Gentlemen:—Being entirely cured of deafness, thanks to your treatment, I will now give you a full history of my case, to be used at your discretion.
About five years ago my right ear began to ring, and this kept on getting worse, until I lost my hearing in this ear entirely.
I underwent a treatment for catarrh, for three months, without any success, consulted a number of physicians, among others, the most eminent ear specialist of this city, who told me that only an operation could help me, and even that only temporarily, that the head noises would then cease, but the hearing in the affected ear would be lost forever.
I then saw your advertisement accidentally in a New York paper, and ordered your treatment. After I had used it only a few days according to your directions, the noises ceased, and to-day, after five weeks, my hearing in the diseased ear has been entirely restored. I thank you heartily and beg to remain Very truly yours,

THE COWBOY IN POLITICS

Its a Great Thing to Have Been a Rough Rider.

CURRENCY MEASURE SUBMITTED
Important Points of Congress Review
Proposed Tariff Concessions to Cuba
Will be Taken Up Soon.

Special to the Enterprise.
WASHINGTON, D. C., January 16—
It's a great thing to have been a Rough Rider. The name is an "open sesame" at the White House and the cowboy in politics is getting so frequent as no longer to surprise anyone. But some of the jobs they are getting surprise the other fellow who wanted them. B. F. Daniels, who was a private in President Roosevelt's Rough Rider regiment in the Spanish War, is now here and says he will be nominated as marshal of Arizona to succeed ex-Governor Myron H. McCord. This will occasion surprise in Arizona politics and throughout the west. Daniels was the chief of police of Cripple Creek, Col., when he enlisted for the Spanish war. He is now a resident of Nogales, Ariz., and is well known throughout the west.

The banking and currency committee of the House will begin at an early date the consideration of two important financial bills. The first will be the bill introduced by Mr. Overstreet, of Indiana, making it mandatory upon the Secretary of the Treasury to exchange gold for silver. This bill is being urged as a necessary rounding out of the gold-standard law now on the statute books. The prospects for a favorable report from the committee are good.

The other bill is a measure broadly described as making more elastic the national bank currency. It has not been formulated yet, but will probably be a composite bill, including the main features of a number of pending bills upon the same subject.

The House Ways and Means Committee will take up the proposed tariff concessions to Cuba at an early date and a hearing will be given the Cuban delegates who are in this country representing the commercial interests of the island. The Cubans ask for a reduction of the existing tariff rates on sugar, tobacco, molasses, rum and cigars. Their plea for lower tariff on sugar and tobacco is endorsed by the War Department.

Mr. Oxnard, in behalf of the beet-sugar interests of this country, is opposing the Cuban concessions. The committee on ways and means will grant Mr. Oxnard and some other parties in interest a hearing at the same time the Cubans are heard.

Although Congress assembled on the first Monday in December last, it had been in session, prior to Monday, Jan. 6, only eight days. Yet in that time it started an unprecedented amount of work. To record this work required 175 pages of the House Journal, a publication of the same sized page as the Congressional Record. Each page contained 1700 words, or a total of 297,500 words which the journal clerks were required to record, being 234 words for every minute of time occupied during the session.

lal arch. The commission is also required to obtain, by any form of competition which may seem advisable, plans, specifications and models for said memorial provided for in the bill, and may pay for the same to competing artists not exceeding $25,000.
By the election of United States senators in Maryland, New Jersey and Kentucky the democracy will gain two members. Mr. Wellington and Mr. Deboe will retire. The successor of General Sewell will of course be a republican. Most probably he will be former Attorney-General John W. Griggs. Gorman's return to the Senate in the place of Wellington is a foregone conclusion. In Kentucky there will be a hot fight. Just at this time James B. McCreary is ahead in the race.
