Dr. Edgar P. Hill, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Portland, has consented to deliver the address to the graduating class at the next Chautauqua Assembly. He will do this at a great personal sacrifice to his church work and the Chautauquians consider themselves very fortunate in securing him for that occasion.

John Willis Baer lectured to a crowded house at the Presbyterian Church last night. He talked on Christian Endeavor work and was listened to with close attention. Rev. H. S. Templeton, of Portland, also made a short address. Mr. Baer left at nine o'clock for Tacoma, where he will lecture tomorrow. He is the secretary of the International Christian Endeavor Society and is making a tour of the United States.

In the window of Huntley's drug store appears two portraits of General Sumner and Ray Williams, the work of Miss I. B. McArthur, formerly a resident of this city. The execution is remarkable and bears the stamp of perfection which marks all of Miss McArthur's work. The artist may be found at 442 Washington Street, Portland, by anyone wishing this sort of work done.

Superintendent George A. Brown, of the South Coos River Hatchery, returned to this city Wednesday morning after an absence of nine months. He has closed down operations for the season, and reports that 2,700,000 eggs were taken from Coos river and of this number 440,000 were transferred to the Coquille river. He has been continuously at the station since last June and commenced taking eggs in October. He will return in about three months. Mr. Brown came out by way of Drain and says the roads are in a frightful condition.

HUNTLEY'S BOOK STORE

OREGON CITY

FRANK BUSCH

THE HOUSEFURNISHER

Among the foundation stones of this business are "Honest Advertising," "A Spirit of Accommodation," "Thoroughly Complete Stocks" and "The Very Lowest Prices." To daily approach the plane of perfection in dignified merchandise is the constant aim, study and effort of this institution. Every week adds to the ability of this great store to do better the duty it undertakes—which duty is: "To [win] through merit, the friendship and patronage of the public, to become the supply center of all those who require honest, dependable goods." If we for instance sell you one door that should be 1½ inch thick, we will not send you one that SUPPOSED to be 1½ inch thick but is dressed down to 1¼ inch.—If you ask for instance for one door 2 ft. 6 x 6 ft. 6 x 1½ you get exactly what you bargained for and the price is only $1.35 at that. We guarantee our prices of windows against anybody in the land. Builder's Hardware is our stronghold.

Mighty Pretty! Speaking of Wall Paper—the prettiest designs and colorings we have ever sold or seen are included in the great stock you can choose from here. MIGHTY CHEAP, TOO. Excellent paper for 5 cents a roll; better grades, too, of course, and all fresh and new—you may rely on that, have confidence in our word, confidence is the foundation of society. If you cannot trust a man don't deal with him.—There are enough honest men who want your trade.

Portiers, Lace Curtains and Carpets—these homebeautifying articles must be seen to be appreciated, take a little time, call on us and find out that a small amount of money is sufficient to fix your rooms in a modern and tasty way.
