The Chainless Bicycle.

In mud or dust, on good roads or bad roads, the chainless runs easier and requires not a fraction of the care that a chain wheel does. The price only has stood in the way of its universal adoption. Huntley's Book Store is in position to make special prices on chainless this year. Ask about it.

The Great Dismal Swamp

Of Virginia is a breeding ground of Malaria germs. So in low, wet or marshy ground everywhere. These germs cause weakness, chills and fever, aches in the bones and muscles, and may induce dangerous maladies. But Electric Bitters never fail to destroy them and cure malarial troubles. They will surely prevent typhoid. "Worried many remedies for Malaria and Stomach and Liver troubles," writes John Charleston, of Byersville, O., "but never found anything as good as Electric Bitters." Try them. Only 50c. Geo. A. Harding guarantees satisfaction.

Rates Again Reduced From All Points East.

Before you make definite arrangements for that trip east let us quote you rates via the Illinois Central Railroad. Our rates are the lowest to be had, and our service is the best. If you haven't time to communicate with us, tell the agent from whom you purchase your ticket that you want to travel by way of the Illinois Central, and you will never regret the trip.

If any of your relatives or friends in the east are coming west while the low rates are in effect write us about them, and we will see that they get the lowest rates with the best service.

Through tourist cars, personally conducted excursion cars, free reclining chair cars—in fact all the latest conveniences known to modern railroading.

For particulars regarding rates, time, service, stop-overs, different connections and routes, etc., call on or address:

Spring is here. Are you here with an idea of getting a spring suit? Knowland, the tailor, near the S. P. Depot, has a line of new samples of spring suits just in. They are pretty and nobby. Knowland's clothes are the kind that fit.

Up to and including Wednesday afternoon 2700 voters had registered. Registration Clerk Dixon is of the opinion that the total registration this year will be less than two years ago when 4300 voters registered.

The Mothers' Club of Oregon City will meet at the residence of G. C. Brownell, afternoon, May 1. The leading topic will be, "What Errors of the Mother Make Most Trouble for the Teacher." The presence of guests as well as members of the club is desired.

F. H. Welsh has purchased the plant of the Union Candy Company near the Woolen Mills and has installed an electric motor to operate his ice cream freezer. Mr. Welsh will make additions to the plant and will devote his attention to the wholesale trade.

District Attorney Harrison Allen Wednesday returned a true bill against Robert Gardner, who was accused of the robbery of Hugh Miller on February 18 last. Gardner was armed with a dangerous weapon and has been in jail since the commission of the crime.

A meeting of all of the Republican candidates on the county ticket was held in this city Wednesday and a plan of campaign, which will be made public in a few days, was outlined. Reports from all parts of the county were very encouraging for Republican success.

Johnson and Lamb have removed their repair shop to the location formerly occupied by them and until recently the store of the Wisconsin Jewelers and Opticians, on Main street between Sixth and Seventh. They are prepared to do bicycle and general repairing and have the agency for the Wolf-American wheel.

Fred J. Meindl, Socialist candidate for state senator, addressed the voters of Highland last night. Tonight he will go to Mackeburg, and will be accompanied by the following socialists: Robert Ginther, candidate for representative; G. Lazelle, candidate for Commissioner; C. H. Robbins, candidate for clerk; Franz Kraxberger, candidate for recorder. On Friday, May 2, Mr. Meindl will go to Shubel and on the following Saturday to Clarkes.

The candidates on the Citizens' ticket have arranged the following dates on which they will address the voters of the county: Mulino, Thursday, April 24; Beaver Creek, Saturday, 26; Milwaukie, Monday, April 28; Canby, Tuesday, April 29; Clackamas, Thursday May 1; Tualatin, Saturday, May 3; at Frog Pond school house.

The Enterprise $1.50 per year.

Edgar Boynton was adjudged insane yesterday and was taken to the asylum by the sheriff. He is a resident of Oregon City, is a painter by trade and is 69 years of age. The cause of his insanity was facial neuralgia and the duration of the attack has been two years. His wife and son swore to the complaint.

Judge G. E. Hayes went to Holcomb Wednesday and made an address in the schoolhouse. The voters present paid close attention to his remarks on the issue of the campaign. Between now and the second day of June Judge Hayes will make a number of speeches for the Republican ticket in different portions of the county.

The morning theme at the Congregational church will be "The Correct Use of the Soul's Monitor." In the evening the pastor will give the last of the series of sermons on "Faith and Facts of Life." The book of Job has been used to illustrate this series, and the last, "Faith Purified and Corrected" is to show how life's perplexities may train the eye of faith to see God.

Elmer and Edwin Duncan and J. M. Kendrick were arrested by Constable Moody Tuesday on a charge of placing explosives in the Molalla River at Canby for the purpose of catching trout. The Duncans waived examination and will have their trial at the June term of the Circuit Court. Kendrick will have a hearing in the Justice Court next Saturday.

Circuit Court has been in session this week and will continue over until some time next week. The jurors have been discharged until the June term. No important decisions have been rendered but decisions are expected in a few days in a number of important cases, among them the Fellows will case, the Apperson vs. Charman, et al., foreclosure suit, and the Oregon City-O. & C. R. R. case.

One of the most pleasing features of "Too Rich To Marry" which will be at the Shively opera house Friday May 16 is the specialties. During the intermission between the acts, several first class specialties are introduced, and during the actions of the play, songs and dances are appropriately interwoven with the plot. In fact "Too Rich To Marry" besides carrying a most capable company of actors and actresses has a corps of specialty artists equal to the demands of any of the large eastern vaudeville theaters.

The meeting to discuss plans for a Fourth of July celebration was held in the county courtroom last Monday evening and many business men were present. The program on the Fourth will probably include a big street parade, races and sports on Main street. If it can be arranged the falls will be illuminated in the evening. The following committee was appointed to solicit subscriptions and will report at the next meeting to be held in about two weeks: Charles Albright, L. Adams, W. E. Carl, J. P. Lovett, C. G. Huntley, M. Michael, G. W. Grace, J. W. Moffatt, G. B. Dimick, F. T. Griffith. It is expected that about $700 will be easily raised and this amount will give the city a very creditable celebration.

Shot in His Left Leg.

For all kinds of sores, burns, bruises, or other wounds DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is a sure cure. Skin diseases yield to it at once. Never fails in cases of piles. Cooling and healing. None genuine but DeWitt's. Beware of counterfeits. "I suffered for many years from a sore caused by a gun shot wound in my left leg," says A. S. Fuller, English, Ind. "It would not heal and made me much trouble. I used all kinds of remedies to no purpose until I tried DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. A few boxes completely cured me." Geo. Harding.

Mr. Wheeler Got Rid of His Rheumatism.

"During the winter of 1898 I was so lame in my joints, in fact all over my body, that I could hardly hobble around, when I bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. From the first application I began to get well, and was cured and have worked steadily all the year.—R. Wheeler, Northwood, N. Y. For sale by G. A. Harding, Druggist.
