THE LOCAL NEWS.

CIRCUIT COURT ADJOURNS.—Judge McBride adjourned court Saturday and opened a session at Hillsboro Monday morning. An adjourned session of the Circuit Court will be held in this city December 17, lasting about three days. Judge McBride will also open a session of the Court January 6.

MRS. CURRY'S FATHER DEAD.—Thomas G. Harkins died Sunday in Portland at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. W. C. Beachurst, aged 71 years, 6 months and 20 days. He was the father of Mrs. Bruce C. Curry, of this city, and had been ill for a long time. The funeral was held Monday afternoon.

SEVEN-TON ROCK ON TRACK.—An immense rock, weighing over seven tons, became dislodged from its position in the loose dirt on the bluff Friday afternoon and fell on the Southern Pacific railroad track, in the cut in the rear of George A. Harding's residence, bending one of the rails out of position. A gang of men was immediately put to work to remove the obstruction. The overland passenger and a local freight were delayed over an hour.

AN AGED WOMAN SENT TO ASYLUM.—Catherine Meek was committed to the insane asylum Monday afternoon by Justice of the Peace J. W. McAnulty, who acted in the absence of County Judge Ryan. Her age is 66 years and she lives with her sister, Mrs. Imel, of Clackamas. She is unmarried but thinks she is married and talks about matrimony. The cause of her insanity is a severe attack of lagrippe six months ago.

Mrs. LATOURETTE'S SISTER DEAD.—Mrs. S. M. Kelly died in Portland Sunday morning. She has been in failing health for some time and paralysis caused her death. Her husband and four children survive her. She was a sister of U. W. Scott, editor of the Oregonian, Mrs. M. Cook, Mrs. Abigail Scott Daniway, Mrs. C. A. Coburn, and Mrs. H. L. Palmer, of Portland, and Mrs. D. C. Latourette, of this city.

Y. M. C. A. WINS AT INDOOR BASEBALL.—The game of indoor baseball at the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium Saturday evening between the Company A and the Y. M. C. A. teams resulted in a victory for the latter by a score of 21 to 11. A football game between the Y. M. C. A. and the Portland High School was scheduled for Saturday on the professional baseball grounds in Portland, but was called off on account of the murder of James Morrow, whose brother is a member of the High School team.

THANKSGIVING SERVICES.—Union services were held yesterday in the Methodist church, by the Presbyterian, Congregational, Baptist and Methodist churches. Rev. E. B. Bollinger preached the sermon, and special music was rendered. In St. Paul's Episcopal church, Rev. Philip K. Hammond conducted the service. The musical program was: "Te Deum" Stephens; "Jubilate," Danks; "Praise Ye The Father" Gounod; At both services the offering was taken for the Good Samaritan Hospital.

BROUGHT BACK THE TRICE.—Constable Moody returned from Albany Wednesday evening, bringing with him Bert Barclay, who is wanted on a charge of larceny by bailee. He was given a watch to raffle for a man named Tyler in the Willamette Mills, and after all of the chances had been sold Barclay boarded an evening train bound for San Francisco. The matter was reported to the officers in time and the man was intercepted at Albany. His case will come up for examination in the justice court Friday.

PASSED A BOBOS CHECK.—Horace H. Evans was arrested Friday afternoon in Portland on the charge of obtaining money under false pretences and brought to Oregon City and lodged in the county jail. Last week Evans passed a bobos check on John Cooke, a saloon keeper of Canby, and went to Portland. He was arrested by the police of that city upon information received from Canby and Sheriff Cooke was notified. A warrant was sworn out in the Justice Court and Constable Moody went to Portland after the man, who will have his preliminary examination this week in the Justice Court.

BRAKEBUSH MUST VACATE.—The suit of Agnes J. Crookbanks against Fred Brakebush and Ida Brakebush for forcible entry and detainer was tried before a jury in the Justice Court Saturday, and resulted in a verdict for the plaintiff. Brakebush rented a farm of Mrs. Crookbanks and agreed to pay the year's rent in advance. The second year's rent was due three months ago, and the defendant not only refused to pay the rent but declined to get off the premises. By verdict of the jury Brakebush must vacate the farm.

MOLALLA BRIDGE ACCEPTED.—The Board of County Commissioners met today and accepted the new county bridge across the Molalla River between Canby and Barlow. The structure is situated about 50 feet west of the railroad bridge and was built by E. D. Olds, of Oregon City, at a cost of $9145. Its south span measures 185 feet and the north span 175 feet, making a total of 360 feet, exclusive of the two approaches, one of which is 100 feet and the other 48 feet. The bridge is covered and will be a great convenience to the people of that section.

JOINT TEACHERS' MEETING.—An invitation has been issued by County Superintendents J. C. Zinser and E. T. Moores for a joint teachers' meeting at Aurora on Saturday, December 7. All teachers in Clackamas and Marion Counties are invited to attend and are requested to come prepared to take part in the discussions. The meeting begins at 10:30 A. M. and the program follows: "Attention," Miss Mary S. Barlow, Prin. Barlow School; History, "Intermediate Division," Wm. Parker, Prin. Woodburn School; "School Discipline," A. T. Winches, Prin. Canby School; Geography, "Making Use of Maps," C. H. Jones, Editor Oregon Teachers' Monthly.

CONDUCTOR DIMICK ROBBED.—Conductor Dimick, of the Portland City & Oregon Railway Company, was robbed while standing on the crowded rear platform of his car Saturday night at Gratton's curve, on the Milwaukie road. At this curve there is a passing switch. One car had already passed. Conductor Dimick's car was crowded. He had a purse containing $6 in his pocket. Some one in the crowd slipped his hand down into the conductor's pocket and quickly removed the purse containing the money. The conductor felt the hand, and, turning quickly, demanded who had robbed him. No information was forthcoming, and no one on the car seemed to know who had stolen the money. It is thought that the robber jumped off. At any rate he got away with the money.

MANY HOBOS IN TOWN.—During the past week the city has been overrun with hobos, but owing to the watchful eye of the police only one case of house-breaking has been reported. The German church parsonage, which is occupied by Michael Mulvey and family as a residence, was broken into Thursday afternoon. Mr. Mulvey is in California undergoing medical treatment for a cancer, and his wife is with him. His son, William Mulvey, an employee of the Willamette Pulp & Paper Mill, lives in the house with his sister and they were both away from the house on the day it was broken into. Upon Miss Mulvey's return she found the house in confusion. Things were turned topsy turvy, trunks were opened and rifled and even the bedding was ransacked for valuables. Nothing of any considerable value was missing however. The robber got away with 15 cents in change, but a check for $100 was not taken. Thursday night there were 21 hobos in the city basille. They are always given a chance to get out of town on the last train at night but after that leaves they are rounded up and kept in jail until morning. Constable Moody is on duty until 12 o'clock and with Nightwatchman Shaw, the town is well policed.
