THE LOCAL NEWS.

BURN—To Mr. and Mrs. Franklin T. Griffith, on Sunday, December 15th, a daughter.

MR. THOMPSON'S WILL—The will of the late D. P. Thompson was admitted to probate in Portland Tuesday. His property goes equally to his wife and two daughters. A provision of $50,000 is made for the care of his son Ralph.

STEAMER RUTH SUNK.—The O. R. & N. Co.'s steamer Ruth struck a snag in the Willamette near Corvallis Tuesday morning and sank in a few minutes. No one was injured. The steamer is resting easy and can be raised without much difficulty.

ROUTINE BUSINESS TRANSACTED.—The Retail Merchants Protective Association met Monday evening in the county court room. The attendance was not large, owing to Governor Geer's presence at the Men's Club and only routine business was transacted.

CARRIED A CONCEALED WEAPON.—Jesse Waltrip was last Friday sentenced to 20 days in the county jail for carrying a concealed weapon. He was arrested Thursday night and is looked upon by the police as a suspicious character.

DEATH FROM CONSUMPTION.—Mrs. Permelia Orpheus Cleavenger, wife of Edwin Cleavenger, died Wednesday morning of consumption, aged 23 years, 4 months, and 2 days. The funeral was held Thursday morning at 10 o'clock from the residence of Mrs. M. E. Smith, Rev. J. H. Beaven officiating.

XMAS EVE AT CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH.—The Congregationalists are making extensive preparations for Christmas. The Sunday school is preparing a Christmas exercise for Christmas Eve, consisting of songs and recitations. The Christmas tree, fire place and Santa Claus will be there to assist in making this a most happy occasion for the little folks.

LOGAN SCHOOL REPORT.—Following is the report of school district No. 8, of Logan, for the month ending December 9, 1901: No. of pupils enrolled, 38; attendance, 35; total No. days attendance, 592; No. days absence, 19; holidays, 1. Neither absent nor tardy for the month: Hazel Sprague, Eva Newkirk, Bertha King, Elma Babler, Harry Sprague, Willie King, Bird Newkirk, Linda Woller. ROBT. W. BAKER, Teacher.

HAD PARALYTIC STROKE.—W. J. Caldwell, an 83 year-old pioneer, died at the Good Samaritan Hospital Monday. He was a resident of this city for many years and received a stroke of paralysis in Albany about 10 years ago. All of these years he has been taken care of by Oregon Lodge No. 1, I. O. O. F., and three weeks ago was taken to the hospital in Portland. He was stricken Monday for the third time and this stroke resulted fatally. The funeral was held Wednesday afternoon under the auspices of the Old Fellows.

FRED PALMER DIED AT BANDON.—News was received this week of the death of Fred Palmer, at Bandon, on December 9. He was well known to many residents of Oregon City. About 20 years ago he came to Salem from Massachusetts and for the next five years worked in the Salem Woolen Mills. He came to this city and was in the employ of the Oregon City Manufacturing Company until 10 years ago, when he went to Bandon. The body was embalmed and arrived here yesterday accompanied by Mrs. Palmer, who will take the remains East for burial.

MILL EMPLOYE ON THE RAMPAGE.—Frank Bernier, foreman of the beater room in the Crown Paper Mills was severely cut in the hand Friday evening as the result of an attack by B. A. Wicks who was in the employ of the paper company some time ago, but has not been working for some time. Friday night he was engaged to substitute for a regular man. When he arrived at the mill he was in an intoxicated condition and unfit to work, and the foreman told him to go home where he belonged. Wicks became angry and drew a knife and threatened to strike Bernier, who grasped his uplifted arm and in the scuffle that followed Bernier received a bad cut in the hand. Wicks was put out of the mill, but soon returned and armed with an iron bar threatened to strike any one that came near him. He kept them at bay until one of the employes caught his arms from behind and Wicks was soon securely bound. The police were notified by telephone and he was taken to jail. Justice McAnulty allowed him to plead guilty to assault and battery and sentenced him to 25 days in the county jail.

AUCTION SALE.

All of the furniture of ten room residence will be sold at public auction on Saturday, December 28, at 10 o'clock, at the residence of J. G. Pillsbury, near the suspension bridge.

On account of removal from the city J. G. Pillsbury has directed that all the furniture of his residence be sold at auction. The furniture consists of parlor suits, dining room furniture, bed room suits in walnut, oak and ash, brussels carpets, rugs etc. Heating and cook stoves, curtains, book cases and kitchen furniture. This furniture is all in good condition.

At the City Hall Armory last night, the Fisher & Van Cleave Company played to a fair-sized house in "Jerry, the Tramp," remembered by many of Salem's theatre-goers as "The Convict's Daughter." The company did full justice to the various parts, each member sustaining his or her role equal to the old-time performers of the higher-priced theaters, and the audience was thoroughly appreciative. Tonight the company plays that old familiar temperance drama—"Ten Nights in a Barroom" which will bring out the whole company in its full strength. Prices, 10, 20 and 30 cents.—Salem Statesman Dec. 4.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury.

as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally, and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free.

Sold by Druggists, price 75 cents per bottle.

Hall's Family Pills are the best.

Robbery.

W. J. Montgomery.

He is able bodied, and can work. He is a parasite that ought to be removed from the body politic. It is not Christian to feed this class of able bodied, lazy fellows. They have no claim to the sympathy of the benevolent or the hard-working. A cripple or any other person physically unable to earn the bread of life, ought to be fed, and must be fed. But these social outlaws of the road ought not to be fed unless they work. If the public generally would act upon this just, and in the end, humane principle, they would soon be forced to take up honest work for a living. There is good scripture for this proposed mode of treatment. In the second epistle to the Thessalonians Paul writes as follows: 'For even we were with you, this we commanded you, that if any would not work, neither should he eat.' (2 Thess. 3:10). As citizens we should do all that we can to bring these offenders to justice when once the crime of highway robbery has been committed. The officers of the law are unable to do it alone. Swift justice is one of the greatest deterrents of crime.

Would not a chain gang, such as a number of the cities of our country maintain, be a remedy worth the trial? As I understand it, wherever this method of dealing with them has been tried, it has been crowned with success.

In the way of prevention, stricter immigration laws are loudly called for. The compulsory education laws should somehow be made more effective, so as to include that class of boys which is so prone to fall out of school entirely in the lower grades. And I have the conviction, also, that there should be introduced into our school system a sensible course of manual training. Many of the hoboos are mentally defective, yet they perhaps have had enough mechanical ingenuity, had it been developed at the proper time, to have made a success of their lives.

One cannot but wish, however, that there were highwaymen along some of the other walks of life. If there were only those who would hold up the young man before he learns to enter the saloon, and the gambling hell, and the harlot's den. Such a highwayman would be no a hobo but a hero.
