RESULTS OF ELECTION.

The election is over and many people are surprised. There are several reasons state. for the result. In the first place the people do not believe that the county affairs have been mismanaged. They warrant having all Republican officials. The people evidently belive in the political integrity of the Republicans as well as in the personal integrity of the candi-

As for the Citizens, it was an aggregation that simply stood for office and not for any principle or object that would b nd them together in the sense that political parties are bound together. The people do not like such a crowd. The Citizens could not expect to gain votes when one would say: "I am a Republican but I am fighting the Republi can ticket" and another would say, "I am a Democrat but I did not think we escape! were strong enough alone and I and my Republican friend thought we would lay aside our principles and go it together as that is the only way we could get an office." Many Democrats and Populists would not stand this and voted the Republican ticket rather than mix with the Citizen crowd Many Democrats believe that a straight Democratic ticket would have polled more votes than the Citizens polled.

The Citizen-Fusion-Union ticket has gone to seed in this county and some Thanks Them For the High Compliment men went into it at this time simply to even up on what had happened to them or their friend in the past at some former election. Unless the people have I desire at this time and in this manner confidence in the people that manage a and way to express to you all my campaign they will not support the ticket even if they believe the candidates are favorable men. The Citizens' ticket had some managers whose heads were slightly swelled, to say the least, a tirade of abuse and extravagent statement that could not be substantiated and this reacted on the ticket.

Last, but by no manner of measure earn their confidence and respect. least, the Republican ticket was composed of excellent material and the longer the people of this county know these gentlemen the more respect they will have for them. They will wear in medicine is given by druggist G. W. and they will serve old Clackamas as Roberts, of Etizabeth, W. Va. An old well as any official ever elected in it.

HONOR TO BRAVE MEN.

Lasting since October 10, 1809, the Boer war in South Africa is ended. On the day that Prestdent Kruger issued his ulti natum to England ft was the boast of the British that the struggle would end in their favor inside of a few months. Instead it has dragged on to the regret of the civilized world for more than two years. One cannot help but admire these p -ople as a whole-as a nation. United for independence, they have been hounded for years from one place to another, seeking rest and happiness in their way two years ago yesterday Pretoria fell & N. Co., Vancouver Transportation Co. without a blow. For nearly twenty-four and Columbia River & Poget Sound months then guerilla warfare has been having the following the Boars. They have had brilliant successes with a handful of men honored on trains of the A. & C. R. R. and superior strategy and they have met in either direction. with reverses. Peace is welcome, though it was long in coming. No nation, in comparative strength, could have fought the fight as the brave Boers have done, giving inch by inch, until their streng h, never great, was exhausted. Thousands have condemned them for withstanding the march of progress but many thousands more cannot condemn them for their heroism, for their bravery, for their patriotism, and for their love of peace and of their firesides.

> Somenopy once said that Clackamas County was badly in need of reformers; that the county was fearfully mismanaged; that the money of the taxpayers was equandered. Nine wise men said: 'we will tell the people of these things and we will be taken up as the true reformers and the people will believe us and we will be set up as the rulers of the and and spend the people's money." They went out to the uttermost parts of the county and told their 'story but the people heeded them not and elected the Republicans to a man. These nine wise men bave marvelled much on the obtuseness and blindness of the voter. They do not understand why such saviors of the people are put aside and are not taken up as the elect.

F. A. Sleight has not as large a majority as some of the other candidates. Seminary, This is caused by his lack of acquaintance. Two years hence, if he is a candidate for re-election, no man on the ticket will get a better vote, as the people will find by that time that they have as efficient a clerk as any county in the

Now that election is past let us forget our differences and settle down to the believe that while taxes are high that enjoyment of Summer. The battle was the people have received an equivalent a hard one, long drawn out. Every in good roads. The people believe that man out forth his best individual effort the administration of the Republicans and somebody had to lose. #### DEATH OF OLIVER LIPES.

Was In the Philippines Wit't the Second Oregon Volunteers.

