Persons whose faith has been shaken by the present changes in religious thought are especially invited to hear these sermons. The morning theme will be "A Conversion as Taught by Jesus."

WIRES BURNED OUT.—Much excitement was caused Tuesday night by the burning out of the wires connecting over the telephones. About 6 o'clock a fierce wind sprang up suddenly, and two electric light wires on the suspension poles were blown together and caught fire. One of them dropped on a telephone wire, and in the twinkling of an eye the wires crossing the bridge and running on Main street burned out. The wires were in a bad tangle and half of the telephones in town were put out of business. The telephone company sent men to work at once and the telephones are in working order.

IT WAS A DAY OF RESURRECTION

Easter Sunday Was Observed In All of the Churches.

LOVELY FLOWERS IN PROFUSION

Musical Program Was a Feature of the Service, Which Were Largely Attended—Perfect Weather.

Easter morning broke bright and fair over the city last Sunday. The cloudless sky, the cool summer breezes bidding farewell to winter and the air redolent with the scent of Easter lilies combined to make the day a perfect one. Fortunate indeed it was that Jupiter Pluvius had the grace to go way back, and the ladies took advantage of his absence by appearing in handsome suits and hats, which elicited much admiration and comment.

The day was appropriately observed in all of the churches. St. Paul's Episcopal was crowded at the morning and was beautifully decorated. The church was decked with boughs of spring and lilies adorned the altar. The music was a special feature of the service, which was followed by holy communion. The impressive ritual of the Episcopal church was conducted with solemn thoughts and the sermon by the rector, Rev. Philip K. Hammond, was a masterly effort.

At the Congregational church the principal service was in the evening. The decorations were exquisitely arranged. A wealth of Galla lilies filled the altar, which were a gift from Mrs. R. M. Sprague, formerly of this city, but now living at Santa Cruz, California. The musical program was most excellent. Miss Conyers sang "The Resurrection," Mr. H. P. Bestow, of Portland, sang "Open The Portals" and "Cavalry". The choir rendered several anthems in good style and a male quartette composed of Charles Blum, H. D. Wilcox, D. Woodard, H. B. Bestow, sang "I Know That My Redeemer Liveth" which was much enjoyed. To Mrs. F. F. White, organist and musical director is due great credit for the music of the day.

Services were held in the Methodist Episcopal church both morning and evening. At the latter service there was no preaching and the program was occupied by the children of the Sunday school, and an interesting program was rendered. The music by the choir was enjoyable. Miss Harding sang a solo. The church was crowded at both services.

The Baptist church services were largely attended. The main Easter service was held Sunday evening and Mrs. Richard Clark Ganong sang "The Resurrection."

The usual services took place in St. John's church. At high mass Miss Mattie Draper sang a solo. The church was decorated with a profusion of beautiful flowers.

At the First Presbyterian church the Easter services were held in the morning. The Easter music was specially arranged for the occasion, and the bass solo by Mr. J. C. Ziner was very pleasing. The decorations were lovely and both morning and evening services were well attended. The Christian Endeavor Society conducted Easter service in the afternoon.
