A social party was given the first of the week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Arnold, in Milwaukie.

A dime social was given last evening at the residence of C. O. Albright for the benefit of the Congregational Church.

The affair was largely attended and a neat sum was netted.

FRATERNAL

COL. MILLER HAS HIS SAY

Money Question Is a Science Yet To Be Learned.

HOPES FOR DEMOCRATIC SUCCESS

Look For the Liveliest Campaign Ever Seen in Clackamas County and Anticipates Surprises.

Colonel Robert A. Miller, who is a well-known man in Democratic circles, was interviewed yesterday on Oregon politics and party prospects.

"It is rumored that you deemed yourself unfairly reported in the purported interview in the Enterprise copied from the Oregonian last week. In what respect?"

"In the first place there was no interview, only a short conversation overheard that was not intended for publication."

"You were quoted as saying that you had hopes of the Democratic success in the coming Oregon election?"

"Why not?" was the quick response. "The Democratic party has always fought for unrestricted trade, for larger commerce for greater business development and that is what Oregon most needs at the present time."

"How about free silver?"

"That reminds me of a neighbor boy I once knew who didn't like to take blue mass pills. His mother exhausted argument and at last wrapped the pills in bread and called them bread pills. Jim confessed to me openly afterwards that those otherwise nauseating pellets thus disguised 'were mighty good stuff'."

"So with free silver; it may be a bitter dose under that name but it is very gratifying to see the fellow who denounced silver coinage or 'more money' now that his party is coining more silver than ever before in the history of the country and smack his lips at this bread pill of prosperity and exclaim with the gusto of that boy, 'Its mighty good stuff.'"

"The money question is a science that has yet to be learned—it is a problem unsolved. The issue is not as to the sanity of the disputants, as the fierce conflict of the past few years would indicate, but as to how one can have a safe and adequate circulating medium meeting all requirements of legitimate business. This is a matter in which all good citizens are interested and in which all good citizens should take an interest. We shall hear more of this question later on."

"How about expansion?"

"I am a believer in expansion—of business, of trade, of commerce and all that makes for individual happiness and national greatness. I would cover the seas and the oceans with the white sails of our merchant marine and would have harbors of refuge for these vessels in the islands of the seas, but I would have these vessels carrying upon their prows the olive branch of peace and not Gatling guns. I am for that expansion which meets the highest requirements of the Caucasian race and which is best conserved when 'equal and exact justice is meted out to all.'"

"I believe that the greatest need of the hour is expansion along right lines, in our political as well as our business life, to the end that the 'greatest good shall come to the greatest number.'"

"How about Clackamas county politics?"

"I look for one of the liveliest campaigns ever had in this county and for surprises all along the line."

"You don't mean—"

"Yes, I mean that no party, or man or set of men own the majority of the voters of Clackamas county."

To the Public.

Allow me to say a few words in praise of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I had a very severe cough and cold and feared I would get pneumonia, but after taking the second dose of this medicine I felt better, three bottles of it cured my cold and the pains in my chest disappeared entirely. I am most respectfully yours for health, RALPH S. MEYERS, 64 Thirty-seventh St. Wheeling, W. Va. For sale by G. A. Harding, Druggist.

Jumped on a Ten Penny Nail.

The little daughter of Mr. J. N. Powell jumped on an inverted rake made of ten penny nails, and thrust one nail entirely through her foot and a second one half way through. Chamberlain's Pain Balm was promptly applied and five minutes later the pain had disappeared and no more suffering was experienced. In three days the child was wearing her shoe as usual and with absolutely no discomfort. Mr. Powell is a well known merchant of Forkland, Va. Pain Balm is an antiseptic and heals such injuries without maturation and in one-third the time required by the usual treatment. For sale by G. A. Harding, Druggist.

Spreads Like Wildfire.

When things are "the best" they become "the best selling." Abraham Hare, a leading druggist, of Belleville, O., writes: "Electric Bitters are the best selling bitters I have handled in 20 years." You know why? Most diseases begin in disorders of stomach, liver, kidneys, bowels, blood and nerves. Electric Bitters tones up the stomach, regulates liver, kidneys and bowels, purifies the blood, strengthens the nerves, hence cures multitudes of maladies. It builds up the entire system. Put a new life and vigor into any weak, sickly, run-down man or woman. Price 50 cents. Sold by Geo. A. Harding, druggist.

