MES, REED'S RECITAL, the musical event of the winter was e recital given by Mrs. Walter Reed at Friday evening in Woodmen Hall, der the auspices of the Derthick Club. he hall was crowded to the doors and as decorated with palms, Oregon grape id form, which were arranged with exsisite taste and presented a striking pearance, Mrs. Reed was never in tter voice and her rich contralto rang rong and true. All of her numbers "The Danza" (Chadwick), which s enthusiastically received. This was H. J. HARDING, WILLIAM GODFREY, lowed by two piano numbers "Poloise" (Chopin) and "Valse Chromane" (Godard) by Miss Veda Williams. le was Miss Williams' first appearance public for several years past, and a eat improvement was noticeable in r technique. "Im Herbst," and two d French songs were grand. In thiinter the artist threw her whole soul d the climax was all that the heart ald desire, and the mind could not acrive of songs more beautiful and rilling than these. The duet "Jubel iverture" (Weber) by Miss Mattie aper and Mrs. L. L. Porter was rended in good style and they responded a hearty encore. "A Red Red Rose", annie Laurie", and "Shouggle, Shoug-Ma Bairnie," three Scotch songs, are received by the audience with arked pleasure and perhaps might be fled the gems of the evening. After aring Mrs. Reed in these one can illy understand how she has won the putation of being the true artist that is in her rendition of Scotch songs. fighty Lak A Rose" was artistically idered in a delicate style that was eet and winning, and she graciously panded to repeated requests for her opengance, "La Danza" a Neapoli Taratille, (Rossini) which was gor-

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by costantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cute, manufactured by F. J. Chency & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful.
