Proposals will be received by the Finance Committee of the City Council of Oregon City until Wednesday, December 4, 1901 at 4 o'clock p. m. for the sale at not less than par value and accrued interest of One Sewer Improvement Bond of Oregon City, Oregon, amount $357 00, as the same shall be authorized to be issued, said bond to be dated February 1, 1902, and shall mature in ten years from the date thereof, and be payable in Gold Coin of the United States and bear interest at the rate of six per cent. per annum, interest payable semi-annually, said interest to be evidenced by coupons attached to said bond; Provided, however, the right to take up and cancel said bond upon the payment of the face value thereof with accrued interest to the date of payment, at any semi-annual coupon period at or after one year from the date of said bond is hereby reserved. Said bond issued under authority of an act of the Legislature of the State of Oregon, entitled, An Act to amend Sections 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, and 7 of an Act entitled, An Act to provide for the issuance of bonds for the improvement of Streets and Laying of Sewers in incorporated cities, and for the payment of the cost of such improvements and laying of sewers by installments, filed in the office of the Secretary of State, February 22, 1893. The right to reject any and all bids is hereby reserved. All bids must be accompanied by a check for 10 per cent of the amount of the bond, payable to R. Koerner, Chairman, as liquidated damages in case the bidder shall withdraw his bid or shall fail or neglect to take and pay for the bond aforesaid should the same be awarded to him. By order of the Finance Committee of the City Council of Oregon City. BRUCE C. CURRY, Recorder. "A Wise Woman," the three-act musical comedy by Wilfred Clark, who is also responsible for that great success, "Oh! Susannah!" has been secured for the near future at the Shively Opera House. This a fortunate booking for Manager Shively and one worthy of special notice, as the attraction is to be seen in but very few one-night stands this season, its time having been almost entirely booked in the larger cities of the country. This is strong evidence of the strength of the company. Mrs. Hamilton, at the Red Font Store, has some elegant hats at prices to suit you. The 3-year-old daughter of M. L. Miller, of Falls View, was struck in the right eye with a ruler Wednesday afternoon. She was playing with her 4-year-old brother in the yard and in play he threw a ruler at her, striking and splitting the eyeball. The accident resulted in the loss of her eye. Unitarian Services. Rev. W. G. Elliot, jr., state superintendent for the American Unitarian Association, will lecture in Willamette hall at 7:30 p. m. on Sunday evening, November 24. The place to get it fixed. Johnson & Lamb. All work guaranteed. The Oregon City Woolen Mills are advertising the sale of a lot of fine cassimere remnants at the cost of manufacture. This is the first time that such an opportunity is offered by them and we would advise buyers to go early and have the entire lot to select from. Christian Science services are held in Willamette hall every Sunday morning at eleven o'clock. Subject for Sunday, Nov. 17th, "Soul and Body." Sunday School at twelve o'clock. Wednesday evening meeting at eight o'clock. To these services all are welcome. Charles Munson, of Damascus, died suddenly Wednesday, November 13, of heart disease. Munson, with his partner, Andrew Swenson, had lived on a farm near Damascus for a quarter of a century. Both were bachelors and they owned everything in common. Each had executed wills in favor of the other. Scores a big hit in Tacoma—"A Wise Woman." There is no questioning the popularity of the Marie Lamour Company after the enthusiastic reception accorded their performance of "A Wise Woman." The largest house that has ever assembled by dint of the utmost compression within the walls of the local theatre witnessed the performance and the phenomenally crowded state of every part of the house bore testimony to the popularity which the performers have earned for themselves during their present season. Secure your tickets now or you may be disappointed in getting a good seat. See Mr. Shively about it. Ed. Reckner, Louis Himler and John Grindler, of Oregon City, and Richard Cairns, of Astoria, returned this week from Idaho, where they have been for the past two months working in the Swan Falls salmon hatchery on the Snake river, about 80 miles from Boise. This hatchery is conducted by the state and was established by F. C. Brown, of this city, a deputy under Master Fish Warden Van Dusen. The weather was freezing in that section and the hatchery men were compelled to discontinue operations. Nearly 800,000 eggs were hatched. Mr. Brown will arrive in about two weeks, as soon as some of the eggs have eyed.

Remember this—We guarantee to meet any cut price, club rate propositions offered on magazines, books, bibles and mail order schemes. We will save you the risk and expense of sending money away.

Bring in the Babies. We will present to every baby under one year old brought into our store, a Fine Gold Ring Free. Measure will be taken and in about 10 days the ring will be ready—absolutely free.

Shrewd buyers have appreciated the special prices that we have been making from week to week in our advertisements. These specials are exactly what we say they are. If it's a broken line we wish to close out—they often go below cost; if it's a regular line—the reduction is usually from 20 to 33 per cent, and when the week is up, they go back into stock at regular prices.

Stationery Special To close out broken lines of box stationery we offer this week about 150 boxes of writing paper—taken from our regular 15, 20 and 25c lines—at 10c each. Each box contains 24 sheets with envelopes to match. There are fancy tints; plain creams and whites; and no box of less than 15c value. See them in our window—your choice 10c.

Book Special This week it's a line of standard works embracing Fiction, Essays, Science and History. Printed from large type on superior laid paper and bound in Bedford ribbed silk cloth. Publisher's price 50c. Our regular price 40c. This week's special price—30c. In the lot we also include about 50 copyright books—slightly shop worn. Regular retail price $1.00 to $1.75.