Monday, January 6, 1902, has been set for hearing the final account of Robert Biehl, administrator with will annexed of the estate of Augusta Melcher, deceased.

T. P. McCubbin, E. P. Arthur and John J. Cooke have been appointed appraisers of the estate of Francis M. Pickard, deceased. H. S. Harourt is the administrator.

The taxes on the delinquent roll last Saturday amounted to $3,970.52. Payments are being made daily, with the penalty attached, and the property is advertised for sale, December 14. By that time the roll will probably be less than $3000.

Licenses to wed were granted by the County Clerk this week to the following persons: Mary Boekmann, 29, and Claus Peters, 28, Jennie W. Riech, 26, and R. H. Pratt, 25; Henrietta Livingstone, 15, and George W. Weygant, 29; Effie White, 18, and Nelson Brandset, 24; Minnie Thomas, 25, and Ralph Ingraham, 32; Stella E. Howitt, 22, and Floyd F. Phillips, 26; Annie J. Wright, 22, and Guy E. Reynolds, 24.

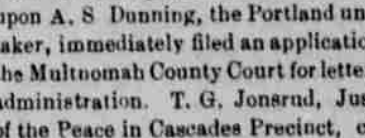

The appeal in the Christensen will case was dismissed in the Circuit Court Monday morning. Last April, Juns Kristenson, who lived at Sandy, was taken to St. Vincent's Hospital in Portland for treatment and 11 days after he died. Whereupon A. S. Dunning, the Portland undertaker, immediately filed an application in the Multnomah County Court for letters of administration. T. G. Jonard, Justice of the Peace in Cascades Precinct, commenced proceedings in the Clackamas County Court to probate the will. Dunning appeared in court and objected to the jurisdiction of the court, but asked that if the court should take jurisdiction, that he (Dunning) should be appointed executor of the will. He alleged that he was the chief creditor of the estate and his claim was for funeral expenses. The Court refused to grant his petition and appointed Jonard executor, and Dunning appealed. Christensen left a farm at Sandy.

Many physicians are now prescribing Kodol Dyspepsia Cure regularly, having found that it is the best prescription they can write because it is the one preparation which contains the elements necessary to digest not only some kinds of food but all kinds and it therefore cures indigestion and dyspepsia no matter what its cause. Geo. Harding.

DYSPEPSIA

For six years I was a victim of dyspepsia in its worst form. I could eat nothing but milk toast, and at times my stomach would not retain and digest even that. Last March I began taking CASCARETS and since then I have steadily improved, until I am as well as I ever was in my life.

HILL MILITARY ACADEMY

Purchases Five Fine New Pianos At Eilers Piano House.

One of the most important acquisitions to Northwestern educational facilities is the new military academy recently opened by Dr. J. W. Hill, who during the past 28 years has been most prominently identified with advanced educational interests in the West. The academy was opened on September 15, with a corps of 13 instructors. There is not an institution in the country better qualified to thoroughly fit boys for college, its graduates being admitted upon Dr. Hill's certificate in the University of Oregon and Leland Stanford of California.

That the study of music will also be looked after in the best possible manner is evidenced by the fact that after carefully investigating the merits and demerits of all the leading American makes of pianos at the various stores, Dr. Hill and the faculty yesterday placed an order for five new upright pianos with Eiler's Piano House.

After careful comparison and investigation, two large cabinet grand new scale Kimball upright pianos were decided upon for the assembly room and for general concert work. Then for students' practice work, two of the popular Whitney pianos in solid oak cases will be used. A superb little Weber (these so-called baby pianos) was also purchased for special uses, the Weber being recognized as the piano par excellence for accompaniment of the voice.

This is the largest single order for high grade pianos ever placed with Eiler's Piano House by any Western institution of learning, and is effecting this business they have again most forcibly demonstrated their ability to not only supply the very best instruments, but also that Eiler's Piano House are in a position to furnish these instruments for less money than can any other firm of dealers.

(Portland Oregonian, October, 13, 1901.)
