

Personal Mention

E. E. Williams was in the city Wednesday. S. M. Eby, of Parkplace, was in the city Tuesday. Hon. J. L. Kruse, of Stafford, was in town Tuesday. Ross Fryear, of Macksburg, was in the city Wednesday. Forest Ranger W. C. Ward, of Viola, was in town Wednesday. Cass U. Barlow, of Barlow, was a visitor in the city Wednesday. Mrs. D. H. Glass visited the public schools in Portland Tuesday. Wallace Cole left Wednesday for Hood River on a week's hunting trip. Mrs. T. W. Clark is expected home from Bandon next Monday or Tuesday. W. C. Ward, road supervisor of the Viola district, was in town Wednesday. Miss Bertha Goldsmith leaves next week by steamer for a trip to San Francisco. C. G. Huntley attended a meeting of the state pharmacy board in Portland Tuesday. Mrs. C. A. Miller and children, of Willamette Falls, are visiting relatives in Seattle. Herman A. Lee, Recorder of the city of Canby, was in the city Saturday on business. Mrs. Theodore Bimler, of Parkplace, who has been seriously ill for the past week, is improving. Mrs. W. E. Pratt and Miss Dolly Pratt returned Tuesday from a four days' visit with friends in Salem. John Shaver, of Molalla, a candidate for the Republican nomination of Sheriff, was in the city Friday. Mrs. Andrews, of Cathlamet, is in the city on a visit of several weeks to her daughter, Mrs. John Boyles. F. E. Maple, a clerk in Huntley's drug store, has passed the examination for a junior certificate in pharmacy. Messrs. Peters and Aden, of Wilsonville, were in town Wednesday and report business in their town flourishing. Arthur Traglio, of Salem, who has been visiting his brother, P. L. Traglio, in the city for the past week, returned home Monday. Dr. E. A. Sommers and Drs. Beattie have secured two additional offices in the Winehard building and now have a suite of five rooms. Miss Anna Peters, of Barlow, who has been ill in St. Vincent's hospital for the past month, has recovered and is visiting friends in Oregon City. C. W. Van Slype has accepted a position in Harding's drug store. Willard Morse, the former clerk, has resigned to take a clerkship at Huntley's. Hon. Frank D. Hobbs, Register of the United States Land Office, at Salt Lake City, Utah, was in the city Tuesday, the guest of Register Moores, of the Oregon City Office. Miss Hazel Pillsbury left Monday afternoon, via Astoria, for the Nehalem. She has accepted a position as teacher of the school at Vossburg, and will be absent several months. Gustaf Schroer, who has been in the Good Samaritan hospital for the past three weeks, has resumed work at the Willamette Pulp and Paper Company's wood camp at Peach Mountain. County Superintendent J. C. Zinner is visiting the various schools of the county this week. On Monday he went to Canby and Tuesday morning started on a trip to Molalla. From there he intended to go to the Macksburg country and will return home tomorrow by way of Canby. Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Campbell, of Montana, were in the city on a short visit last week to Mr. Campbell's sister, Mrs. E. P. Randa. They were on their way to Portland where they will reside with a son in the future. Mrs. Randa and her brother had not met for 41 years. Frank Brown, field superintendent of the State Fish Commission, returned Sunday night from the Salmon River Hatchery, which is situated on Salmon river about 35 miles from this city. He placed in the hatchery 500,000 salmon eggs, which he brought a few days ago from the Swan Falls, Idaho, hatchery. These eggs were dried before shipment and will be hatched at the Salmon river station. H. H. Perry, of Mulino, was in town Monday. He is hunting up the status of the law which prevents hogs running at large. At the state election in 1892 the voters of the county decided against allowing hogs to run at large by a vote of 2133 to 1064. By the terms of the code the county clerk must publish the law and the result after the election but no time is specified. Mr. Perry was unable to find whether or not the law was published and is of the opinion that it was not. Nine years have passed since the vote was taken and it is probably too late in the day to publish the matter and make it valid in a legal sense. The alternative is to file a petition in the county court signed by 100 voters asking that another vote be taken, but this would entail considerable trouble. Mr. Perry keeps his hogs within the proper bounds and quite naturally expects other people to do the same.

Knowland's clothes fit. A defective flue was the cause of a small fire in George Gadke's residence, near the Barclay school, Wednesday morning. The blaze was extinguished with a few buckets of water and but little damage was done. Died—at the family residence in Ballard, Wash., December 8, 1901, Cora, beloved wife of Thomas Gibb, aged 39, of consumption. Deceased was born in Clackamas county in 1862. She leaves a husband and six children to mourn their loss. The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Klar, of Macksburg, died at the Good Samaritan Hospital Monday morning from the effect of an operation on the spine. The body was brought to this city Monday evening and taken to Macksburg where the interment took place Wednesday. Next Tuesday evening the ladies of the Methodist church will open their Bazaar and Rummage sale in the lecture room of the Methodist church. Ice cream and cake, coffee and sandwiches will be served. The articles on sale are many and attractive. The Bazaar will probably continue two days. The city will shortly gravel the walks through the city plaza on the bluff. Two carloads of gravel were ordered Monday and the work will commence as soon as it arrives from Portland. The walks at present are of dirt and during the rainy season are very muddy and slippery. When the gravel is laid it will be a desired improvement.

