his refusal one pointed a revolver at him, while the other climbed into the rig and went through his pockets, taking $11.25 and a ring. The money taken belonged to Young, as Olsen had been out collecting. Olsen described the men who held him up as one a tall, slim man wearing a gray suit and the other a short, heavy-set man, wearing dark brown clothes, and both hands are freckled. They both wore red handkerchiefs for masks. The place where the robbery took place is near Walling Hill, about 2 1/2 miles from Oregon City on the Portland road. A number of hold-ups have occurred in this vicinity during the past week, but this is the first one in broad daylight. There is no clue to the identity of the robbers.

IMPORTANT LAND DECISION.—The case of Ormsby vs. Mansfield has been decided in favor of the entryman by the register and receiver of the local land office. The case is an important one. About 13 years ago Claude H. Mansfield settled on a homestead claim in the Cascade Forest Reserve. It was found that the now famous Brienbush Hot Springs were located on the claim and many covetous eyes were cast at the land. The Corvallis & Eastern Railroad line runs to Detroit, within 10 miles of the Springs, and the claim looks good to them and several others. Last May the entryman made final proof and on the same day S. B. Ormsby, forest superintendent, filed a protest, and Mansfield was refused a certificate, pending the result of the contest. Mansfield was recently offered $30,000 for a half interest in his claim. It is almost certain that Ormsby will appeal. It is whispered that he is the agent of other people, who need the land in their business. Judge H. H. Hewitt, of Albany, is Ormsby's attorney and Geo. G. Bingham, of Salem, represents the contestee. Hon. J. K. Weatherford, of Albany, general attorney and vice-president of the Corvallis & Eastern Railroad, was one of the contestant's witnesses. The testimony was contradictory and voluminous, covering nearly 200 type-written pages.

A Hallowe'en Magazine. Superstition Trail, a powerful tale of the West, by Owen Wieter, and illustrated by Remington, is the opening story in the Hallowe'en number, Oct. 29 of the Saturday Evening Post, of Philadelphia. Other attractive features are a new episode in The Love Affairs of Patricia and a striking poem by Holman F. Day. Mr. Day's ballad, The Night of the White Review, tells a weird tale current among Gloucester fishermen. It has all the swing and movement of M. Kipling's Dippy Chanteys, and a strength and originality all its own.

THE WINTER ROUTE To the East.

The great percentage of Pacific Coast travel passes through Salt Lake City by way of the Rio Grande Lines. The fall and winter climate in Utah and Colorado is ideal; the sunlit days being as proverbial in winter as in summer. This fact, together with the magnificent scenery and the splendid train service tend to make the Rio Grande Lines via Denver and Salt Lake, the most popular route in the country. Three fast trains daily between all points in West and the East. Close connection at Ogden with trains of Southern Pacific and Oregon Short Line. Pullman Palace and Ordinary Sleepers without change to Denver, Omaha, Kansas City, St. Louis and Chicago. Perfect Dining Car service. Personally conducted excursions. For time tables, rates and descriptive matter inquire of J. D. Mansfield, General Agent, 124 Third St., Portland; or Geo. W. Heinz, Asst. General Passenger Agent, Salt Lake City.

$100 Reward $100

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucus surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer $100 for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address, F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo O. Sold by Druggists, 75c.
