SOME AFTER ELECTION GOSSIP.

The sweeping results of the fight against Tammany in New York City continue to make the late election the leading topic in the Eastern metropolis. All returns have confirmed the early indications of the utter rout of the Tammany forces, and the aftermath of gossip discloses something of the seemingly h peless case of that notorious organization. Fusion was not the only political element inimical to Tammany. It has a relentless foe in the Greater New York Democracy, led by John C. Sheehan. He announces that his party will continue to fight Tammany until it is wiped out of existence, and the regular Democracy of New York recognized in State and national conventions. Ex-Senator Cantor, also an ex-Tammanyite, elected Manbattan Borough, predicts the destruction of even the name of Tammany through revocation of its charter. Seth Low and Wi liam T. Jerome, mayor and district attorney elect, are working in harmony, and propose to rid the city of every vestige of Tammany influence as soon as possible. One of the first to step down and out will be Chief of Police Devery, whose retention by Croker made him the storm centre of the fight. His dismissal is expected to be followed by an exodus of all sorts of crooks. Senator Platt, though jubilant, finds a fly in the ointment in the shape of the victory of Justice Jerome, a Democrat and a Fusionist, who vigorously denounced every intimation of Platt domination during the campaign. Bets to the amount of perhaps one million dollars were lost by the backers of Tammany. Richard Croker is said to be one of the heaviest losers, and the big winners are said to have raked in sums ranging from said city. thirty thousand to seventy-five thousand dollars apiece.

COLONEL MILLER, OF CLACKAMAS.

In another column we print an interview with Colonel Robert Miller, who thought he was unjustly quoted in the Enterprise and Oregonian last week. It will be observed that Colonel Miller still holds that the Democratic party is not appreciated in its efforts to prescribe for the alleged ills of Uncle Sam.

There are people, nevertheless, who believe that Uncle Sam is doing fairly well and should be let alone. The Colonel stands by the Orator of the Platte in his devotion to silver, notwithstanding the verdict of the last presidential election and the prosperity of the country. He says that the "money question is a science that has yet to be learned." That is undoubtedly true of many people, Bryan for instance. The Colonel thinks we shall hear more of this later on. We did not know that the Democracy contemplated a postmortem at this late day, but some people have peculiar ideas of the timeliness of an autopsy.

But the Colonel is for expansion, that grand, good, great, generous and platitudinous expansion, that benefits the Kaffiras well as the Chinese, that melts Pankratz, during the winter. Mr. John locally, farmers are not disposed to sell crop will amount to 65,000 bales, or 11,- ble. CARS NOT COMPORTABLE.

The Portland City & Oregon Railway Company has recently made many improvements on its line between Oregon City and Portland. New ties have been laid along the entire line and the handsome cars are marvels of elegance and speed. It sems all the more strange, therefore, that the cars are not heated. Hundreds of people travel on the cars daily, and during the winter weather, which has not reached its coldest point, suffer much from the cold. Several complaints have come to this office within within two weeks after a payment, kindly the past week regarding the uncomfort-notify us and we will look after it. able atmosphere in the cars and it is to be hoped that the company will see the wisdom of making their cars warm and cozy for the covenience and comfort of join one of these squads. Each squad the traveling public. It is particularly disagreeable early in the morning, when two athletic events and one game. As people, who reside in one town and hold positions in the other, ride on the first car to work. Doubtless the railway company has already taken steps to look after the warmth and comfort of its patrons.

A Big Leak.

Clackamas County last month paid out $464.25 for aid to paupers and people applying for help. Much of the aid is necessary and has to be paid but there the board is doing as well as it or any board can do; still the bulk of these applicants should go to a poor farm and are cases where the board gives temporary aid that is along the correct line and the applicant should not be sent to a poor farm; but if the bulk of the appli- that have joined in the last week. cants were told that they had to go to a Many a man applies for help, and gets board at some friend's or farmer's place, who would never go to a poor farm. BURGLARS IN TOWN.

Thieves Futer the Ledging House and Steal From Three Inmates.

Burglars entered the Portland lodginghouse Sunday evening and robbed three inmates of $19.75.

The house is conducted by Mrs. A. Kragse, and is well filled with roomers, WORK IS BOOMING All retired about 10 o'clock and the robbery occurred between that time and 5 o'clock Monday morning.

The burglar entered the rooms of three of the inmates while they were saleep. One of the roomers, Nicholson, was the heaviest loser, From him $9.25 was taken. A man by the name of January lost $6, and Connie Dye lost $4.50. The money was taken from the men's clothes while hanging on the wall or the back of a chair. Money was the only thing taken, aithough two of the men had watches on their clothes. No clue to the robber has yet been obtained.

Attempt to Rob Saloon.

About 4 o'clock Monday morning an attempt was made to rob the Bon Ton saloon, on Main street, but the robber was stopped in his work by the appearance of Alex Moore, who had started to clean up the place. Entrance was effected through the rear door, and when Moore opened the side door he was confronted by a ravolver, which the robber had stolen from a desk in front of the saloon. The thief made his escape out the rear, but aside from the revolver, did not secure anything, Mr. Moore evidently arrived at the saloon about the same time the robber did. The robber made good his escape. This man is supposed to be the one who robbed the Portland lodging-house.

Rambo's saloon suffered from a similar attempt last August, when the place was entered and a slot machine robbed by Perry E. Polk, whom Judge McBride sentenced last week to a two years' term in the penitentiary for the deed.