THERE HAS NEVER BEEN COMPLAINT about the variety of our Holiday Goods, but this year we have added many new lines at prices that will interest Christmas buyers

When the business of a store becomes of such volume that the merchandise it sells can be bought direct of manufacturers, thus saving 15 per cent.

We mark all our goods in plain figures—the only honest way. It is not a question of getting from you all we can—we want only a SMALL PROFIT and a satisfied customer.

to 50 per cent. profit of the middleman or jobber. When the store can deal direct with the maker, thus insuring fresh perfect goods of the latest style and design, and of unquestioned quality and purity, then such a store is in a position to give the biggest values to the customers. Such is now the position of these stores. Three-fourths of all their merchandise comes direct from the makers, some even imported. It is a constantly growing business, and its values cannot be excelled by any similar stores on this coast. Our "MONEY BACK IF YOU WANT IT" GUARANTEE is protection that protects

BOOKS are coming to be considered more and more the desirable small present, the gift that for a small investment lasts the longest and carries with it as much love and good wishes as any expensive present. We have doubled our stock this year; it was bought closer than ever before; it is marked so low that you cannot resist giving two books where you expected to give one. It is carefully selected and you will find an appropriate book for all ages and tastes—books to accommodate all purses. Our book shelves invite your inspection as often as you have the spare time.

PICTURES—Next to books will come pictures this year. They carry lots of Christmas cheer for the money they cost, and last for years. We got some special bargains from the Tabor-Prang Art Co. What 15c to $1.00 will buy will astonish you. For longer purses they run as high as $10.00. It's a treat to look them over and costs you nothing.

CALENDARS CHRISTMAS CARDS, ETC.—An unusually big line. Cards for classes as cheap as 1/2c each. Dainty booklets in colors, 5c up. Calendars, 10c.

SILVERWARE—The great success in our line of sterling silver novelties handled on a moderate profit basis has resulted in a line of Quadruple Plated Silverware and small sterling table ware. These goods come direct from one of the largest manufacturing jewelers in the United States. We bought them RIGHT, we shall sell them right; not with a jewelry store profit, but at the same close margin that built up our big silver novelty trade. The values will surprise you—about 1/2 less than regular prices. Prices in plain figures—price them yourself.

Albums, Fancy Goods, Gold Pens, Umbrellas, Toys, Games, Picture Books—New fresh stock, all bought at factory prices and marked 25 per cent. under what smaller dealers have to ask. We have mentioned only a few of the many different lines we carry, but you know that a cordial invitation always awaits you at these stores and that you are never asked to buy. Come in and look around.

NEW DESIGNS IN TOILET ARTICLES—The newest fancies in mirrors and brushes are made up with sterling silver handles, silver mountings, and backs of both mirrors and brushes are finished in rosewood or Mexican hand-carved leather. These brushes and mirrors, together with a silver-mounted comb, go to make up some of the handsomest sets we have ever shown. They are the very latest and the prices are exceedingly low for such goods, $5.00 to $10.00. We haven't neglected the ebony sets that were so popular last year. These range in price from $2.50 to $8.00 per set. Celluloid sets in fancy cases, 75c.

PERFUME—No use trying to tell you anything about our stock of perfumery. We always have plenty, but this year we have added a dozen or two new odors, all of the best importations of Atkinson's, Lubin's, Lauer's and Roger and Gallet's, together with every domestic odor that is at all prominent. All prices, 50c, 75c, $1.00 per ounce. Fancy bottles from 25c to $5.00.

SOMETHING NEW this year in baby sets, useful as well as ornamental. Gold, silver and gun metal mounted brushes, combs and mirrors, handsome patterns, $1.00 to $2.50.

PURSES, POCKETBOOKS, LEATHER GOODS—Last year our stock and prices surprised our customers. This year we have made even a greater effort. The small profit we have added to the factory cost makes it seem almost like wholesaling them.

LOWNEY'S CANDIES—Nothing good enough but the best in this line. That means Lowney's, and a fresh shipment. Stale candy is a thankless gift. Ours comes just at the last minute—fresh, dainty and delightful—especially for Christmas.

A COMPLETE STOCK. A stock any drug store on this Coast would be proud of—at prices that would make most of them wonder where the profit was. We can't give even an outline in this space. WE ASK YOU TO COME AND INSPECT IT.

JEWELRY

Every one of the 300 pieces in this line is the latest—not a last year's article in the lot. There are desirable gifts for old and young from the baby to the grand parents and at prices at least 1/2 less than exclusive jewelry stores ask.

ORMALU CLOCKS

These are among the sweetest things shown this year and make exquisite gifts. But we have kept the prices down; for instance—a regular $2.25 clock for $1.65. Others up to $10.00.
