There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies, Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the influstion can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

When eating is followed by undue full-ness, belchings, sour or bitter risings, etc., disease is attacking the stomach. The best way to frustrate such an at-tack is to use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It cures diseases of the

He said that they were perfectly willing many thousand people depend on the that the improvement should be made mail service for medical treatment. Not but that the improvement of that street alone would be more injurious than beneficial as it would divert travel that way in Buffalo, N. V., some light was throws and in a short time the street would be on this subject by the statement that in as had condition as at the present the mail by Dr. R V. POSSIBILITIES OF THE POSTAL SYSTEM.

"Common is the commonplace." The most valuable of civil benefits is such a commonplace matter, that we scarcely give it a thought. It would take a win-ter on a whaler nipped in an ice floe to make us truly appreciable of the worth of the postal service. What a wonder-ful thing it is! Wonderful in its organization, with its vast machinery for the collection and distribution of letters, its railway mail cars, its route riders, the unfailing order and precision of its methods. Wonderful it is too in its results. It knits together families widely separated. It carries across the sea some tender lover's message or perhaps a little flower picked from the daisied grave of an English churchyard. Every hour of every day the mail hag is packed with words which waken love and laughter, and words which deepen the furrow in the cheek and dim the failing sight

But with all this there is going on through the mail service a dissemination of human knowledge, a reaching out of human help which is one of the are sending to every village and hamlet the broader knowledge which is life. Without the mail system this plan of education would be impracticable.

Every mail, too, car.ies from the great which it would be impossible for the distant public to obtain were it not for the mails. Few people realize how long ago when some postal affairs were being discussed in connection with the erection of the new postoffice building daily to something over 1,500 pieces and Washington streets from Seventh to Fifth streets, with crushed rock.

Mr. Francis reported in regard to the that of his staff of nearly a score of skilled and experienced specialists much sought after, especially by women, to the treatment and cure of whose special diseases Dr. Pierce has devoted over thirty years of almost constant labor. But though this example is out of the ordinary, it may serve as an evidence of the amazing benefits reaped by the public from the mail service. It puts every outlying hamlet in touch with the most advanced medical specialism of the day It gives at a cost of a two-cent stamp the skill and experience that it has taken years to acquire. Literally at the cost of a two-cent stamp, since Dr. Pierce invites sick women to consult him by letter without charge. And this would seem to be one of the most remarkable services rendered by the postal system, propriating $60,000 for a public building perhaps the supreme service of all. For while it is a splendid thing to be able to shop in New York while living in Kan-The Chief of Police was instructed to sas, and a grand thing to be able to fessors while working in the Michigan woods, it is a still grander thing that by means of this cheaply supplied service, men like Dr. Pierce, who have the dis-position to be helpful, are enabled to place their skill and knowledge at the disposal of those who are being dragged down by disease, without the possibility of help from those about them. When one contemplates the vast and far reaching benefits of the mail service, so briefly touched upon in this article, it makes the familiar gray uniform of the postman the most glorious of all uniforms, for it is worn by the soldiers of the army of peace It makes one feel like taking his hat off to the on-rushing mail train, and cheer-ing the work and wisdom of Uncle Sam.
