KICKING MARRIED THE GAME.

Home Team Had the Best of Monograms But the Game Was Called a Draw.

The Monograms, of Portland, and the Oregon City team played the opening game of the schedule of the Oregon State Amateur League at Willamette Park grounds last Sunday. The Portland players arrived about one o'clock and were met by the Woodmen band and the home team and escorted to the grounds.

The game was an interesting one and was well played throughout but it was marred by kicking. The kicking of Pitcher Fleming was an objectionable feature. Gilbert Hedges umpired half through the game but some of the Portland men disputed his decisions and he withdrew. His place was taken by Conway, a Portland man.
