FRIGHTENED!

The Agony Endured by Nervous Women.

"My nerves are all unstrung" is the expressive way in which a woman is apt to describe a condition of extreme nervousness. The figurative expression "unstrung" may be unscientific but it pathetically suggests the grand harp of the nervous system, strung and keyed for harmonies by its Maker, now become so unstrug that it gives out nothing but jarring discords. Nervous people rarely receive the sympathy which is their due. The dropping of a book which causes the nervous woman to start, or the slam-ming of a door which causes her to the nervous woman such sud-den sounds are like a blow in the face and they cause intense suffering. The extent of this suffering may be gathered from Mrs. Nelson's experience told in the letter given below. She says, "I was so nerrous that the least thing would startle me almost into convulsions." Such a condition of nervousness generally indicates womanly diseases. It is useless to attempt to cure nervousness by the use of 105 00 narcotics.

NARCOTICS ARE DEADLY for the nervous woman whose need is not to make the nerves sleep but to make them strong, not to numb them but to nourish them. The best medicine for nervous women is Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It cures nervous ness because it cures the causes which are behind nervousness. It establishes regularity, dries the drains which underine the health and strength, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness. It makes weak women strong and sick women well.

"Dr. Pierce's medicines are the best I have ever used," writes Mrs. C. Nelson, of Chemawa, Marion Co., Oregon. "My health was badly run down when I consulted him by letter. My limbs were cold and my head hurt me continually. I was so nervous that the least thing would startle me almost into convul-I had palpitation of the heart so sions. I had palpitation of walk some-bad that I could scarcely walk sometimes. I felt utterly discouraged, but two bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and one of 'Golden Medical Discovery' made a new woman out of me. We are never without Dr. Pierce's Pellets in the house."

Nothing is claimed for Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription but is claimed for it by the women who have been cured Behind every claim by its use. cure-yes, a thousand cures. In fact,
