Between dates we had often a rough time of it April has not shown improvement and was hard on the juveniles who count on Easter Monday for eggrolling on the White House lot. Many of them stood it and made the best of the privilege; the grounds were crowded with thousands all day, but many did not stay very long. The President, members of the Cabinet and their families came out on the veranda overlooking the grounds and smiled when the children gave them cheers. The culmination was at 4 P. M., when the Marine Band came on the scene, as at the home of his mother, Mr. h the band playing was a great treat for dock, of pernicious anemia, and the youngsters. This eggrolling on Easter Monday originated fifty years ago ago from Morrow County wheelsh and has become an established custom. three years. Independent dealers are crushed out, wholesale dealers are not allowed to buy of farmers, and if they attempt it are ruined. The commission merchant becomes a salaried man of the trusts; the country is full of trust agencies and branches. The combine was organized 25 years ago; the latest development is a crusade by establishing local slaughterhouses in large cities, carried on for the trusts under the names of former proprietors. It seems that butchers in towns on the Harlem River were first to take up arms against the beef trust, as a measure of business life or death; they met and decided to fortify themselves from being swept off Jones John the face of the earth, for they are required to make cash payment weekly, or to be rafused credit.