News was received here Sunday morning of the death at Fioriston, Cal., of Onver Lipes, who left this city for Floriston about one month ago. Before be left Oregon City he was suffering from an attack of mountain fever, which developed into brain fever causing his death at 7 o'clock Saturday might. He had never been well since his return from the Philippines. On Wednesday prior to his death, Miss Birdle Jones, his fiancee, left this city for his bedside but arrived there an hour and 20 minutes after he had breathed his last. His age was 27 years and his aunt, Mrs. M. A. Willis and his cousin, Mrs. Clarence Fields, reade in this city. Lipes was well known in athletic circles and had been a member of the local baseball team. At the outbreak of the Spanish war he was in Baker City and came to Portland, enlisting in Company A. An incident concerning the bravery of Oliver Lipes is related by First Lieutenant Frederick W. Humphrys, who was with Company I in the Philippines. On the night of April 11, 1899 the Second Oregon was in camp at Marilao and Lipes was the corporal in charge of a de-tail of men to patrol the railroad track. The insurgents got in between them and the camp and the patrol had to fight its way in. There were two lines of insurgents and Lipes and his men shot one Filipino in the act of cutting a telegraph wire, another was killed by the side of the track and a third in a cuivert. The patrol came into camp in the face of 20 rifles and never received a scratch. The funeral was held in this city vesterday. The body arrived on the California overland Wednesday night and was met at the depot by a military escort from Company A, Third Regiment, Oregon National Guard. The casket was taken to the Armory where it rested all night under a guard of militiamen. At 2:30 yesterday afternoon services were held over the body in the First Presby-terian Church, Rev. W. S. Gilbert, chaplain of the second Oregon, officiating. The interment took place in Mountain View cemetery and the dead veteran was honored with a full military funeral. The pall bearers were members of Company A, Second Oregon Volunteers Lipes was with this company in the Philippines all through the insurrection there. The funeral cortege was escorted by Company A, O. N. G., and members of Companies A and I, Second Oregon. A

I sat near a gentleman who proved to be Gen'l Rufus Saxton, who was quarter master at Vancouver forty years ago, and knew many of the old Oregonians. He is now retired after a long life of ser-vice. He introduced me to another Clarke, from Northampton, Mass., that has been the home of the Clarke family since 1630. I give these incidents to show lite at the National Capital, where one with an ancient aucestry can estatepleasant relations.

Admiral Schley said that his family had been in all the wars of this country effect to weave stronger the ties of friends ship between the United States and the great nations of the world and so insure peace and good will to create and perfect the most kindly relations. There is no cloud visible on the international horizon, nor does one seem possible, for peace is knitting stronger bonds than ever and our relations with the world are kindlier as the years go by?

Of late there have been many grand funerals; since the obsequies of Admiral Sampson the remains of tieneral Rose crans have been removed from California to the National Cemetery at Arlington Every week some event is celebrated; associations of national and patrionic character hold annual sessions and bring an ever changing, never ending throng of visitors to be guests at the famous ho-tels that make so striking a feature of the Capitol City. This causes a throng in the ways that lead to Mount Vernon, Arlungton, Alexandria and Fort Meyer, and an endiese chain of visitors who as cend the Monument, visit the Capitol, where Congress is in session, see the Library of Congress, the Smithsonian, and other national buildings, not forgetting the "Zoo" and its living features of interest. A party of pleasure seekers can spend weeks and feel regret that they have not viewed all the eights of Washington. S. A. CLARKE.

The New Idea Dandruff Cure

..The.. Scientific Remedy

The New Idea Dandruff Cure is so called because the new idea of the treatment of disease is applied in its preparation. It is called the "scientific remedy" because it contains only such ingredients as are known to be efficacious in maiadies of this class. That the flakes of dandruff are the dried discharge from thousands of little ulcers in the scalp is a fact well understood by modern physicians. The New Idea Dandruff Cure will cleanse these ulcers, stimulate the healthy tissue around them, and allow them to be healed up by the restoring power of nature. It contains no alcohol, ammonia, sal soda, borax or aikall in any form, or anything that will injure either the hair or skin, and is not contaminated with cheap "perfume" which is so admirably calculated to "charm the vulsa and offend the refloed." It is a sanitary, safe and sure cure for dandruff and all scalp diseases. It is put up in full quart bottles, which is enough to cure any one case (and ordinarily two or three cases), with full directions on each bottle. Bold by the trade at $1 per bottles.
